Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights this week have been given by Christina and Paul Halsey, in loving memory of her granddaughter and his daughter, Davine Stuart.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds
of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sentence of Scripture Hebrews 10:23

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we are to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:

pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

First Bible Reading Genesis 37: 1-4. 12-28

Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. This is the account of Jacob's family line. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made an ornate robe for him. When his brothers saw that their father loved him, more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Now his brothers had gone to graze their father's flocks near Shechem, and Israel said to Joseph, 'As you know, your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I am going to send you to them.' 'Very well,' he replied. So he said to him, 'Go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks, and bring word back to me.' Then he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron. When Joseph arrived at Shechem, a man found him wandering around in the fields and asked him, 'What are you looking for?' He replied, 'I'm looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are grazing their flocks?' 'They have moved on from here,' the man answered. 'I heard them say, "Let's go to Dothan."'

So Joseph went after his brothers and found them near Dothan. But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him. 'Here comes that dreamer!' they said to each other. 'Come now, let's kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns and say that a ferocious animal devoured him. Then we'll see what comes of his dreams.' When Reuben heard this, he tried to rescue him from their hands. 'Let's not take his life,' he said. 'Don't shed any blood.

Throw him into this cistern here in the wilderness, but don't lay a hand on him. Reuben said this to rescue him from them and take him back to his father. 'So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe – the ornate robe he was wearing – and they took him and threw him into the cistern. The cistern was empty; there was no water in it. As they sat down to eat their meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, balm and myrrh, and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt. Judah said to his brothers, 'What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? Come, let's sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; after all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood.' His brothers agreed. So when the Midianite merchants came by, his brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern and sold him for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt. (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading - Romans Chapter 10:5-15

Moses describes in this way the righteousness that is by the law: "The man who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the deep?' " (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. As the Scripture says, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame." For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

(This is the word of the Lord-- Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Matthew 14: 22-33

Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?" And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." (This is the word of the Lord-- Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Special worship sheet)

1. I vow to thee my country
2. O God our help in ages past
3. Through all the changing scenes of life
4. What shall I do my God to love
5. Love divine

Commentary

There are all sorts of names for the different parts of traditional churches. The area where the congregation sits is known as the nave. It is named from the Latin word navis, meaning boat. The nave is the 'barque of Peter' the boat. Which originates from this idea of the disciples, the people of God in the boat together in the storm. This is a very ancient metaphor stretching back to this Gospel story from Matthew today, where Jesus comes to the disciples in the boat in the stormy sea. While Mark 6:45-52 and John 6:16-21 also tell this story, Matthew is the only one to include the story of Peter attempting to walk on the water to meet Jesus. The reasons for this might reasonably be that Matthew was writing at a time when Christians are being persecuted. By this time, Peter has most likely been crucified. The storm stories address issues of danger, fear and faith. In both stories, "the boat seems to represent the church, buffeted by temptations, trials and persecutions. Jesus appears as the church's champion, who is strong to save those who call on him in faith.

So the boat represents safety, the sea represents danger. It was thought the sea was a place where evil monsters lived, it was dangerous. The temptation might be to stay in the boat, but we like Peter have to be prepared to get out of the boat. Jesus encourages Peter out of the boat in the words he uses.

Matthew wants us to know that we too have to get out of the boat and take our faith into the stormy seas of life. Many people say that we Christians should keep our religious stuff contained in the boat, that our religion has no place outside of church. We however are obedient to a different master, our world does not need less reminding of the teachings of Jesus, it needs more.

The problem is that we cannot walk on water, if we get out of the boat we get wet ! Leonardo da Vinci did some drawings of shoes which could be put on to enable a person to walk on water, but no matter how hard we try nobody can ever walk on water. If we go in the water we get wet.

I say this because there is belief that if we get faith, then God suspends reality in miraculous ways. Yet from all of these TV evangelists with their extraordinary claims to be able to cure cancers and change world events, not a single one of them can walk on water. If we are honest miracles are very few and far between. Some commentators have even wondered whether Jesus himself ever walked on water. The famous William Barclay suggested that the text actually means Jesus walked by the water. This is not a sign of lack of faith. Indeed quite the opposite. It takes much more faith to believe that God is with us when we do not cling to vain imaginings.

O that it was not so. It would make my job so much easier if I could conjure up a bit of magic now and then. People want miracles and some people are either so desperate or gullible that they will believe the worst charlatans who proclaim to have magic powers to allow us to stop our loved ones from dying, or enable us to talk with them when they are dead.

So if we cannot walk on water does that mean that we stay in the boat? No! We know that as Christians we are called to go and reach out to a troubled world. In the week following the Commonwealth Games I am reminded of the phrase 'you've got to be in it to win it.' The point is obvious, we will never achieve unless we participate. The flip side is that as well as achievement, we can also fail in our endeavours. Perhaps it is that fear of failure which prevents so many people from making the effort, and trying to make dreams become reality. This is true of so many things, not least our willingness to serve God, to allow our talents to be used in his service. The Apostle Peter is a real example to us all, he made mistakes, he had failure in his life, yet he was prepared to have a go, and because of that Jesus called him 'the rock' the one he chose upon which to build his church. In the passage from Matthew today, Peter jumps out of the boat to meet Jesus. Whilst walking on water for a time he soon loses confidence and starts to sink. However we have to pay tribute to Peter because at least he had a go.

Theodore Roosevelt wrote

'It is not the critic who counts; not the one who points out how the strong stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the one who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly who errs and comes us short again and again; who knows great enthusiasm and great devotion; who spends him/herself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and who, at worst, if he/she fails, at least fails while daring greatly. So that his/her place shall never be with those timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.'

You and I have to be prepared to leave the safety of the boat, knowing that the basic laws of physics will not be suspended. We will be subject to the same turmoil in life as everybody else. There will be no spectacular miracles to make our job easier. The disciples were not doing anything wrong when they got into trouble. They were doing what they were told to do; but that didn't prevent them from getting caught up in a storm. There they were in a storm which made them feel separated from Jesus, as we sometimes do.

"tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against them."

Does that describe situations in which you sometimes find yourself?

There are waves which we all struggle against in our lives, separation from loved ones, death and divorce, loneliness, questions about the meaning of our lives, concerns about family and friends, the church and the world. We are tempted to ask a question faithful people have always faced: Where is God when I am in need? Where is Jesus in the midst of the storm? Matthew tells us he came to his disciples "during the fourth watch of the night." What took him so long? We don't understand the delay, especially considering the intensity of the struggle.

Jesus is not a "Mr. Fix-it." He does not usually take away the storm, but instead enables us, with him, to walk on the stormy seas. He reprimands his disciples for not trusting his presence and strength. That strength will enable us to persevere. The storms we face will be manageable if we turn to Jesus. We are called to leave the safety of the boat and walk through stormy seas as we become involved in complex issues, as well as family and community need. The waters may not be calm, but we are not alone. We keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and one another. In times of need Jesus reaches out to each of us, his hands are present in one another.

Matthew says that Jesus and Peter got into the boat and the storm died down. The disciples worshipped Jesus saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." Jesus is no ghost. He is the living Lord. And he reaches out with his arms to save the last, the lost and the least. Are you in trouble? Call upon his name. He is the alpha and the Omega. He will not allow you to walk on water. But if you put your trust in him you shall be safe, even as you leave the safety of the boat. As Paul reminds us in Romans, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame...everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." Charles Royden

Action for Children September House to House Collection. Action for Children has a 140 year history of working with children, young people and parents living in tough circumstances in Britain today. It is an independent charity working with other groups in partnership including Social Services and the Methodist Church where it has its roots. Our annual house-to-house Collection to support this vital work will take place as usual in September. St. Mark's Church is allocated the Brickhill collecting area and last year we raised £572 (inc. Gift Aid). If you could spare a few hours during September to distribute and collect envelopes in the Brickhill area, perhaps near to where you live, or you would like some more information then please contact me. Mike Elliott (Tel. 342507)

On August 25 there will be a fabulous festival of fun, worship and praise at the College Equestrian Centre in Keysoe, to celebrate 100 years of the St Albans Diocese. We hope that you will all join us for this day from 10am onwards. There will be so much to do and it's all free. Expect to see the best international dog display team, flying birds of prey, a fairground, classic car display and a central outdoor stage with music and a special celebration service. (Plus - Lots More !) One of the things which we are hoping to do is organise a team from each church to take part in 'It's a knockout.' If you would like to take part in a team and you are over 16 then please speak to Ian Farthing at St Mark's or Sam Ware at Putnoe.

Meditation The Great and Holy War

The Great and Holy War: Philip Jenkins

List Price £18.99 Hardback, £9.99 Kindle

Published by Lion, this highly detailed book reflects on how World War 1 had a profound effect on religion in every country which was impacted by the conflict, and particularly the lasting impact it had on Christianity and Christian thought. Philip Jenkins is a historian who shows how the world's Christian nations, who fought in World War 1, presented the conflict as a holy war which frequently called on language and images which spoke of crusade, of apocalypse and of Armageddon and reveals how belief in the supernatural, angels and apparitions were all prevalent and influential at the time. He details how the war shaped all three of the Abrahamic religions; Judaism, Christianity, and Islam and goes on to show how the outcomes of the war, including the moral compromises and the dashed hopes of many, went on to influence the political and social map of Europe to the present day. The book has been described as 'dense', which it is, but it's also readable and insightful and anyone with an interest in how we are as a society, people and church today will find this book fascinating. Sam Cappelman

World War 1 Commemorative Prayers

Eternal God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all, the true love of peace and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth that in tranquillity your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord Jesus, you have taught us that we can only be forgiven as we ourselves learn how to forgive: help us to bear continually in mind our own shortcomings and our many failings. If we remember the injuries we suffer and never deserved, help us to remember the kindnesses we received and never earned, and the punishments we did deserve and never suffered. Help us to be thankful for your unfailing mercies and those of other people; for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

(The Very Reverend Eric Milner-White, CBE, DSO)

Lord God, you hold both heaven and earth in a single peace. Let the design of your great love shine on the waste of our anger and sorrow, and give peace to your Church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts; in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(The Very Reverend Eric Milner-White, CBE, DSO)

Eternal Father, the darkness is no darkness to you, and the night is as clear as the day. Accompany and protect us as we enter the night; give us eyes which watch for the dawn and hearts to learn again the lessons of love, that reconciled to one another and to you we may walk through this world's perils and sorrows as children of light. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office
