Thank You

The flowers at St Mark's this week have been given by Mary & John Stubbs to celebrate their Golden Wedding.

The flowers at Putnoe Heights have been given by Val Peacock in memory of her husband Trevor, and by Eddie & Irene McKenzie, who would like to thank all their friends at Putnoe for their kindness to Eddie after his last illness.

Mrs Sam Ware [telephone 304058] has taken over the distribution of Sunday flowers from Putnoe Heights. If you know of anyone who would appreciate receiving a bunch of flowers, please let Sam know.

Prayer for Sunday

Almighty God, source of every blessing, your generous goodness comes to us anew every day. By the work of your Spirit lead us to acknowledge your goodness, give thanks for your benefits, and serve you in willing obedience. Indeed we pray you to pour out your Holy Spirit upon us - your Spirit of joy and laughter - of comfort and of strength - that we might celebrate with you and you with us, as we offer our worship and ourselves to you this day; through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Opening Verses of Scripture

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!
Philippians Chapter 4

Collect Prayer for the Day

(Before we read we pray)

Grant we beseech you merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ your Son our lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

First Bible Reading - Exodus 32: 1-14

When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him." Aaron answered them, "Take off the gold earrings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me." So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron. He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt." When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD." So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterward they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry. Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt. They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.' "I have seen these people," the LORD said to Moses, "and they are a stiff-necked people. Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation." But Moses sought the favour of the LORD his God. "O LORD," he said, "why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self: 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance forever.' " Then the LORD relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Second Reading- Phil 4 1-9

Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends! I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you, loyal yoke fellow, help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you (Reader: This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Matthew 22: 1-14

Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come. "Then he sent some more servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.' "But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. Go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find.' So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. 'Friend,' he asked, 'how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless. Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' "For many are invited, but few are chosen." (Reader: This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Father of light, in whom is no change or shadow of turning, you give us every good and perfect gift and have brought us to birth by your word of truth: may we be a living sign of that kingdom where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary

In the passage from Matthew this week we read about a very special invitation to a banquet. It is not just an ordinary party to which a man invites guests, it is an invitation from a king. When kings threw banquets and invited you along you went, not because you necessarily wanted to, but because it was expected. It's just like the boss inviting you round for a meal, if you want to get on you go, you don't say you have a better offer or make excuses. So, the best food and drink would have been prepared, servants were sent out to "summon the invited guests to the feast." According to the custom of the time, the guests would already received the invitation and were waiting for when things were prepared and they received the announcement to come to the feast. The guests had already accepted the invitation and been catered for!

But the story takes an unexpected twist. At the last minute and for some unexplained reason the cream of society behaves quite rudely. They claim they have more important things to do, important business to conduct and so, cannot come to the feast. What an insult to the royal house! They are utterly unappreciative of the offer which is made. They are so ungrateful that one not only refuses to go but kills the servant who bring the invitation.

So in the story Jesus is clear, the deviant guests were not outsiders. When people heard Jesus speaking about a king inviting people to a banquet they would know exactly what he was speaking about. The King is God and the people who were invited were the Jews. God was planning the great party for which the Jewish people had waited for so long, but now at the last minute they were refusing. The prophets who had proclaimed the coming kingdom had been ridiculed and killed, the Messiah was present and ready and they all rejected the offer.

The hearers would also come to realise exactly what Jesus meant when he spoke of the King sending his soldiers to destroy the city. After the fall of Jerusalem in AD70 the pieces of the story would all fit neatly into place.

So what about those who came? Since the guests who were invited refused, the invitation went out instead to all and sundry. people who would never have imagined being invited to such an event heard the call, the labourers, the down and outs, the criminals and just ordinary folk. Nobody who came would be able to boast of anything they had done to get there. They could claim no privilege or rank. None of them had a special status. They came because they were hungry, not because they could afford it or were posh. So the parable becomes our story too. We are now the recipients of God's gracious hospitality and generosity. We are Christian people because of God's generosity, not because of any good we may have done. We claim no right and we feel privileged to find ourselves in the banquet hall. We are from the highways and byways no longer. We are honoured guests. Just like the guests invited to the banquet in the story, each one of us is invited as a special guest by God to his celebration. It is a truly remarkable thing that God should bother with us at all and yet he goes so far as to make us honoured guests.

In the midst of a troubled and turbulent world, where the frailty of life is ever before us, the simple message of this parable should come to us as a great reassurance. In spite of the seeming unimportance which attaches to us in the universe, nevertheless our lives are significant. Life might so often seem cheap and unimportant and yet we are individually watched over and cared for by God. The realisation that God is involved with each of us should change the way that we think about things, life is no longer a series of abstract choices, we are not adrift subject the vagaries of life. This message should cause us to have much peace and a sense of purpose for the future which gives real meaning to our lives. Sadly for many people this is simply not the case, offered such a magnificent invitation they choose to ignore the blessings of God and miss out on the generosity of God. The message of the story is clear, if you choose not to go, then somebody else will take your place. For this reason we should not be slow to respond but willingly answer God's call on our lives.

Watch your dress sense. Of course the final part of the passage is a a real challenge in bringing to our minds the clothing of the guests. Clothing is a common New Testament metaphor for spiritual change.

1. Clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature. Rom 13:14
2. Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Colossians 3:12
3. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble." 1 Peter 5:5

When we are invited to a special celebration it is customary to consider the appropriate type of dress, Turning up without doing so is clearly inconsiderate and might be considered insulting to the host. For the Christian, the clothing about which we are concerned is not visible garments but rather character and behaviour. Our lives should not just demonstrate the same old predictable behaviour, rather we should exhibit something of the holiness and goodness of God. We take off those clothes which are unsuitable and change into something appropriate. For those who are called by Christ it is unthinkable that we should not now be spending time getting dressed in the right clothes.

Prayers

Dear Lord in a week of financial turbulence we pray for our endangered economies around the world. We remember those who will be hardest hit by the fall out from the collapse of stock markets. People who are concerned about job security, those who fear the loss of their homes and savings. We pray for those who have no security and depend upon the giving of charities and aid agencies, who will find it increasingly difficult to raise funds for important causes around the world where life is endangered. Forgive us our greed which causes so many of the world's problems. Those who are truly rich are those who have learned to enjoy life with few possessions and be contented with what they have. May we learn to live simply and place value not on material wealth but upon the really important things, such as the love of our friends and family. Give wisdom and integrity to the world leaders as they seek to develop global strategies to deal with the problems which affect the economies of every country.

We pray for all of those this week who are vulnerable and afraid. We are mindful of people living in circumstances of domestic abuse, fearful each day and not knowing to whom they should turn for help. Give them courage to seek refuge and the strength to walk away from situations which have placed them in danger. We pray especially for women and children who are victims of violence and intimidation. Lord God you promise to walk with us when we are in situation of danger. So be with those who are afraid and give to them the knowledge of your loving presence in whatever difficulties they face.

In our bible readings this week we remember the call to meet with Jesus the invitation to enjoy his celebration. So we pray for all of those engaged in the work of mission, seeking to spread the good news of God's love. We pray for all Christian people called to be living examples of God's great love for humankind. May we live attractive lives which draw people to know the goodness of God in a world where so often there is fear and despair. We remember those who witness to their faith in societies where it is dangerous to openly declare the Christian conviction. We are humbled by the sacrifice and commitment of those prepared to die for their faith, as we consider our own weak efforts. So we ask Lord Jesus that the fire of your gospel would so burn in all our hearts that many would hear the story of your wonderful life and death. May you through us draw all people into your kingdom, that every knee would bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

A prayer for those who are in need in body mind or spirit.

Lord Jesus you cared for the sick and the troubled. You gave time to those who others ignored and you reached out those who considered themselves insignificant. You care for the sparrows, yet we fail to trust in our hearts how deeply you care for us.

When we are tempted to think that somehow the things which trouble us are unimportant to you, forgive us

When we dare to imagine that you have any part in the bad things which affect our lives, or that you would use them to punish us, forgive us

When in the times of darkness we forget that you are our closest friend, forgive us

So dear Lord may the knowledge of your compassion bring healing to the broken places in our lives. Trusting in the power of your love may we live each day in your presence to bring wholeness to our souls, even in the presence of our human weakness and suffering.

NCH House to House. A big thank you once again to all who helped with this September's House to House Collection on behalf of NCH - Action for Children. The total raised in our Brickhill areas was a magnificent £997; an increase again on last year's figure. NCH will be able to claim a further £59 from HM Customs and Revenue as a result of those contributors who kindly filled in their Gift-Aid forms. Individual 'thank you' cards with amounts collected are being distributed. Please note that the new name for NCH is now just 'Action for Children'. Mike Elliott.

Christmas Craft Fayre

There are only 7 weeks left to our Annual Christmas Craft Fayre on Saturday 22nd November 2008. We would be grateful for help with the following:-

Raffle – Raffle books are now available as from Sunday 5th October. It would be really appreciated if you could take a few books to sell to family and friends. They will be on the hymn book table after the service.

Tombola – Any NEW unwanted gifts/birthday presents etc. for our Tombola stall. Please bring any items up to the Church Office in the week beginning 17th November 2008.

Cake Stall - Milly is kindly co-ordinating the cake stall again. If you are able to bake a cake for this stall please contact Milly via the Church Office.

If anyone is interested in helping on the day, please speak to Avril Williams or the Church Office. When the Fayre closes around 3.30 we would be grateful for helping in clearing up and getting the Church ready for Sunday Worship. Your support would be very much appreciated.

As this is one of our main fundraising events of the year and we are hoping to make it an even bigger success than last year. Your support in helping us achieve this is very much appreciated.
Thank you - Avril

Vision for Giving evening at St Andrew's Bedford on 16 October, 7.45pm for 8.00pm

Bishop Christopher is hoping for each church to be represented by 4-5 people. Do we have any people who would be willing to go and represent our churches and feedback.

A Hymn for Sunday

The trumpets sound, the angels sing,
the feast is ready to begin;
the gates of heaven are open wide,
and Jesus welcomes you inside.
The trumpets sound, the angels sing,
the feast is ready to begin;
the gates of heaven are open wide,
and Jesus welcomes you inside.

*Sing with thankfulness songs of pure delight,
come and revel in heaven's love and light;
take your place at the table of the King,
the feast is ready to begin,
the feast is ready to begin.*

Tables are laden with good things,
O taste the peace and joy he brings;
he'll fill you up with love divine,
he'll turn your water into wine.
Sing with thankfulness.....

The hungry heart he satisfies,
offers the poor his paradise;
now hear all heaven and earth applaud,
the amazing goodness of the Lord.
Sing with thankfulness.....

Harvest Festival Quiz night

Thank you to Mike Cooper and everybody who helped to make a night of fun and fellowship at the harvest quiz at St Mark's last week. The event raised £284 for the organ fund.

Grateful Thanks

We were delighted this week at St Mark's to be presented with a cheque for £5,000 as a kind gift left in the will of Rex Gaddesden. Rex was a faithful supporter and worshipper at St Mark's over a number of years.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Marshall Godfrey

'May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
