Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Christine and Maurice Halsey in loving memory of their granddaughter, Davine Stuart.

The flowers at St Mark's this week are given to celebrate the marriage of Jonathan Stanwix and Anne Clark.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

A Prayer for Sunday

Rule over me this day, O Lord, and lead me in the way of righteousness. Put your word into my mouth and your truth into my heart. Let me think only what is good and honest and help me to discern your will in what I do. May I be alive at all times to the promptings of your Holy Spirit; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Jacob Boehme, 1575-1624

Ordinary 19

Verse of Scripture John 6:35

"I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Living God, you have placed in the hearts of your children a longing for your word and a hunger for your truth. Grant that, believing in the One whom you have sent, we may know him to be the true bread of heaven, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - 1 Kings 19: 4-8

Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there, while he himself went a day's journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, LORD," he said. "Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep. All at once an angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat." He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, "Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you." So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he travelled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God. There he went into a cave and spent the night.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Ephesians 4: 25 - 5:2

Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbour, for we are all members of one body. "In your anger do not sin": Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold. He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need. Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 6: 35 and 41-51

Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.

At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?" "Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father. I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life. I am the bread of life. Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which a man may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hymns

Commentary

It has been a very depressing week in many ways, with continued war and renewed trouble over possible terrorist attacks. It might be tempting to despair of the human race and our capacity to destroy and hurt each other. However as Christians we have a message of hope and we are called by God to be an eternally optimistic people, not a people who fail to see the reality of the world, but a people who see beyond it - to the God of eternity who holds us all in his hands. The Christian perspective is one which allows us to live through difficult times, and it is a message which our world badly needs.

As we read the Bible passages today we can see each of them as an encouragement to live our Christian lives and to apply the demands of our faith in the contemporary world.

Elijah tried his best to live out faith and follow the commandments of God. He spoke up about what was right and because of this he angered the powerful people around him. He was no pleaser of people and now he is in trouble because the Jezebel wants to kill him. Elijah is tired, the situation has overwhelmed him and he feels as we all do from time to time in the face of the task before him, discouraged. He is so absolutely overwhelmed by everything that he wants to die. He is not unlike many men and women across the world today who work hard to bring about peace and change the balance in favour of those who suffer. Elijah was a worker for justice and peace and inevitably like all who engage in God's work he encountered "failure" and opposition. In the midst of complex social problems that are hard to "fix," we can feel overwhelmed and get discouraged. We may be criticized. In speaking up for what is right, we can encounter opposition, threats and even death. War, poverty, and injustice, seem at times to be so persistent and "unfixable."

In the letter to the Ephesians, we are reminded, "All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice." (As always, we are invited to apply this wisdom not only to our personal life but also to relationships between groups of people and nations.)

Both the first reading and the gospel talk about divine "bread" and nourishment for the journey. Elijah receives a hearth cake and a jug of water and is able to complete the journey to the mountain of God. In the New Testament, Jesus promises to be the "living bread" which is "for the life of the world." God wants to strengthen us for the journey.

In order to be faithful and to put our faith into practice, we need to be supported by our God. We need the support and challenge of a community of believers. In the Christian tradition this is made real in the celebration of the Eucharist - where we receive the "bread of life." When the church is at her best, her social ministry flows out from the Eucharist, for as Jesus says, ". . . the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." We are not alone as we strive to put our faith into action in the pursuit of justice.

Meditation

It sounds so easy, loving God, to follow your commandments, to live as you would have me live. I know that when I do follow your way, life is so much better. I know that your way transforms me, transforms my relationships, transforms the lives of people around me.

So why do I find it so hard, Lord?

Why do I keep on failing, keep on repeating the same old faults?

Why can I still not resist temptation, even when I see it coming?

Lord, I need your forgiveness.

I need your strength.

I need your assurance that you love me no matter what I have done.

And I need you to show me the sins that I keep hidden, even from myself.

Thank you, Lord, that you keep on welcoming me back.

Help me to commit myself anew to your ways; to focus on Jesus, my example and my guide; to allow your Holy Spirit to work in me and through me. Then you will transform me into the person you want me to be, to live for your praise and glory. Mrs Liz Little

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

God of the way, you are the road we travel, and the sign we follow; you are bread for the journey, and the wine of arrival. Guide us as we follow in your way, holding on to each other, reaching out to your beloved world. And when we stray, seek us out and find us, set our feet on the path again, and lead us safely home. In the name of Jesus, our Lord we pray. Amen.

Dear Lord, we thank you for your love, for how you provide all things that we need. We thank you and we ask you, O God, to continue to feed us, to work on us - and to move us to feed others. Father, just as you graciously provide for our spiritual nourishment through the Word revealed to us by your Son, Jesus Christ, so we bring our physical needs and the needs of others before you, in the faith and confidence that you are willing to hear our prayers. We pray, O God, for the needs of our brothers and sisters throughout the world, those who are united with us at the one table of the Lord, and also for the people of his Church, that they may continue to illuminate the Word by their words and example.

Creator God, Give us a heart for simple things: love and laughter, bread and wine, tales and dreams. Fill our lives with green and growing hope; make us a people of justice whose song is Alleluia and whose name breathes love.

Hymns for Sunday

Mission Praise 613

Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me;
break me, melt me, mould me, fill me.
Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me;

Mission Praise 389

Jesus, You are changing me,
by Your Spirit You're making me like You;
Jesus, You're transforming me,
that Your loveliness may be seen in all I do.
You are the potter and I am the clay;
help me to be willing to let You have Your way;
Jesus, You are changing me
as I let You reign supreme within my heart.

NCH House to House collection. NCH, the children's charity, works with disadvantaged and disabled children, and their families through its family centres located throughout the country. It is an independent charity working with other groups in partnership including the Methodist Church. The annual house to house collection to support the vital work of the NCH will take place as usual in the first 3 weeks in September. St Mark's Church has the responsibility for covering most of Brickhill and last year we raised over £800. If you could spare a few hours during early September to put out and collect envelopes in the Brickhill area, perhaps near to where you live, or you would like some more information then please contact me. ## The Barford Bypass

Bypass Challenge. A sponsored fun run on the new Great Barford Bypass will be held on Sunday 20 August 2006. Funds to be shared between St. John's Hospice and registered charities of participants' choice. There will be prizes for the best fancy dress and the biggest fundraiser. For further details www.barfordbypasschallenge.org or phone 01767 641044. The Peck family are taking part in the Barford by pass walk on Sunday 20 August. We are raising money for St Johns hospice and the National Childrens Home. Please let one of us know if you would like to sponsor us for this event. Tel. 267567 or 266408. Sue Allen and friends have enrolled for the Barford Bypass Challenge on Sunday 20 August (only the easy 6km walk option) in aid of St. John's Moggerhanger and would welcome others to join their team and help choose a team name. Entries by 14 August, so don't delay, via the event website www.barfordbypasschallenge.org . Cost of entry £10.00 per person. Contact Sue for further details.

Vision for Action

Our churches are currently taking many initiatives to enable us all to share in realising the full potential of our churches for the future.

The St Albans Diocesan Vision for Action has five overall aims to:

1. Work together in love and commitment to

2. proclaim the Kingdom of God.
2. Encourage, support and develop the ministry of each person.
3. Encourage each parish to develop the use of church buildings as places of worship and mission.
4. Strengthen the commitment to stewardship amongst clergy and laity in order to further the mission of the church.
5. Encourage and develop the necessary skills within parishes and deaneries to bring the Gospel to children and young people through worship, schools and other contexts.

Please pray about how we may all share in God's way for our churches

Vision for Action Prayer

Almighty God and heavenly Father, open our eyes
to see you at work in our world:
grant us wisdom in using our gifts,
grace to enliven our churches,
and courage to transform our communities.
By your Holy Spirit,
equip us for the challenge ahead,
excite us to follow your vision
and empower us in witness and service.
To you be the glory
through Jesus our Saviour
and mighty Redeemer.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Barbara Hunt

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.
