Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Megan Wiles in memory of her sister Valorie.

The flowers at St Mark's Church have been given by Valerie Edwards in memory of her mother, who would have had her 100th Birthday this week.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

Prayer for Sunday

Yesterday I was crucified with Christ;
today I am glorified with him.
Yesterday I was dead with Christ;
today I am sharing in his resurrection.
Yesterday I was buried with him;
today I am waking with him
from the sleep of death.
Gregory of Nazianzus (398)

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Verse of Scripture 1 John 4:7

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Risen Christ, your wounds declare your love for the world and the wonders of your risen life: give us compassion and courage to risk ourselves for those we serve.

Common Worship Shorter Collect

First Reading - Acts 8: 26-40

Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship, and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the prophet. The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it." Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked. "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. The eunuch was reading this passage of Scripture: "He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before the shearer is silent, so he did not open his mouth. In his humiliation he was deprived of justice. Who can speak of his descendants? For his life was taken from the earth." The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?" Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus. As they travelled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. Why shouldn't I be baptized?" And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and travelled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 John 4: 7-21

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. 9This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. We know that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world. If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and he in God. And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him. In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 15: 1-8

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life: grant us to walk in his way, to rejoice in his truth, and to share his risen life; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Commentary 'Live obediently and live in prayer'

How do we remain close to Christ as he calls us to do in the reading today? How do we remain or stay in union with Him? This is a question which many people often ask? We are told that it is love which unites the believer to Christ, as a branch is grafted to the vine. Often when people speak about their faith they complain they feel far from the love of God. If by love we mean the emotion which is often spoken of as 'being in love' then this is perhaps not surprising. However what John means by abiding in the love of Jesus is shown in verse 10

"If you obey my commands you will remain in my love"

It might seem disappointing to be told that the love of Christ is about obedience, but the two go very closely together. The effect of Christ's love is obedience from the believer. The example of this is found in verse 10 in the relationship which Jesus had with God the Father, "even as I have kept my Father's commandments" Jesus remained in God's love by keeping the commandments and if this is how Jesus remained close to God - then this is how we must also seek to draw close to God.

This may all seem very mundane, but it is also reassuring. The love of God is continuous even when we feel that we are far from God. If we remain obedient then we will enjoy God's love, it is not subject to the vagaries of life. So it was that Paul would have known the love of God when he was shipwrecked, Peter when he was imprisoned, Stephen when he was stoned to death. They all had something which was capable of carrying them through the emotional up's and downs of life, so that their faith was not tossed to and fro like a leaf on a pond. They had a faith which was built upon the rock of their obedience to God. Likewise, the difference between the wise man who built his house upon the rock and the foolish man who built his house upon the sand was obedience. Both men heard the word. This is not a parable about the believer and the unbeliever- both build houses. The difference is obedience. The wise man is obedient and so his faith works. The fool is not obedient. Our love is synonymous with obedience and if we are obedient, then we will begin to know the presence of God ever more deeply in our lives.

Surely is this not true of any human relationship? Is our love not shown in commitment irrespective of all else? Even when we think we feel more strongly for another we know that love does not follow such feelings. Instead we are obedient to the promise we have made and the commitment which has been promised.

Prayer is also important in this. Jesus says

'If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you.'

Jesus is saying that prayer is not asking God for things for ourselves. It is about being in fellowship with Christ and able to discern His will so that our will becomes one with the will of God. Charles Royden

Meditation

Christian Aid Week is seven amazing days of fundraising, prayer and action against global poverty. Add your time, money and voice to Christian Aid Week, and see them multiplied to make an impact around the world through Christian Aid. You add. We multiply.

Thirsting for justice

In the month in which Christian Aid Week challenges us to renew our commitment to the poor, let us remind ourselves why we believe in life before death. Life in all its fullness means freedom to be and to grow, to make mistakes and to start again, which for Christians is symbolised by the baptismal gift of water 'to cleanse and revive' us. And yet millions of people in the developing world are denied this potential precisely because they die for lack of water. The knife-edge between life and death, which is the lot of so many people, is a recurring theme in the Old Testament, with its references to drought and famine, pestilence and disease. And it is a knife-edge that Jesus confronted. Aware of the fragility of life, after his baptism he heads straight to the desert to face death and to struggle with what it means to live. Here, in the dry heat and the parched lands, his journey of solidarity with the poor takes shape. And it reaches its climax in those stark words from the cross, 'I thirst!' Here he identifies with all those who long for life, who cry out for justice and beg for mercy. Their struggle is his. Their parched land is his. Their cracked earth is his. Their dry mouth is his.

But it is ours also. For in the waters of baptism we become one with Christ. When we respond to those who cry out in hunger and thirst, we respond to Christ into whose body we are baptised. When we plead the cause of the poor and needy, we acknowledge our oneness with those who suffer. When we rejoice with those who defy death, we proclaim our oneness in resurrection. Christian Aid Week gives us a chance to renew our commitment to the poor, and also to reflect on our baptism as we journey in solidarity with them. Annabel Shilson-Thomas

Prayer Christ, whom we meet in bread and wine, in body broken and love outpoured, fill us with your compassion that we may hear the cries of the poor and challenge the satisfaction of the rich. Engender in us a thirst for justice that our longings may turn to action and our actions lead to transformation. And nourish us with a vision of a world made whole that we may reach out to friend and stranger and work together to make all things new. Amen. Annabel Shilson-Thomas

Collect

God of every people and nation, who sent your only Son into the world so we might live through him; grant that we, abiding in the love of Jesus, may so love our brothers and sisters throughout the world that poverty may end, prejudice be overcome, and fear be cast out, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Lord Jesus, it is better to light one candle than to give up hope and curse the darkness. It is better to save one stranger from deportation and reunite one separated family, than it is to say it is not our problem and we can't do much to help. It is better to join hands in one work of love than to sit on our hands and feel powerless. Lord, help us to love you in the stranger and the refugee. Help us to love ourselves enough to believe that we can change things for the better. Help us to love as you have loved us. Amen. Christian Aid

I saw a child today, Lord, who will not die tonight, hurried into hunger's grave. He was bright and full of life because his father has a job and he has food and water, but somewhere, everywhere, ten thousand life-lamps will go out and not be lit again tomorrow. Lord, teach me my sin. Amen.

An African Christian prayer Christian Aid Prayers for the drought in east Africa /05.06

We come before you Lord needing the love you alone can provide, and knowing that within you and by you and through you all that we need can be found. Pour out upon us today your grace and mercy - make your Spirit move strongly within us - that in our hearts there may be an abundance of your holy love and in our minds the fullness of your sacred word. Abide in us and with us and help us to abide in you as we proclaim your glory and seek your strength - both now, and indeed forevermore. Amen.

James & Sophie Beswick competed in the first Bedford Junior Aquathlon last Sunday. They raised a magnificent £263 to be split equally between Putnoe Heights Church and St John's Hospice Moggerhanger. Thank you so much to you all for supporting them so generously and for the anonymous donation of £20 delivered to Gwen & Peter's house. Martin & Rebecca Beswick.

The Garden of Remembrance is going to be "open" on the 4 June, 2.30 - 4.30pm in aid of the Retirement Education Centre. If you could help in any way such as serving teas, showing people round or baking tray bakes beforehand, please contact Marion Prior 303254 a.s.a.p.

There will be an evening working party on 1st June 6pm till dark, to do any last minute tidying, deadheading etc. Please bring own equipment as church tools and kneelers are limited!

Thanks to everybody who helped make the Swedish evening such a fantastic success. The next great themed evening will be on September when we have a Mediterranean evening with the magnificent Vittorio!

After service meetings this morning

Please can the Putnoe Leadership Team meet this morning after the service to discuss property issues. Please can St Mark's Church Council meet after the service to authorize a tender for work to proceed on the new building.

St Mark's are selling their Portakabin to make way for a new two storey extension. The Portakabin is ten years old and in excellent condition. The highest offer so far is £1600, it is on Ebay with a reserve of £2,000. It would cost about £1,000 to move to a nearby location. We hope to have the Portakabin moved before the end of the month - offers to St Mark's office please.

New Community Extension for St Mark's

St Mark's were delighted this week to officially receive 125,000 from WREN. At the presentation at the House of Commons Gwynneth Dunwoody MP said that the award came with a recommendation to apply for a further grant of 50,000 to enable a substantial part of the building to be completed.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Doreen Woods

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
