Prayer for Sunday

Give us grace, O Lord,
to be not only hearers of the word,
but doers also;
to be not only lovers of your gospel,
but those whose lives are transformed by it;
to be not only those who profess our faith,
but also those whose lives proclaim it,
day by day;
through Christ our Lord. Amen

Bible Notes

Ordinary 29 Year A Trinity 20 (Green)

Verse of Scripture

Sing to the Lord, a new song. Sing to the Lord, all the earth

Sing to the Lord and bless his name. Psalm 98:1-3

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen

First Reading – Exodus 33: 12-23

Moses said to the LORD, "You have been telling me, 'Lead these people,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, 'I know you by name and you have found favour with me.' If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favour with you. Remember that this nation is your people." The LORD replied, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." Then Moses said to him, "If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here. ¹⁶ How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?" And the LORD said to Moses, "I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name." Then Moses said, "Now show me your glory." And the LORD said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live." Then the LORD said, "There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen." (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 1: 1-10

Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you. We always thank God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers. We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labour prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers loved by God, that he has chosen you, because our gospel came to you not simply with words, but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake. You became imitators of us and of the Lord; in spite of severe suffering, you welcomed the message with the joy given by the Holy Spirit. And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. The Lord's message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath. (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Mathew 22: 15-22

(When the reading announced All: Glory to Christ Our Saviour)

Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren't swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are. Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? Show me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought him a denarius, and he asked them, "Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?" "Caesar's," they replied. Then he said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away. (This is the Gospel of Christ -Praise to Christ our Lord)

Commentary

The Romans were an occupying force, they had marched their army into Israel and they had taken over. Then they demanded money to sustain their occupation. If you and I were living there at that time, the chances are that we would have greatly resented the Romans and their tax. The tax was not an option. It was mandatory, if you did not pay taxes to Rome then you could be killed.

Moreover whilst Jews did not place images of people on their coins, Caesar had placed his image on the coins. Around the picture of the emperor's head were inscribed the words 'Tiberius Caesar, son of the divine Augustus, and on the other side 'pontifex maximus' which would be understood as 'High Priest.' Paying the tax was a very tangible acknowledgement of submission to Rome, it was also a religious insult, because the coin was blasphemous.

Jesus is approached by two groups who have made a pact to try and trap him. They ask him whether it is right to pay taxes to Caesar. One group was the Herodians, who supported the family of Herod and who had a vested interest in maintaining the status quo and peace. They were what we would think of as collaborators. The other group were disciples of the Pharisees, they were nationalistic Jews. They had not got a great in common but Jesus was the enemy of both and a common enemy makes strange bedfellows. and so they make a pact to trap Jesus. Jesus was in a pickle, if he suggested paying the tax, he would have alienated the devout religious Jew. If, on the other hand, he advocated that they not pay the tax, the Romans would have sprung on him for treason and for stirring up insurrection.

Jesus responds by asking, "Whose head (Greek: eikon -- icon -- image) is this, and whose title?"

The coin, of course, bears Caesar's eikon and belongs to Caesar. The Pharisees' disciples answer, "Caesar's." Their reply half answers their question: they possess in this coin the possession of another. Is it wrong to return property to its owner?"

The coin is an instrument of Caesar's government -- under Caesar's control -- its value established by Caesar. It is available for their use only because Caesar has ordered the mint to strike it and the treasury to disburse it. It is an integral part of Caesar's realm.

So Jesus says, 'Give back therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's.'

But there is a sting in the tail, '...and give back to God the things that are God's'

We are all made in the image of God -- we bear God's image -- and so it is appropriate to give ourselves back to God -- all that we have and all that we are -- because we were created by the Word of God and are an integral part of God's realm.

Jesus acknowledges our obligation as citizens to the state, but affirms our larger obligation as human beings to God. Coins bearing Caesar's image may belong to Caesar, but all things (coins, Caesar, Rome, the planet earth, the universe) come from God and are under God's dominion.

Caesar's realm is but a speck within God's realm. The days of Caesar's realm are numbered, but God's realm is eternal. Charles Royden

Post Communion Prayer.

Father of light, in whom is no change or shadow of turning, you give us every good and perfect gift and have brought us to birth by your word of truth: may we be a living sign of that kingdom where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Communion Booklet, Hymns and Psalms)

1. Morning has broken 635 2. All I once held dear (On partnership News) 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say 136 4. O God beyond all praising, Tune Thaxted

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters, we do also for you. Give us the will to be servants of others as you were the servant of all; for you gave up your life and died for us, but live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

O Lord, you are the beginning of all my good, the wellspring of all my love and the source of all my freedom. Let your grace work on in me, that your will may be done through me, and that I may always rejoice in your presence; now and for ever. Amen Mary Ward, 1585-1645

Hymns for Sunday

1 O God beyond all praising, Tune Thaxted
we worship you today
and sing the love amazing
that songs cannot repay;
for we can only wonder
at every gift you send,
at blessings without number
and mercies without end:
we lift our hearts before you
and wait upon your word,
we honour and adore you,
our great and mighty Lord.

2 Then hear, O gracious Saviour, accept the love we bring,
that we who know your favour
may serve you as our king;
and whether our tomorrows
be filled with good or ill,
we'll triumph through our sorrows
and rise to bless you still:
to marvel at your beauty
and glory in your ways,
and make a joyful duty
our sacrifice of praise.

1 All I once held dear,
Built my life upon,
All this world reveres,
And wars to own,
All I once thought gain
I have counted loss;
Spent and worthless now,
Compared to this.
*Knowing You, Jesus,
knowing You,
there is no greater thing.
You're my all, You're the best,
You're my joy, my righteousness,
and I love You, Lord.*

2 Now my heart's desire
Is to know You more,
To be found in You
And known as Yours.
To possess by faith
What I could not earn,
All-surpassing gift
Of righteousness.

3 Oh, to know the power
Of Your risen life,
And to know You in
Your sufferings.
To become like You
In Your death, my Lord,
So with You to live
And never die.

Sacred Spaces. A book written by The Reverend Dr Joan Crossley was launched this week at a ceremony in the chapel of Great Ormond Street Hospital. Bishop Christopher spoke of the importance of the work which Joan had undertaken in writing about the hospital chapel of London and predicted that the book would be a great success. The book is priced at £10 and can be obtained from the office at St Mark's. Joan is delighted to inscribe books personally which would make ideal Christmas gifts. The Crossley family at the Chapel of Great Ormond Street Hospital.

Brickhill Parish Council forms partnership with St Mark's Church. The Brickhill Policing Partnership

Brickhill Parish Council supports St Mark's Church Community Centre in seeking to establish a police base for Bedfordshire Police at St Mark's Church Community Centre. In recognition of the costs incurred the Parish Council seeks to enter into a Partnership with St Mark's Church Community Centre. Under the terms of the Partnership, St Mark's will provide facilities at the Centre to facilitate Bedfordshire Police in their enhanced community role. As part of its contribution Brickhill Parish Council will contribute £200 per month towards loss of income by St Mark's Church Community Centre. The agreement with St Mark's Church Community Centre will operate in accordance with the initial 18 month contract issued by St Mark's Church Community Centre in April 2005 which is due for re-consideration in September 2006.

Plans for Youth Group at St Mark's Church. Working with the Parish Council and Bedfordshire Police we are hoping to soon start a youth group at St Mark's. The group will operate on Friday evenings and be open to all young people.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Church Council decides—St Mark's Church Pre-school To provide all day care from January 2006

St Mark's Church Council decided this week that St Mark's Church Pre-school will provide all day care for children starting in January 2006 and this will be running all year round. St Mark's has taken this major step forward in response to requests from parents who value the extra care facilities to enable them to manage work and other family commitments. Parents want funded pre-school sessions in addition to extra sessions to help them with busy lives and this is where St Mark's will help. In addition to the usual pre-school, children will be able to stay all day from 8.00am until 6.00pm in the fantastic facilities provided at St Mark's. Parents need these facilities throughout the year and so St Mark's will no longer close during school holidays. This is a fantastic opportunity for families with busy lives, so make sure that you get your name down fast.
