Prayer for Sunday

All-powerful God,
increase our strength of will for doing good,
that Christ may find an eager welcome
at his coming and call us to his side
in the kingdom of heaven,
where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Third Sunday in Advent

Verse of Scripture - Malachi 3:1

“See I will send my messenger who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord who you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come.” Says the Lord Almighty

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray
Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Common Worship & Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Zephaniah Chapter 3:14-20

Sing, O Daughter of Zion; shout aloud, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O Daughter of Jerusalem! The LORD has taken away your punishment, he has turned back your enemy. The LORD, the King of Israel, is with you; never again will you fear any harm. On that day they will say to Jerusalem, "Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands hang limp. The LORD your God is with you, he is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, he will quiet you with his love, he will rejoice over you with singing." "The sorrows for the appointed feasts I will remove from you; they are a burden and a reproach to you. At that time I will deal with all who oppressed you; I will rescue the lame and gather those who have been scattered. I will give them praise and honour in every land where they were put to shame. At that time I will gather you; at that time I will bring you home. I will give you honour and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your very eyes," says the LORD.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Philippians Chapter 4:4-7

Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends! I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you, loyal yokefellow, help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable--if anything is excellent or praiseworthy--think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me--put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

(This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Luke Chapter 3:7-18 (Please stand for the Gospel reading.)

When the Gospel is announced. All: Glory to Christ our Saviour.

John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." "What should we do then?" the crowd asked. John answered, "The man with two tunics should share with him who has none, and the one who has food should do the same." Tax collectors also came to be baptized. "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?" "Don't collect any more than you are required to," he told them. Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?" He replied, "Don't extort money and don't accuse people falsely--be content with your pay." The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Christ. John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." And with many other words John exhorted the people and preached the good news to them.

Reader : (This is the Gospel of Christ. All: Praise to Christ our Lord.)

Post Communion Prayer

We give you thanks, O Lord, for these heavenly gifts; kindle in us the fire of your Spirit that when your Christ comes again we may shine as lights before his face; who is alive and reigns now and for ever.

Hymns (Please distribute Holy Communion and Hymns and Psalms)

1. Long ago prophets knew. 83
2. On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry. 84
3. Be known to us in breaking bread. 597
4. Thy kingdom come, O God. 783

Commentary

Biblical timescale, or put another way, God's calendar is not like ours. The early church lived in the expectation of Jesus' imminent return, which we know now was not to be the case. And the prophets had promised the Messiah and people were awaiting his coming, for God had made known his way through the prophets. But prophecy had been silent for four centuries. The coming of John the Baptist, appearing dramatically in the Judean wilderness was like the proverbial bolt from the blue. This was the prophet who was to prepare the way for God's decisive action, the signal of the coming of the New Age, the coming of the End Time. St. Luke underlines this fact by describing John's call in the same words as the calls of the earlier prophets as well as by setting John's coming in its historical framework.

John came to a people who were convinced of their status. Judgement would fall on the Gentiles, when the kingdom came, but the Sons of Abraham would escape by virtue of their birthright. But John demanded that everyone repent, effectively excommunicating the whole nation. Furthermore his message was emphasised by virtue of the fact that he did not preach in Jerusalem but out in the desert. It was a clear break with current Judaism.

The sign of being a child of Abraham was circumcision. The sign of membership of the new order was repentance and baptism, and that baptism was expected to show a deep inner change of heart.

The call to repentance was not in one sense revolutionary. People were encouraged to think about their lives and to begin to live them with honesty and integrity, not abusing their positions or exploiting their neighbours. It was a call which echoed the prophets who over the years had in God's name demanded justice and a care for the poor, the widows and the fatherless. And by coming to baptism in Jordan Jesus had endorsed that call, as he continued to do throughout his ministry. John's challenge to lifestyle is still relevant today for us, and the true enjoyment and rejoicing at Christmas should perhaps be grounded in a fresh re-ordering of our priorities and actions in our daily lives. The good news John preached to the people comes out of such re-ordering. John Stubbs

Meditation

Wilderness is the place of Moses,

a place of no longer captive and not yet free, of letting go and learning new living.

Wilderness is the place of Elijah,

a place of silence and loneliness, of awaiting the voice of God and finding clarity

Wilderness is the place of John,

a place of repenting, of taking first steps on the path of peace.

Wilderness is the place of Jesus,

a place of preparation of getting ready for the reckless life of faith.

We thank you, God, for the wilderness. Wilderness is our place. As we wait for the land of promise, teach us new ways of living, lead us to where we hear your word most clearly, renew us and clear out the wastelands of our lives, prepare us for life in the awareness of Christ's coming when the desert will sing and the wilderness blossom as the rose.

Francis Brien

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Almighty God who in many and various ways didst speak to thy chosen people by the prophets, and has given us, in thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, the fulfilment of the hope of Israel: hasten we beseech thee, the coming of the day when all things shall be subject to him, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Third Candle - Jesus the Lamb of God

Leader Light and peace, in Jesus Christ our Lord

All Thanks be to God

Leader Today is the Third Sunday of Advent and we will light a candle to remember Jesus the Lamb of God. Last Sunday we lit two candles to remind us of Jesus the Son of David, and Jesus the Prince of Peace. (A person now lights the two candles)

Today as we light the third candle, we remember Jesus who John the Baptist called 'The Lamb of God.'

Scripture John Chapter 1:29

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is the one I meant when I said, 'A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was that he might be revealed to Israel."

Commentary

In their old age God gave to Zechariah and Elizabeth a son called John. When John called Jesus 'The Lamb of God,' he brought to mind the greatest act of salvation in the history of the Jewish people, the release of the people from captivity in Egypt. This was celebrated every year in Passover. Jesus was led like a lamb to the slaughter, he is our Passover lamb, sacrificed for us, once for all. We have been redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus. When John called Jesus the Lamb of God, he saw him as a Saviour who would take away the sin of the world. As we light this candle we remind ourselves that Jesus is God's final sacrifice for the sins of the world.

(A person now lights the third candle for Jesus the Lamb of God.)

Leader Jesus is the Lamb of God

All Jesus the name high over all

Leader Let us pray, using the words of the Agnus Dei

All Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us peace. Amen.

The Methodist Church has launched an innovative booklet in health clubs, play centres and bars. Peace in Your Pocket is a thought provoking 16-page booklet the size of a postcard, and 75,000 copies are available in hundreds of venues nationwide until early January. The booklet contains poems, pictures and thought-provoking points as it explores the issue of peace, and what it means today. It contains brief meditations for busy people, as well as pointers for those who wish to look further into the topic. This booklet is for anyone who is asking questions, particularly people who would not normally go to church but who feel the need to think reflectively about peace." The booklet contains quotations from Desmond Tutu, Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Satish Kumar, amongst others. It aims to provide readers with a few moments of calm, as well as challenging them to take further action to promote peace. The booklet has an accompanying website, www.peaceinyourpocket.org.uk.

Woodland Burial. Progress is being made on establishing the woodland burial site at Keysoe. A booklet is now available which can be downloaded from the church website, www.thischurch.com/woodland. Kisiizi Mission Project - An Outstanding Response

Thank you to all who have given so generously to this year's Kisiizi Mission Appeal. When we add the totals from events such as coffee mornings, Putnoe Provender, Christmas voices, Smartie Tubes and other fundraising efforts together with the significant amount of direct giving and the gift aid we are able to reclaim, across the Partnership we have raised an amazing total of £6250, far above the target of £3600 we set for ourselves at the end of October. This is the biggest response we have ever had to a mission project and the money we have raised will make a huge difference in the care that can be offered through the mission hospital in Kisiizi, providing support for doctors, nurses and drugs for months ahead. Advent and Christmas are times of reflection and hope and through your generosity you have provided immense hope for all those involved with the work of Kisiizi. Thank you for what is truly an outstanding and deeply moving response to our mission project. Sam Cappleman

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
