Epiphany 2

Opening Verse -Matthew 25: 36 & 40

For I was sick and looked after me. I was in prison and you came to visit me... I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it for me.

Collect Prayer -Before we read we pray

Almighty God, in Christ you make all things new: transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

First Bible Reading – 1 Samuel 3: 1-10

The boy Samuel ministered before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions. One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place. The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am." And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me."

But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down. Again the LORD called, "Samuel!" And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." "My son," Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD : The word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy. So Eli told Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. The LORD came and stood there, calling as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Second Reading - Revelation 5: 1-10

Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" But no-one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. I wept and wept because no-one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals." Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the centre of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne. And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song: "You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth"

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 1: 43 –51 Please Stand. All: Glory to Christ our Saviour

The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, "Follow me." Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida. Philip found Nathanael and told him,

"We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." "Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?" Nathanael asked. "Come and see," said Philip. When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, "Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is nothing false." "How do you know me?" Nathanael asked. Jesus answered, "I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you." Then Nathanael declared, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel."

Jesus said, "You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You shall see greater things than that." He then added, "I tell you the truth, you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Commentary

Jesus was born in Bethlehem, but he grew up in Nazareth. Some years later Christians were dismissed as the 'Nazarene sect' Acts 24:5. Nazareth was not a place which was highly thought of and it was probably held in even less esteem by people from Cana a neighbouring village. In the Gospel reading today we read about Philip who was one of the Apostles. He believes that Jesus is the one whom all the scriptures point to. He brings a man named Nathanael, who came from Cana, to meet with Jesus. At first Nathanael rejects the idea that the messiah could come from Nazareth. However after meeting Jesus and hearing what he has to say Nathanael responds with a confession of faith. We are not sure what the substance of the conversation was but we can see that Jesus is able to tell Nathanael things about himself in such a way that Nathanael is convinced that Jesus is the Messiah.

Jesus tells Nathanael that what he has seen of Jesus so far is only the beginning and Jesus uses the imagery of Genesis 28:12, the vision of Jacob's ladder. It is important to remember the story of Jacob and what happened in order to appreciate why Jesus refers to this incident, otherwise it just doesn't make sense. Jacob was the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham and he was very important. So important that his name was later changed to Israel. His children were the ancestors of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. You will remember Jacob as the younger twin of Esau. He tricked Esau out of his birthright and the blessing from his father which he should have received as the firstborn. It is appropriate that later in his life Jacob himself is tricked by his own sons who are jealous of their favoured brother Joseph. We all know from whom they inherited that kind of deceit! Jacob had to flee from his brother, the hunter Esau, when his twin tried to kill him (Genesis 25-28). Destitute he goes to his uncle Laban, but on the way he has a dream at Bethel. He saw a ladder or staircase which stretched up to the sky, with angels going up and down on it. In the dream he receives a blessing from God and a promise that he will return to the land and God would be with him. Of course all of this eventually took place. After working for his Uncle Laban, he married his daughters Leah and Rachel and after swindling him out large flocks and herds he returned home and was reunited with his brother Esau.

It is important to remember this story because Jesus clearly knew all about it and it's importance. When he tells Nathanael that he will see 'heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.' Jesus is placing himself in the same position as Jacob. Every Jew knew that Jacob was the father of the Twelve Tribes of Israel, now Jesus is assuming such importance onto himself. Jesus is the new Israel! God will no longer reveal himself at Bethel, God is present in the person of Jesus and it is Jesus who will link heaven and earth, not Jacob's ladder. This is all a part of the process by which Jesus takes the message of the Jewish scriptures, applies them himself and brings about such a change in Judaism that it must become like a new religion. The old covenant has in Jesus been brought to an end and a new covenant has been offered to all people, not just the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. With the birth of Jesus, the children of God will no longer be descendants of Abraham, they will be from all nations. So the witness of Philip must be one which we share in making Jesus known to others. Charles Royden

Meditation The language of Christ

I have discovered Art! With a capital A. Having reached my late 50's, I have at last got to the point in my life where I enjoy rummaging through the second-hand bookshops, in the Art sections, and have found some beautifully illustrated books, often for around £5, with good explanations and close-up details of famous artists' works. And the genre I am appreciating more than any other is that of religious scenes: artists' interpretations of bible stories. They are usually so full of intense feeling and personal, individual understanding that you have to stop and think about what the artist is seeing in their mind's eye. These are not pictures of landscapes you can go and see for yourself or life portraits of well known people. These are artists' impressions of people we know very little about, some of whom are probably mythical, or based loosely on reality but exalted out of recognition down the ages.

The passage designated for our lectionary reading from Revelations is full of imagery and allusion. Here Jesus is depicted both as a Lamb and a Lion, symbolising both his submission to God's will and his authority and power. One of the elders calls John to look at the Lion but when John looks, he sees a Lamb. Christ the Lion led the battle which defeated Satan, Christ the Lamb defeated all the forces of evil by dying on the cross. Many of us have a 'Lion' and a 'Lamb' within us, two different personalities and ways of looking at things. Sometimes we need the Lion approach and sometimes the Lamb. There are so many symbolic references in this Revelations passage. The horns on the lamb represent strength and power, the eyes are equated with the seven lamps and the one Spirit, and the seven eyes of the Lord mentioned in Zechariah, Ch 4.

If you can imagine all this vision as a picture, a work of art, you can realise the enormity of the revelation as it would have appeared to John. But still one of the most significant parts of this story are the words in the last verse..."with your blood you purchased men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation." People from every nation can receive God's message of salvation. We must not allow prejudice or bias to stop us sharing Christ with others. Christ welcomes all people into his kingdom and the message of God, like the message in a painting, is appreciated much more if someone explains it to us. A conductor at an orchestral concert I once attended, turned to the audience at one point and tried to say a few words, very hesitantly as he did not speak much English. He finished by saying that one of the great things about Music is that it transcends all languages. So does Art. And Christianity. Is Christianity your first language? And who have you spoken it to today? Sue Plant

God, of your goodness give me yourself, for you are sufficient for me. To be worthy of you I cannot ask for anything less. If I were to ask for less I should always be in want, for in you alone do I have all.
Amen Julian of Norwich 1342-1413

Grant, O God, that as we rejoice in the hope of the coming of our Saviour, we too may seek to prepare the way of His coming by demonstrating His love as we care for others. Amen

O God, you have called men and women of every land to be a holy nation, a royal priesthood, the church of your Son: unite us in mutual love across barriers of race, culture and background, and strengthen us in our common task of being Christ and showing Christ to the world He came to save. Amen

Our Father, whose Son came to bring wholeness to the lives of all people, we thank you for the wealth of knowledge brought to us through medical research, and for the healing ministry of doctors, nurses and all those involved in the ministry of healing. We pray that all those who work in different ways for the healing and wholeness of their fellow men and women that they may be inspired for their task and calling by the spirit of Him who is wholeness indeed. Amen

Lord God, whose Word and will are made known in Jesus Christ, inspire in us faith in that Word and obedience to that will, for our salvation and for your glory. Amen

Putnoe Heights Preschool Can you spare an hour or two to help? Margaret Watkins, one of our church members has written the following: Initially I wondered how I, as a new helper of pensionable age would fit into a toddler environment. After a year of helping on a Monday morning, I think that I have been useful to the staff and I am seen as something of a friendly granny type figure to the children, who call me Margaret. What do I do? Mostly I spend time moving around the room and sitting with the children at their tables helping them with what they are doing; such as doing puzzles with them, reading to them or talking to them. The session I go to is busy because few mums are able to help out. I do enjoy what I do. They are however very short of helpers, hence their plea for more help. If you would like to know more, please talk to Margaret Watkins or Linda Hoare tel.:782717.

A Thanksgiving Service for Bedford Care is being held on Thursday 22 January 2009 at 7.30pm at Priory Methodist Church to celebrate 28 years of service to the community. If you have had any connection with Bedford Care either as a volunteer or client - please come. Although it is sad that we have had to close, we are grateful to all the volunteers who helped provide this service since 1980. Thank you Pam Kinselly.

Would anyone be interested in operating the PA system at Putnoe? We have one or two vacancies on the rota with a commitment of less than one Sunday per month. Training will be given. Brian Lodge has now retired from his role on the PA team and we would like to say Thank You to him for all his work.

The Shack: WM Paul Young £7.99

One way of describing 'The Shack' would be as a cross between the Chronicles of Narnia for adults and Pilgrim's Progress, perhaps with a touch of Sophie's World thrown in for good measure. But any novel which echoes the profound yet simple insights of those books has to be worth a read. The subtitle of the book, which initially struggled to find a publisher and is now an international best seller, is 'where tragedy meets eternity' and throughout the book the reader is drawn to understand the anger, challenges and doubts we all face in trying to understand where God is in a world which seem to be so full of pain and personal suffering. Sometimes it appears a bit American, sometimes the theology isn't as tidy as we'd like, sometimes it's a bit simplistic, but if you are wondering what to do with those Christmas Book Tokens this intriguing story has to be somewhere near the top of your list. Sam

- 1 Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown,
in you and you in me?
- 2 Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?
- 3 Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?
- 4 Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

- 5 Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

I, the Lord of sea and sky.

I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.
I who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

*Here I am Lord, is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go Lord, if you send me.
I will hold your people in my heart.*

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them, they turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them, whom shall I send?

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame,
I will set a feast for them, my hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide,
till their hearts be satisfied,
I will give my life to them, whom shall I send?
