Candlemas

Opening Verse - Luke 2 Verse 32

A light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.

Collect Prayer -Before we read we pray

Almighty and ever-living God, clothed in majesty, whose beloved Son was this day presented in the Temple, in substance of our flesh: grant that we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts, by your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Bible Reading – Malachi Chapter 3:1-5

"See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the LORD Almighty. But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then the LORD will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness, and the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to the LORD, as in days gone by, as in former years. "So I will come near to you for judgment. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers and perjurers, against those who defraud labourers of their wages, who oppress the widows and the fatherless, and deprive aliens of justice, but do not fear me," says the LORD Almighty.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Hebrews Chapter 2:14-18

Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death--that is, the devil-- and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants. For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Luke Chapter 2:22-40

When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord"), and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons." Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying: "Sovereign Lord, as you have promised, you now dismiss your servant in peace. For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all people, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel." The child's father and mother marvelled at what was said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too." There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying. Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem. When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth. And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

Commentary

This special Sunday has been called 'The Presentation of Christ in the Temple', 'The Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary', and 'Candlemas.' Candlemas celebrates the many themes of these events, presentation, purification and light for the world. The presentation of Jesus in the Temple took place 40 days after his birth. For us 40 days after Christmas Day falls on February 2, but it is celebrated in church on the Sunday nearest that date. Candlemas is a watershed in the church year, it marks the point at which we take a last look back at Christmas and then turn our minds firmly towards the Easter cross. We have been working through the Sundays of Epiphany, now we leave them behind and soon it will be Lent, for this reason it has been called a 'bitter-sweet Sunday.' This feast of Candlemas which we celebrate today can be traced to at least 543. The Feast of Lighted candles is mentioned by Bede and St. Eligius, who was bishop of Noyon from 640 to 648.

So today we remember Jesus as just 40 days old and taken to the Temple by Mary, as ordered by the Jewish Law. Since Jesus was a boy, it was 40 days after Mary gave birth that she attended at the Temple to bring a sacrifice. Now we are led to understand from Luke, that Mary did not bring a year old lamb, the reading mentions 'a pair of doves or two young pigeons,' one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. This implies that Mary presented the option for poorer people, so we may suppose that Joseph and Mary were not very wealthy. Nevertheless as faithful Jews they did their religious duty and observed the Law of Moses when it came to such things as childbirth, circumcision, and other rituals.

Luke is careful to point out that Jesus was a Jew who had his roots in the Old Testament. But clearly in this passage we see that Luke makes the point that with Jesus there is more than just a following of the old order of law. Candlemas is a time when we remember the old recognised Jesus, who brings in the new. Luke shows that the story of Jesus was confirmed by two prophets, Simeon and Anna, who spoke of Jesus under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. We have this marvellous story of Simeon to whom it had been revealed "that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord.' Prompted by the Spirit he came to the Temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the Law required, he took him into his arms and blessed God; and spoke the beautiful words which we know as the The Nunc Dimittis

Simeon says that God is setting him free as a slave is granted liberty. He is now free to die (for the Spirit's revelation to him is now fulfilled), and Israel is free of bondage. God has saved Israel, as he promised to "all peoples". God's salvation is for Gentiles as well as Israel. The old could pass away because the new had come and the future for us all would be safe in his hands.

But, Simeon finishes with some disturbing words. This marvellous salvation through Jesus had a dark side. Not everyone will take kindly to Jesus, there will be a falling as well as a arising of many in Israel. Jesus will be a sign that will be spoken against, he will cause a crisis in Israel. Decisions will have to be made for him or against him. The sword of Jesus will divide, discriminate, and judge the thoughts, attitudes, and relationships of all people. Mary the mother of Jesus will go through the same crisis, everyone must decide what to do with Jesus. Simeon recognised something special in Jesus and he knew that he had indeed seen the Lord's Christ, and that young or old he could depart in peace, for the eyes of faith had seen God's salvation: perhaps not the salvation he was expecting, the vindication of a particular people: but something bigger and better, the salvation which God had prepared before the face of all people. Charles Royden

Meditation Today we focus on Luke's story of the meeting between the Child Jesus and the aged Simeon. In the Greek-speaking world the feast was called HYPAPANTI (the encounter). In this juxtaposition of the Child and the old man. Simeon could be expressing his hope for someone with a new determination to do better. But it is not just passing all of our hopes onto a new generation - we made a mess of it but were sure that you will do better - they won't, they will be just as bad as we were. At Candlemas the Church sees the encounter between the world without Christ and the world with a new beginning in Christ, between the fading age of the Old Covenant embodied in the curse of Leviticus and the new era of the Church of all nations. Simeon calls Jesus "a light to enlighten the Gentiles." Accordingly this day was made into a feast of candles. The warm candlelight is meant to be a tangible reminder of that greater light which, for and beyond all time, radiates from the figure of Jesus. We ourselves are reminded of the need to be prepared to burn brightly ourselves in the midst of this dark world. We take a light, but it is not our own light, no light of our own would be bright enough, rather it is the light of Christ. The light which at the beginning of creation shined in the darkness and which no darkness, no blindness, could overcome. This light was a light to lighten the gentiles, the nations, all the nations and races and culture of people. Charles Royden

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

O God, who in the work of creation commanded the light to shine out of darkness: we pray that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ may shine into the hearts of all your people, dispelling the darkness of ignorance and unbelief, and revealing to them the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. Let the flame of your love never be quenched in our hearts, O Lord. Waking or sleeping, living or dying, let us delight in your presence. Let the flame of your love brighten our souls and illumine our path, and let the majesty of your glory be our joy, our life and our strength now and for ever. Amen Johann Arndt, 1555-1621

Let us all hasten to meet Christ, we who honour and venerate the divine mystery we celebrate today. Everyone should be eager to join the procession to share in this meeting. Let no one refuse to carry a light. Our bright shining candles are a sign of the divine splendour of the one who comes to expel the dark shadows of evil and to make the whole universe radiant with the brilliance of his eternal light. Our candles show how bright our souls should be when we go to meet Christ. The God-bearer the most pure virgin, carried the true Light in her arms and brought him to help those who lay in darkness. In the same way we too should carry a light for all to see and reflect the radiance of the true light as we hasten to meet him. Sophronius of Jerusalem

Help us Cut Carbon and win £37,000!!

We all have to do our bit to stop climate change and global warming. St Mark's is hoping to install solar panels on the roof of the community centre. Our roof is located brilliantly to face the sun and collect free power, even when the sun isn't that bright. This will provide free hot water and also electricity.

We have entered a competition to win £37,000 for solar panels. One obvious benefit will be saving money, but we will also be taking another step to making St Mark's a low carbon facility, saving on our carbon use and CO2 emissions. Please will you join our efforts and support our project by registering on our 'Cut your Carbon' community webpage? Just go to www.cutyourcarbon.org/group/stmarks and register. Please take your own carbon footprint test as this will increase our standing with the judges.

Join us in making the world a better place. So far 50 people have registered, we want to reach 100 quickly so please help!

Pastoral Visiting Some helpful comments written by Mary Stubbs.

The Partnership Ministry is covered in various ways, first and foremost by the excellent ministry of our clergy. There is also the visiting and caring which is carried out informally by members of the church when they are aware of a special or long term need. These are generally much appreciated, but may not be known about and therefore unrecognised generally. We want to say 'thank you' for this love and care and prayerful support. There is also the ministry formally undertaken on behalf of the church through the Pastoral Support Team. This was set up originally primarily for visiting bereaved families whose family funerals were taken by one of our ministers. This involved a contact with families, about two months after the death and funeral, to express the church care and ascertain whether any particular help was needed. This kind of contact continues by telephone initially, and possibly by a home visit. Because of the use of the garden of Remembrance and chapel by some families from other churches or known through the undertakers, this can lead to a wider ministry of initial support.

The team is also involved in the care of sick people, maybe through some short term need, e.g. hospital visiting, or through long-term contact with people who gradually become more housebound or forgetful. We try to meet these requests, but they do depend on receiving information (and accepting that some people forget that they have had visitors). In addition, about 50 people are telephoned regularly by the Telecare Team who can pass on information, initially to Charlie. This is a large parish and of course our ministry can be patchy and there is always room for improvement. We want to do the best we can because this is part of our Christians service.

Please would you remember in your prayers the pastoral ministry of the whole church, led by Charlie and Sam, and the present members of the Partnership Pastoral Support Team, Sue Allen, Jean bank, Valerie Capon, Sylvia Cohen, Sally Gunning, Richard Ledger, Margaret Standley, Wendy waters, (Doris Cooper, Pat Gregory and Kathleen Stennet, by telephone occasionally) and Mary Stubbs.

Give a dog a home We are looking for a home for two lovely dogs.

Chloe is a Samoyed Springer Spaniel cross. White with tan markings. 'I am 11 years old with all vaccinations, I get on with other dogs and I like children. The only thing I don't like is cats (this dog has taste). I am obedient and know all the proper commands, breakfast, dinner, sit, lay, wait, paw, treaties and garden. Please can you give me a home, and take me for walks, because I am fir and happy and like exercise despite my age.'

Daisy. 'People tell me I am gorgeous, but I am only 5 and I badly need somebody who can look after me. I am well behaved and I really need a friend right now because my owners are emigrating. Please let me into your home and you will discover why Rotties are the best dogs in the world—ask Charlie who would love to have me himself but he would have to get a bigger car, which is just not possible. I am spayed, vaccinated, good off a lead, like children and I adore cuddles.'

Please call Grace Foster if you can help these dogs 215053

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
