We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

Prayer for New Year 2006

Ring out old shapes of foul disease, ring out the narrowing lust of gold,
ring out the thousand wars of old,
ring in the thousand years of peace.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

May God who makes all things new, yet who is for ever the same, bless you, this year and guard you in all that you do.

That you may live in his service and abide in him always.

Bible Notes

Second Sunday of Christmas - Year B (White)

Verse of Scripture Matthew 1:21

"You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins"

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray.

Almighty God, who wonderfully created us in your own image and yet more wonderfully restored us through your Son Jesus Christ: grant that, as he came to share in our humanity, so may we share the life of his divinity; who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 61:10 - 62:3

I delight greatly in the LORD; my soul rejoices in my God. For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the soil makes the sprout come up and a garden causes seeds to grow, so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up before all nations. For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her righteousness shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch. The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory; you will be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will bestow. You will be a crown of splendour in the Lord's hand, a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Galatians 4:4-7

But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law, to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons. Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, "Abba, Father." So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, God has made you also an heir.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Luke 2: 15-21

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told. On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise him, he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he had been conceived.

(This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son shared at Nazareth the life of an earthly home: help your Son to live as one family, united in love and obedience and bring us all at last to our home in heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Adoration of the Shepherds by Caravaggio (b1571, d1610)

Commentary

Take a look at your Christmas cards before you throw them away after Christmas. Ask yourself how many of them give a real picture of what the birthplace of Jesus might have been like. It is true that the Gospels do not actually tell us, but they give us clues when they tell us that Mary and Joseph couldn't get a room and the baby Jesus was laid in a manger. The painting by Caravaggio is probably as good as it gets. Mary has a couple of haloes, but apart from that the scene is basic with animals standing around.

If we want to know what life was like for Jesus when he was born then we would have to learn to be poor, really poor. We would have to go back to basics and discover the rejection felt by the holy family as they their first born son in a feeding trough.

In truth we do not know what the birthplace of Jesus was exactly like. By the time the Magi arrived Mary and Joseph have moved into a house in Bethlehem. However we know from Luke that when Jesus was born he was laid in a manger because there was no room for them at the inn. The manger became important, it was the fact that Jesus was lying in a manger which identified him to the shepherds as the baby spoken of by the angels.

So what was the birthplace like? Some have suggested a kind of cave, or a stable and others have proposed the underneath of a house where animals were sometimes kept, we will never know. However we can reasonably assume that it was a place where animals lived, because we are told about the manger. It is difficult to find good pictures or paintings of the nativity scene, so many are romanticised and unlike anything which might have taken place. The painting shown today by Caravaggio is good at least for its simplicity and honesty, we can almost smell the earthiness associated with animals and straw. In the wooden stable stand a donkey and an ox. There is a realism with straw on the floor and a simple basket contains bread. There is a bag with the tools of the carpenter and Joseph in a red cloak shows the shepherds the young Virgin Mother, lying on the floor in a red dress. Mary is shown cuddling her baby with two haloes around her head, but at least she is shown lying down, giving some semblance of the fact that she has been through an ordeal.

Since we do not know what the birthplace is really like there is a need for imagination and guesswork. Nevertheless it is important that the scene reflects the harsh reality that Jesus found his birthplace not among the expected comforts of a normal place of birth. The artists has not tried to show Mary in way which pretends that she has given birth without effort, the theological pretence of Mary the perpetual virgin. This is a real baby in a real mucky barn and real mother who has many things on her mind.

This is important, because if we loose the reality of the birth of Jesus, then we risk making our faith remote and God becomes out of touch with our real lives. Thank God that Jesus was born in a real place, surrounded by real animals and visited by real people at a particular moment in our world history. Jesus became flesh, with all of its issues, this is not an abstract theological idea, he really did make his dwelling among us.

The reading today finishes with the information that on the eighth day Jesus was circumcised and named Jesus. According to Jewish law a woman became ceremonially unclean after the birth of a child. On the eighth day the male child was circumcised (Gen 17:12). The mother remained unclean for an additional 33 days, sixty six if the child was female (Leviticus 12:1-5). At the end of this time the mother offered a sacrifice, either a lamb, or if she was poor, two doves or two young pigeons. (Leviticus 12:6-8). If the child was the first son, then he was to be presented to the Lord, and then bought back with an offering (Numbers 18:15, 1 Samuel 1:24-28). Mary and Joseph showed conformity to this law and they offered birds instead of a lamb, which shows their poverty.

Charles Royden

Meditation

We could accuse God of bad taste, choosing to be born to a poor lowly teenager who ends up giving birth in a stable. God uses the juxtaposition, God arranges for something which might offend and certainly contradicts our expectations. Jesus is born to the wrong person in the wrong place. That is God's decision not ours and it should challenge us. God's ways to us are incongruous. God chooses to behave in this contradictory way and in so doing shows that his authority and power are quite unlike anything which meets our expectations. The birth of Jesus was unremarkable, few people saw, heard or understood what took place that night. The choirs of angels singing were heard only by poor shepherds, there was perhaps an unusually bright star in the sky, but not so brilliantly obvious that Herod, his royal advisors and soldiers were able to follow it. If our faith sometimes lacks the spectacular, the reassuring glimpses of the divine splendour, then get used to it. Ours is a saviour who becomes flesh, who is born in a stable. Charles Royden

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

With the angels and saints, each day and each night, each shade and each light, I bend my knee in the eye of the Father who created me, in the eye of the Son who redeemed me, in the eye of the Spirit who cleansed me. In love and affection, in wisdom and grace, in love and in fear, for ever and ever. Amen.
Gaelic Prayer to the Trinity

"O God, all holy one, you are our Mother and our Father and we are your children. Open our eyes and our hearts so that we may be able to discern your work in the universe. And be able to see Your features in every one of Your children. May we learn that there are many paths but all lead to You. Help us to know that you have created us for family, for togetherness, for peace, for gentleness, for compassion, for caring, for sharing.

"May we know that You want us to care for one another as those who know that they are sisters and brothers, members of the same family, Your family, the human family. Help us to beat our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruning hooks, so that we may be able to live in peace and harmony, wiping away the tears from the eyes of those who are less fortunate than ourselves. And may we know war no more, as we strive to be what You want us to be: Your children. Amen."

Desmond M. Tutu, Archbishop Emeritus of Cape Town, South Africa

O Child, who willed to have for your crib a manger; O Creator of the universe, who stripped yourself of divine glory; O Redeemer, who offered your vulnerable body in sacrifice for the salvation of humanity! May the radiance of your birth light up the night of the world. May the power of your message of love thwart the proud snares of the evil one. May the gift of your life make us understand ever more clearly the worth of the life of each human being. Too much blood is still being shed on the earth! Too much violence and too many conflicts trouble the peaceful coexistence of nations! You come to bring us peace. You are our peace! You alone can make of us "a people purified" and belonging to you for ever, a people "zealous for good deeds" (Tit 2:14). John Paul II, Christmas Homily 2003

When the song of the angels is stilled. When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home. When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:

To find the lost, To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry, To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations, To bring peace among others,
To make music in the heart. Howard Thurman, African-American mystic

Save us from the great evils which rend humanity in these first years of the third millennium. Save us from the wars and armed conflicts which lay waste whole areas of the world, from the scourge of terrorism and from the many forms of violence which assail the weak and the vulnerable. Save us from discouragement as we face the paths to peace, difficult paths indeed, yet possible and therefore necessary; paths which are always and everywhere urgent, especially in the Land where You were born, the Prince of Peace.

Hymn 2
(Tune Michael Row)

*Come and praise the Lord our King, alleluia,
Come and praise the Lord our King, alleluia.*

- 1 Christ was born in Bethlehem, alleluia,
Son of God and Son of Man: alleluia.
- 2 He grew up an earthly child, alleluia,
Of the world but undefiled: alleluia.
- 3 From him love and wisdom came, alleluia;
All his life was free from blame, alleluia.
- 4 Jesus died at Calvary, alleluia,
Rose again triumphantly! alleluia.
- 5 He will cleanse us from our sin, alleluia,
If we live by faith in Him: alleluia.
- 6 He will be with us today, alleluia,
And forever with us stay, alleluia.

Hymn

(Tune Personent Hodie pies cantiones)

- 1 When our God came to earth,
not for him noble birth:
he affirmed human worth
from a humble manger, just another stranger.
*Let the poor rejoice!
Let the mute give voice!
Love is shown,
God is known,
Christ is born of Mary.*
- 2 Not for kings was the word which the poor shepherds heard:
hope renewed, grace conferred,
and the hillside ringing with the angels' singing.

3 Bethlehem, humble town where the babe wears the crown, turns the world upside down:
God so unexpected,
homeless and rejected.

4 Let us sing Mary's song, bringing hope, righting wrong, heard with fear by the strong,
poor and humble raising,
God of justice praising.

Hymn 5

(Tune Banks and Braes)

- 1 What if the One who shapes the stars and puts the planets in their place should set all majesty aside and move amongst the human race?
What if the One who engineers
the eye, the ear, the heart, the brain, should make his home here as a child at Mary's breast in Bethlehem?
- 2 What if the One who spoke the word when all was dark, 'Let there be light!' should enter this disordered world to make our fading hopes more bright?
What if the God who waits outside should all at once be found within, and Mary's child be given the strength to overturn the power of sin?
- 3 What if the One who always was,
creation's hidden energy,
should-for love's sake-inhabit time,
God's living Word for all to see?
Yes, true it is: Christ's Gospel truth,
the truth on which we all may build!
So let this be the truth for us as now we welcome Mary's child.

Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out and touched the man. 'I am willing,' he said. 'Be clean!' Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cured.

Mark 1 v 14 – 42.

Thank you for your gifts for the Mildmay appeal. We have already now collected over £1,000. Please continue to give generously to this appeal. Mildmay is a Christian charity which works with victims of Aids in London and sub-Saharan Africa and Eastern Europe. We will conclude the appeal in February. On 15 January our speaker at both churches will be Dr Veronica Moss who is Mildmay's Chief Executive and Chief Medical Officer which is great news. Please support this important fundraising effort and help us make a difference for the men, women, children and babies who are afflicted by this terrible disease in our own country and across the world. Sam

What you gifts can do

£10 buys minibus fuel, to bring in sick children to our centre in Uganda

£28 pays for intensive counselling to help UK patients overcome the trauma of AIDS illnesses

£49 pays for the crucial services provided by our pastoral care team in Uganda

£75 pays for vital physiotherapy to get Ugandan patients back on their feet again after illness

£100 provides expert medical care at our UK hospital to keep patients free of pain and monitored for side-effects from strong anti-HIV drugs

£250 provide a special air-cushioned mattress to make a chronically ill patient more comfortable

£500 pays for a whole day's nursing care for 'family admissions' at our UK hospital

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Thank you to Judith Stanton and all supporters of her Whist Drive group for their recent generous donation to St. Mark's. Their continued support is very much appreciated.

Putnoe Heights Church Office reopens on Tuesday 3rd January 2006 at 9am. From this date the office opening hours will be 9am-5pm, closing at 12 noon on Monday and Friday. St Mark's Church Office re-opens on Wednesday 4 January Diocesan Resources Locate to St Mark's. We are delighted to announce that the Diocese of St Albans Education Department has decided to relocate their educational resources to St Mark's. New furniture will be provided in the chapel to display books and materials, which can be browsed in the special environment which the chapel provides of peace and tranquillity. Since St Mark's is open all day it provides an ideal location for anybody wanting to drop in and see what is available. In supporting this move the church council have embarked upon an exciting new venture into the area of Christian education. We will make an announcement when resources start to be moved to St Mark's.

Rest in Peace
