2nd Sunday of Easter

Opening Sentence from Scripture .– 1 Peter 1:3

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Collect Prayer for the Day

(Before we read we pray)

Almighty father, you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification:

grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Common Worship

Blessed are those who have not seen, yet have believed

First Bible Reading Acts 2: 14a, 22-32

“Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say.

“Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. This man was handed over to you by God’s set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. David said about him: “ ‘I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will live in hope, because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.’

“Brothers, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day. But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne. Seeing what was ahead, he spoke of the resurrection of the Christ that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay. God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of the fact

Second Reading - 1 Peter 1: 3-9

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade—kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God’s power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!” After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.” And with that he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.” Now Thomas (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it.” A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe.” Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.” Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

(This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God.)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him: deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Commentary Doubting Thomas

Thomas is one of the disciples we actually know very little about, but the term ‘doubting Thomas’ is part of common speech, even though many of those who use it do not realise its origin (as indeed with the title ‘Judas’ being used for one seen as a traitor against a cause). But is this a fair way for him to have become known by history?

One of the few times Thomas’ words are recorded in the gospels, as we heard only a few weeks ago, was in John 11, after they hear about the illness of Lazarus. Jesus and the disciples have barely escaped from Judea with their lives after the attempted stoning of Jesus, and now Jesus suggests going back. It is Thomas who says bravely or perhaps with a sense of irony or resignation, ‘let us also go’ that we may die with him.’ Either way, this demonstrates a courage we do not always equate with this apostle.

What, then, do we actually know about him? Although he is not as well known as others, such as Peter or Paul, there are historical and literary sources that give us an idea of what he went on to do. As an Evangelist he is believed to have taken Christianity to India and there are mentions of links to Syrian Kings. So clearly he went on to do great things and became a key figure in the early church, his doubt lead him to demonstrate great faith.

Tradition tells us a little more, just like Peter, who is given three opportunities to accept Jesus when he appeared to them at the fire on the beach only days after Peter rejected Christ 3 times by the fire in the court of the high priest. Thomas is also given the opportunity to experience his doubt from the other side. According to ‘the passing of Mary’, a text regarding the death of Jesus’ mother, (thought to have been written by Joseph of Arimathaea), having missed her death while in India, Thomas is the only apostle to witness her assumption into Heaven, at which she dropped her belt (or girdle). In an ironic reversal of this appearance telling, the others do not believe him until they see her empty tomb and the girdle.

Is doubting actually such a negative?

Pierre Abelard said the following; ‘The beginning of wisdom is found in doubting; by doubting we come to the question, and by seeking we may come upon the truth.’

So, like Paul suggests in Romans 8, as discomfort leads to hope for change, and hope leads us to do something about the situation, so to can doubt lead to exploration and a deeper truth. We are actively encouraged to question things we take for granted, but about faith we should have no doubt; in Mark 11 Jesus says;

"Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

In popular culture too this theme can be found, in the Star Wars film, 'The Empire Strikes Back', while training with Yoda the young Luke Skywalker tries to use his faith in 'the force' to raise a sinking space ship out of the swamp, and fails. Yoda said 'Try not, Do or do not, there is no try'. When the diminutive Yoda raises the ship unaided Luke is amazed and says 'I don't believe it', 'that is why you fail' responds Yoda.

Yet over confidence too can lead to disaster, in the recently released film adaptation of Marvels 'Thor', Odin sends his son to earth to learn the skills he needs to be king, after he was nearly defeated in an ill-advised raid on another realm. Stripped of his 'super-human' powers the young man has to learn to use his brain and think about the needs of others in order to be victorious. We should indeed have faith in God, we should also have faith in our own abilities, because doubt there can mean we do not even try. Yet we also need to know our limits, and sometimes we can only discover what those are by pushing, and in doing so we, at times, need to be prepared to fail.

Meditation

Is there any hope?

Rejected.

Jesus was rejected.

Ignored.

Jesus was ignored.

Despised.

Abandoned.

Broken.

But...

Within that rejection was hope.

The hope of resurrection

and re-creation.

The hope of transformation

There is hope .

If only we would cease

Abandoning..

Ignoring.

Rejecting David Hall, Director of the Leprosy Mission in New Zealand.

Prayer

Look to this day for it is life,
the very life of life.

In its brief course

lie all the realities and truths of existence;

The joy of growth, the splendour of action,

the glory of power:

For yesterday is but a memory

and tomorrow is only a vision,

But today, well lived,

makes every yesterday a memory of happiness

and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Look well, therefore, to this day!

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Lord, make my life a window for Your light to shine through and a mirror to reflect your love to all I meet.
Amen.

Risen Lord Jesus, you come to us in the most surprising - and the most ordinary - ways. Just when we begin to forget or doubt you, when we begin to live our lives as if you don't matter, you come - speaking to us, feeding us, encouraging us. You never forget us or fail us. Without you we are weak and fail often but with you we are strong. May we be made deeply aware of your presence this day.

God of the prophets, you fulfilled your promise that Christ would suffer and rise to glory. Open our minds to understand the scriptures that we may be his witnesses to the ends of the earth. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity, of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Address

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

Holy God, we thank you that you came to live as one of us, to die for our sake and then you arose from the grave. You are so amazing, too wonderful for us to even imagine, yet you call us your children and invite us into your presence.

May you be praised for ever and ever.

Generous God, we thank you that you fill our lives with so many good gifts, in the natural world, in people and in our own skills and interests.

May you be praised for ever and ever.

Sacrificial God, for our salvation you suffered the pain and humiliation of the cross, overcame death and opened for us the gate to everlasting life.

May you be praised for ever and ever.

Loving God, we thank you that you are always with us and that you share in every part of our lives.

May you be praised for ever and ever.

Challenging God, we thank you that you have a place for each one of us to serve you and to work for the coming of your kingdom here on earth. Help us to listen to your call and to respond with joy.

We dedicate ourselves to you; strengthen us by your Spirit to do your will, and bring us with all your saints to the glory of your kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Hymn 14: All Heaven declares!

Prayers of intercession,

Leader: Lord in Your Mercy
All: Hear Our Prayer

Ending with

Leader: Merciful Father
All: Accept these prayers for the sake of your son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

We say together the prayer that Jesus gave us

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hymn: 417: Lift High the Cross!

Blessing

All: We go into the world to walk in the light of the risen Christ, to rejoice in God's love and to reflect God's glory.

Minister: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord

All: In the name of Christ, Amen.

Prince William and Kate Middleton, now the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, composed a prayer for their wedding at Westminster Abbey.

God our Father, we thank you for our families; for the love that we share and for the joy of our marriage. In the busyness of each day keep our eyes fixed on what is real and important in life and help us to be generous with our time and love and energy. Strengthened by our union, help us to serve and comfort those who suffer. We ask this in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. Amen.

May the God of all grace, friend and companion, look in favour on William and Catherine and all who are made one in marriage. Deepen our love deepen strengthen our wills to keep the promises we make that we may continue in life-long faithfulness to each other; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
