Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Hazel Caine in memory of her husband, George, and her son, Mark.

The flowers at St Mark's this week are given in celebration of the marriage of Sue Turner and Ronnie Jenkins.

The flowers in the chapel are given by Brian Sallows in loving memory of his wife Carol

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

A Prayer for Sunday

Lord, we know that nothing can separate us from your love.

In all that this day brings, help me to hold on to that hope which opens my eyes to the reality of your world and yet encourages me; that hope, which leads me without fear into your future; that hope, which is your gift in Jesus Christ our Lord, our Saviour and Friend, in whose name we pray. Amen.

James Booth

Ordinary 20

Verse of Scripture -Psalm 34 v 9

Fear the Lord, you His saints, for those who fear Him lack nothing.

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

God of the nations, to whose table all are invited and in whose kingdom no one is a stranger: hear the cries of the hungry and mercifully extend to all the peoples on earth the joy of your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Proverbs 9: 1-6

Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn out its seven pillars. She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine; she has also set her table. She has sent out her maids, and she calls from the highest point of the city. "Let all who are simple come in here!" she says to those who lack judgment. "Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed. Leave your simple ways and you will live; walk in the way of understanding. (Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God

Second Reading– Ephesians 5: 15-20

Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit. Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 6: 51 –58 - Please stand for the Gospel

When the Gospel is announced - 'Glory to Christ our Saviour'

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world." Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live forever."

(Reader : This is the Gospel of Christ All: Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Mission Praise and Holy Communion booklets)

1. O worship the King, 528
2. For I'm building a people of power, 151
3. The King of love my shepherd is, 649
4. Great is thy faithfulness, 200

Meditation

The book of Proverbs is seen as one of the most representative works of Israelite wisdom and is made up of two main sections called 'The proverbs of Solomon', Sol 10 v 1 – 22 v 16 and 'Some more of Solomon's proverbs', Sol 22 v 17 – 24 v 22. These sections are followed by some other sayings and closes with an alphabetical poem in praise of an ideal wife. The book of Proverbs is not just a book of pithy sayings and maxims to live by, although it does contain many of these, it's a book which gives unique insight into the Israelite faith and the nature of God and His wisdom. The Old Testament reading today is taken from the 9 chapter long introduction to the book of Proverbs and models a classic form of Egyptian wisdom literature with the deep impression of Israelite thought imposed upon it. In this introduction a father commends wisdom to his child in a discourse where wisdom herself intervenes. The parable which unfolds in Sol 9 v 1 – 18, of which we have the first 6 verses today, lays out the 2 paths before an individual, the way of virtue and the way of vice, from which every human must choose. It echoes the choice laid out before us by Jesus, God's wisdom personified, the choice between the way of the cross and the way of self. And, just as in the times of Solomon, we too have to make a choice. Sam Cappleman

Commentary

The ups and downs of our Christian faith

The book of John is alone in the gospels in that it does not contain a lengthy exposition of the Last Supper. Instead of which we have John Chapter 6 where Jesus, after feeding the 5000, explains that He is the bread of life, a passage which led to early Christians being accused of cannibalism by some parties because of the phrase in the chapter where Jesus declares that '...unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you'. For the Jews, it was one of their best known dietary laws that the drinking of blood, or even eating meat still with the blood in it, was expressly forbidden. To understand what Jesus means we perhaps need to go back to the Old Testament.

In 2 Samuel 23 there is an account of David, who is fighting the philistines who have their garrison in David's home town of Bethlehem. David longs for a drink of water from the well at the gates of Bethlehem and on hearing his wish, three of his 'mighty men' go to the well and bring David a drink of water back. To everyone's surprise David refuses to drink the water which has been so bravely brought to him. 'Far be it for me', he says, 'that I should drink of the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives'. David did not want to be seen to profit from the risk of those who put their lives at risk for him. By the same reasoning, if we want to profit from the risk Jesus has taken for us we need to 'eat of his body and drink of His blood'. Jesus put His own life at risk, and eventually lost it, so that we could profit from that risk and loss.

And as we read on in the chapter, and the rest of the gospel, it is clear that John is not just talking about the here and now, the immediate future, he has an eternal perspective to his writing. John clearly understands the words of Jesus in this discourse (in a synagogue in Capernaum) to refer to the Eucharist, the sacrament in which Jesus' body and blood are offered to all believers to be eaten and drunk. The Israelites who had eaten manna from heaven whilst they were in the wilderness survived to tell the tale, but eventually all had died. Those who in faith partake in the mystery of the Eucharist and eat and drink of the body and blood of Jesus may not die but have everlasting life.

Jesus is the bread that came down from heaven so that we could be raised up on the last day. To the hearers it was radical talk. Many people heard the message and decided it was not for them and turned away. Many presumably continued to follow for the miracles and the teaching but in reality were only going through the motions. Next week we will read that the true disciples continued to follow Jesus because they understood the life changing nature of Jesus' words and that, ultimately, there was no one else to follow, no where else to go.

As Christians, as we share in the Eucharist, the Lord's Supper, the Holy Communion, as we eat of the body of Jesus and drink of His blood, we are reminded in a profound way that as we profit and share in the risk that Jesus took by the breaking of His body and the shedding of His blood, so we share in His risen life. His is the life that sustains and transforms us, hour by hour, day by day, week by week. No longer are we limited by the laws of the Old Testament or the physical restrictions of our human body, through the Eucharist, and all that it symbolises for each one of us, perhaps in very different ways, we are raised up with Christ and share in His eternal glory both now and in the world to come. Sam Cappleman

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

God our Father, may we love you in all things and above all things and reach the joy you have prepared for us beyond all our imagining. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

God of mercy, whose Son Jesus Christ is the bread of life; by the sacrament of the Holy Communion you make us one with Christ. By becoming more like him on earth, may we come to share his glory in heaven. Amen

We give thanks for your Son, Jesus, who you raised to new life, and who now offers himself to us as the bread of heaven, so that all who eat and drink of him might live forever as one with him. Amen Nathan Nettleton www.laughingbird.net

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, make you perfect in every good work to do His will; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always.
Amen

News and Information

Refreshment Rota at Putnoe Heights. Do you enjoy a cup of coffee or tea after the morning service at Putnoe Heights? If so, you may have wondered how these regularly appear Sunday by Sunday. For many years the task of organising this has been undertaken by Margaret Massey who has now decided to retire from this role. (Many, many thanks for all your years of service Margaret) We are urgently looking for someone to take over from Margaret and be responsible for organising the rota for the helpers and ensuring that sufficient supplies are always at hand. If you feel this would be a role you could fulfil (it really isn't too onerous a task); contact either Alan Bayliss or Margery Charie who will be happy to provide you with further details. We are also very grateful to the folk who are currently on the rota but we do urgently need additional helpers to join them. Again contact either Alan or Margery if you are interested.

Patrick Sookhdeo in Bedford. A Pakistani convert from Islam with a real heart for the persecuted church. He will be in Bedford in November at Bromham Baptist Church. Saturday 18 Nov. Meetings 3 - 5pm " Understanding Islam", 6.45 - 8.30pm. "Islam - the challenge to the church " He will also be preaching on Sunday morning. Graham Brown ecumenical representative

Thank you for the prayers provided in your web site. I occasionally read the Intercessions at our Parish Church here in Whalley, Lancashire. I must admit that I am not very good at composing these prayers but I do value what others write and I make my Intercessions by drawing on their words – not wholesale copies but selecting what is relevant, adapting to our Parish and so on. Your prayers give me inspiration which I hope I pass on to our congregation. These are difficult times in so many ways and we believe that by prayer Christians can make a difference. God bless, Clifford.

Safeguarding. Janet Day will be responsible for ensuring that all people at St Mark's who are involved in any way with children or vulnerable adults have CRB clearance. Please contact Janet immediately if you do not have yours up to date.

Thanks to all of the supporters from the Partnership who turned out on Monday to support the application for woodland burial. The application was approved by 7 votes to 4. The way is now clear to establish at Keysoe a woodland burial ground which allows people to be buried in a beautiful woodland setting in a way which does not harm the environment. It will be the only consecrated burial site in Bedfordshire available to members of the public without discrimination. Norse Road Cemetery is not consecrated and villages have strict exclusion policies.

We are now proceeding with the arrangements for consecration and hope to be able to open for burials as soon as possible. We are grateful to the councillors on the planning committee who took time to read the planning application, to Mr Al Morrow of Philips Planning Services who helped prepare the application and to Bedford Borough Council Planning Department for their positive recommendation of the proposals.

The Barford Bypass Challenge takes place this morning. The Peck Family are walking on behalf of St John's Moggerhanger and National Children's Home and Sue Allen with three friends for St John's. Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
