Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Alan and Lena Cooper in celebration of their Diamond Wedding Anniversary, and by Deryck Cutler in loving memory of his wife Mollie.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for This Week

Lord God,
you so loved the world
that you gave your only Son
so that we might have eternal life.
Now we ask that you would help us in our daily lives to live for you in everything that we do,
and not to be ashamed.
Let our lives reflect the same mercy and goodness that you have first shown to us. Amen

Second Sunday in Lent

Opening Sentence from Scripture — Philippians 2:9

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

Almighty God, you show to those who are in error the light of your truth, that they may return to the way of righteousness: grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

First Bible Reading — Genesis 12: 1-4a

The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you. "I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you." So Abram left, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Romans 4: 1-5, 13-17

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, discovered in this matter? If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. What does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." Now when a man works, his wages are not credited to him as a gift, but as an obligation. However, to the man who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness.

It was not through law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. For if those who live by law are heirs, faith has no value and the promise is worthless, because law brings wrath. And where there is no law there is no transgression.

Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 3: 1-17 Please Stand

After the Gospel is announced All – Praise to Christ our Saviour

Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council. He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi, we know you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the miraculous signs you are doing if God were not with him." In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again." "How can a man be born when he is old? "Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!" Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit." "How can this be?" Nicodemus asked. "You are Israel's teacher," said Jesus, "and do you not understand these things? I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony. I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven--the Son of Man. Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

(This is the Gospel of Christ —Praise to Christ our Lord)

Hymns (Please distribute Holy Communion Booklets and Hymns and Psalms)

1. God is love let heaven adore him 36 (Tune Abbots Leigh)
2. There's a wideness 230 (Tune Cross of Jesus)
3. Come let us sing of a wonderful love 691 (Tune Wonderful Love)
4. Father whose everlasting love 520 (Tune Church Triumphant)

Commentary

The Gospel reading this week from John Chapter 3, tells of a man called Nicodemus. He came to Jesus and was obviously curious about who Jesus was. Nicodemus came from a great family, he was a leading Pharisee and religious teacher. But, he recognised that Jesus had something special and he wanted to know more. That was all it took, honest curiosity and a willingness to listen. Jesus went on to tell him important spiritual truths which have been passed on from generations.

1. Jesus said that it didn't matter how socially acceptable or unacceptable a person was, God loved the whole world just the same - everybody and everything.
2. Jesus said that we all start from the same place with God, there are no favourites.
3. Jesus said that anybody who turned to him would find forgiveness and life with God for eternity

Eventually Nicodemus would be one of those who cared for the dead body of Jesus. Then the words of Jesus would make even more sense. The death of Jesus was not a tragic murder, it brought to us an awareness that God's love was enormous. If the quality of love could ever be measured by the value of a gift, then there is nothing greater than God's love, for he did not even spare his own son Jesus.

The Victorian preacher C H Spurgeon describes how he went out with money from his church to give to a poor woman of the parish. He knocked and knocked again but she would not answer, she thought it was the rent man. The knock signalled a gift, she thought it was a demand. So what is it which convinces some people that there really is a gift from God which is worth bothering with? In the story today, what is it which makes Nicodemus different from the other Jewish leaders? Why was he willing to approach and listen to Jesus?

Let's look at Nicodemus

Nicodemus was from the right background. he was a Jewish leader and teacher, a member of the Sanhedrin. He came from the right family and the right race. He was a prominent and respected Jew. But he came to Jesus and it is clear that this was not enough for him. He knew he was missing something which his Jewish religion didn't have but which Jesus clearly did. The message which Jesus gave to Nicodemus was clear. It doesn't matter into whose family you are born. You get no credit from God on account of your family. For somebody who would have been proud of his family tree, this was a blow. He suddenly was told that he was no better of than the lowest of the low.

In the Magnificat, the Song of Mary, the mother of Jesus, we are told that Jesus will bring down the mighty from their seat and exalt the humble and the meek. Today in the Gospel reading, Nicodemus is one of the mighty when he comes to Jesus. He is told that it counts for nothing, he discovers what Mary meant. With Jesus birth, social status, wealth, all count for nothing, it was like you had to be born again, and we were all equal. We are told that it was dark when Nicodemus came to Jesus, but there was a light switched on in his life when he went away, Jesus had illuminated his spiritual vision through this encounter and Nicodemus was changed. He was changed so much so that he was able to become brave enough to care for the body of the dead Jesus.

There are many people like Nicodemus, they have questions and they are not sure about Christianity, or who Jesus really is. Jesus taught Nicodemus something which changed his life. The same Jesus still surprises people today. Christians are those who have heard God's knock on the door and are prepared to respond knowing that it is not the rent man. They trust that what is offered really is a gift and not a life sentence.

Jesus speaks to Nicodemus of wind. The wind blows where it will. You can hear it, feel it, but you can't predict or control it. How do some people come to faith and others don't? Are we able to give explain the work of the Holy Spirit? The answer must be no. We all want to know answers which help people to believe, but they are not there. We want God in a box, but God won't fit. Perhaps this is what W.H. Auden meant when he said it's hard to be a Christian if you're not something of a poet.

We do not get to know God by study, we won't find God on the internet, God isn't passed on from generation to generation, God isn't for the well educated, indeed Jesus said, that God hides from the wise and reveals to the simple! Our part is very simple, one of faith and trust, and all are equal, there are no special places for the talented and gifted.

Jesus reminded Nicodemus that in the desert Moses told the people of Israel to look at a bronze snake and they would survive snake bites. Those people in the desert didn't understand how the bronze snake worked. It just worked and it became the source of life for them. All they had to turn was to focus on the snake. The cross of Christ is the same. I do not even begin to understand the atonement of God, or how the cross brings salvation to the world. Nobody knows how in the cross the enduring and overpowering love of God is at work to bring salvation to the world. Fortunately, we are not saved by explanations or understandings, we are saved by God.

Medieval map makers located the spot on which the cross stood as the centre of the earth and then they arranged the rest of the world around it. That may not be great cartography but it is excellent theology. The cross of Christ is our theology, its what it is all about. Faith begins when we turn to Jesus and see in his death a vision of who God is. The death of Jesus on that cross assures us of his God's good intentions towards us. We might not understand it but, because of the cross we trust that such a God has our best interests at heart. Charles Royden

Post Communion Prayer

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Behold Lord, an empty vessel that needs to be filled. My Lord, fill it. I am weak in the faith; strengthen me. I am cold in love; warm me and make me fervent that my love may go out to my neighbour. I do not have a strong and firm faith; at times I doubt and am unable to trust you altogether. O Lord, help me. Strengthen my faith and trust in you. In you I have sealed the treasures of all I have. I am poor; you are rich and came to be merciful to the poor. I am a sinner; you are upright. With me there is an abundance of sin; in you is the fullness of righteousness. Therefore, I will remain with you, of whom I can receive, but to whom I may not give. Amen. Martin Luther

Come Lord Jesus be our guest, and may our meal by thee be blest Martin Luther

O God, graciously comfort and tend all who are imprisoned, hungry, thirsty, naked, and miserable; also all widows, orphans, sick, and sorrowing. In brief, give us our daily bread, so that Christ may abide in us and we in him for ever, and that with him we may worthily bear the name of 'Christian.' Martin Luther.

Deliver us, O Lord, from a deceitful heart. Forgive, we pray, the barbed word deliberately spoken; the thoughtless word hastily said and the envious look furtively cast. Forgive the ear rejoicing in the news of another's downfall; the feet loitering in forbidden paths and the grasping hand reaching out for personal gain; and all for the sake of Christ our Lord. Amen John Baillie, 1886-1960.

Christian Basics. There will be a series of three Lent talks at Putnoe Heights Church thinking about the basics of the Christian faith as expressed in the Apostles Creed. I believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Refreshments will be served from 7.30pm with each session starting at 8.00pm and lasting one hour. Since the series will look at the foundation of Christian belief it would be particularly helpful for anybody who is considering confirmation. Please speak with one of the ministers if you would like to consider this.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

Putnoe Mission Committee We welcome Carolyn Morris as our Mission Secretary, and once again thank Sylvia for the work which she has done. Carolyn would like to form a small committee and is looking for volunteers. This is an opportunity to consolidate our work both at Kisiizi and through Faith in Action; but also to begin new Mission ventures. Please consider this carefully and, if you are able to help, give your name to Carolyn or myself. Jean Kirk

Thank you. Many thanks to all who helped with the secondhand book sale at Putnoe Heights. A total of £378.75 was raised towards church and mission funds".

Maundy Thursday Service April 21 7.30pm

Our Maundy Thursday Service at Putnoe this year will incorporate a simple meal in the context of a Holy Communion Service to echo the Passover. We will not be selling tickets but it would be useful to have some idea of numbers so that the catering team can plan accordingly. If you would like to come to this service please could you let the office know at either Putnoe or St Mark's so that we can ascertain catering requirements.

Meditation

We must admire Nicodemus, even if he didn't get exactly what Jesus was talking about. He was willing to ask questions that would set him at odds with some of the other religious leaders. He took risks, and taking risks means having some faith. How are you or can you be like Nicodemus?

King's Arms Hike for the Homeless

We are organising a charity walk. You can do the whole 17.5 miles or just one of the stages. For more details & online registration visit: www.hikeforthehomeless.org.uk or call 01234 350900

Working in Bedford since 1989 we provide a range of services for the homeless including an 18-bed Nightshelter, a 14-bed hostel, Onward Floating Support, a Rough Sleepers Outreach Service and a weekly drop-in meal. We support approx 350 homeless and disadvantaged people each year and our vision is to 'see lives transform'

Lent Books

Although we have started Lent it's not too late to start a Lent Book as part of the observance of the season of Lent. Please see the Ministers if you'd like some suggestions. The pick for Sam this year is 'Fasting and Feasting' by Gordon Giles, providing daily readings for each day through Lent. Others suggestions this year are, 'Into your Hands' by Kevin Scully, which is a more reflective book on how God works to shape history and how we as individuals and communities might respond. Another thought provoking book, which provides reading for each day of Lent, is Brother Ramon's 'When the Crucified my Lord' which is designed for personal and group use and gives an opportunity to stop and reflect on the gospel story each day through Lent.

If anybody would like to borrow the Rob Bell DVD Video 'She' as shown at the Lent Course last week please ask Charlie.

Stage One 4.5 Miles

Priory Country Park, Bedford to Barford Bridge

The route passes Danish Camp (2.75 miles), an ideal short stage for families with young children (5.5 miles there & back cycle & pushchair friendly)

Stage Two 6.5 Miles

Barford Bridge to Wilden Village Hall. Lunch stop at Wilden with free tea coffee & cold drinks available.

Stage Three 6.5 Miles

Wilden Village Hall to Priory Country Park. The last lap back to Bedford through Renhold and across Castle Mill Lock.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
