Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Gwen Beswick in memory of Peter, and by Norma Taylor and family in memory of their mother and sisters.

The flowers at St Mark's Church have been given by Jan Cooper in memory of Peter, at the time of their Wedding Anniversary.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights)

Prayer for Sunday

Lord, let me be yours. Let me not draw back, neither from heaven, nor from your divinity, nor from your cross. Let me be yours to whom I owe my creation and my redemption. Touch my heart and sanctify it, and consecrate me in your service, forever. Amen

Lucy Herbert, 1669-1744

Third Sunday of Epiphany

Verse of Scripture

"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Loving God, through your Son you have called us to repent of our sin, to believe the good news, and to celebrate the coming of your kingdom. Grant that we may hear the call to discipleship and gladly proclaim the gospel to a waiting world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Bible Reading - Nehemiah 8: 1-3, 5-6, 8-10

All the people assembled as one man in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel. So on the first day of the seventh month Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law. Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up. Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was being read. Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, "This day is sacred to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law. Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 12: 12-31a

The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. If they were all one part, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, but one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!" On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and the parts that we think are less honourable we treat with special honour. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honour to the parts that lacked it, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honoured, every part rejoices with it. Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing, those able to help others, those with gifts of administration, and those speaking in different kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But eagerly desire the greater gifts. And now I will show you the most excellent way.

*Slum life in Jakarta
A young boy proudly shows his find*

(This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading (Please stand) The Holy Gospel is taken from Luke 4: 14-21

All: Glory to Christ our Saviour

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside. He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised him. He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour." Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

(This is the Gospel of Christ - Praise to Christ our Lord.)

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty Father, who's Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of His glory, that He may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for He is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Hymns and Psalms and Holy Communion)

1. To God be the Glory 463
2. Give me joy in my heart 492
3. Make me a channel of your peace 776
4. O breath of God come sweeping through 777

Commentary

The Old Testament lectionary reading for this Sunday is taken from the Book of Nehemiah. Since this is not a very familiar Book it might be useful to say a little about this interesting part of the Hebrew Bible and set today's extract in context. In chronological terms, this book comes at the very end of the period covered by what we call the Old Testament. Coming historically after the book of Chronicles, it extends the story of the people of Israel from the end of the exile in Babylon (c539 BC) to the end of the fifth century BC. The account of the doings of Nehemiah is regarded as a continuation of the book of Ezra. In some places it sounds as though the book was written by Nehemiah himself, since he often uses the word "I" but in other places the text refers to the same man as "he"! Scholars have suggested that it may be that the earliest versions of the story became jumbled and thus mixed up the historical order of events in both Ezra and Nehemiah. The tone of the Book of Nehemiah is radically different from the more high flown, and perhaps more vague, outpourings of some of the prophets. Nehemiah, Jewish cup bearer to the Persian King Artaxerxes,

Nehemiah and the rebuilding of the walls

was allowed by his master to return to the land of the people of Israel as Governor. Once there, Nehemiah grieved at the desolate state of the city of Jerusalem, so symbolic of the nationhood and spirituality of the Chosen People. In the face of division among the scattered and sorry remnants of the people of Israel and against a background of attacks from neighbouring tribes, Nehemiah called together the people and galvanised them into setting about rebuilding the walls of the once great city of David and Solomon.

Although we don't learn many personal details about Nehemiah, we do get the impression that he was a practical and determined man. He was also tidy-minded to a fault! The book of Nehemiah is scattered with careful lists of the participants in the reconstruction project. The family alliances and relationships are all carefully noted, he was a true historian. The excerpt we hear in church this morning comes after this account of the reconstruction of the walls of Jerusalem. Having achieved the first part of his purpose, the rebuilding of the fabric, the practical prophet followed God's inspiration and set about rebuilding the spiritual fabric of his people. The men and women of Israel and "those who have ears to hear" (presumably Gentiles) were called together to hear God's will for His people.

In my sermon I shall be noting the significance of both the moving sequence of the practical and moral rebuilding of a divided and disheartened people. I shall ask whether this rather obscure part of the Bible might not have real significance for Christians as we struggle in this secular world. Could the rebuilding and the finding of common cause in a great project be a splendid metaphor of God's purpose for us? Joan Crossley

Meditation

We are half way through the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, an event which is now part of the Bedford church calendar. It is marked by services in a variety of churches and provides a platform for building new relationships with Christians from other denominations or meeting up with old friends. It would be good to think that people from the Partnership might reaffirm our long-standing commitment to looking outwards by getting involved with the few remaining activities. Perhaps you could fit in a visit to one of the lunchtime services? Or hear Bishop Richard preach tonight? We all desire closer links and better understanding with other churches and knowing how they worship is an important part of the process of dropping barriers.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Gracious God, look upon a sinner who is yet created in your image. Look upon a disciple into whose heart you gaze. Look upon a child who longs to love you with a heart yet more perfect, and looking, forgive, and gazing, pardon and bless; for your truth and your mercy's sake. Amen. Francois Fenelon, 1651-1715

Prayer for Epiphany

Almighty God, you have revealed the incarnation of your Son by the bright shining of a star, which the wise men saw and offered costly gifts on adoration; let the star of your justice always shine in our hearts, that we give as our treasure all that we are to you service, through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Gelasian Sacramentary 8th century)

Lord, teach me the silence of love, the silence of wisdom, the silence of humility, the silence of faith, the silence that speaks without words. O Saviour, teach me to silence my heart that I may listen to the gentle movement of the Holy Spirit within me and sense the depths which are God, today and always. Amen (Frankfurt, 16th century)

St Mark's Building Progress

The community Centre extension at St. Mark's is now nearing completion and we expect to be able to start using the building in the second week of February. We are delighted with the progress and the excellent work carried out by our builders Meadsway. We already have groups waiting to move into the new building and it is planned that six new groups will start in the first week of opening.

The Garden of Remembrance extension and new entrance will open at the same time and we look forward to being able to plant in the Spring.

Peter Beswick

Peter was born on the 6th of March 1936 in Eccles Manchester. He lived and grew up in nearby Worsley and attended Worsley Methodist Chapel with his family. He left school and joined the National Coal Board as a trainee miner, with 8 years full time underground experience, he was also part of the Fire and Mines Rescue Team.

After 6 years at Mining College, fully trained in all aspects of mining work, he took a senior post in the area offices as a Progress Engineer. During this time he met Gwen at a Christian Endeavour holiday home at Penmaenmawr, North Wales in 1955. They married in 1959 in Ilford and had two sons, Martin and Stephen.

In 1965 he realised the coal industry was on the wane, left to train as a Local Government Officer at Bedford which eventually led to him becoming a Principal Officer in the Personnel Department. He retired after 40 years combined service.

Their son Martin is married to Rebecca and their children are James and Sophie, Stephen is married to Naomi and their children are Hattie & Oliver. A devoted husband, father and granddad, he loved sport - an avid Manchester United supporter. Many happy memories include Father and Son camp, fishing trips and many happy family holidays. Peter loved his grandchildren dearly and was so very proud of their many achievements. His church activities included - Youth Club Leader, Society Steward (for 6 years, now called Leadership Team), Chairman of Family Committee, Welcome Steward, office duties, founder of Tiddler Trail Team, and Beetle Drives, were just a few of Peter's many church responsibilities.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Peter Beswick

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'

Rest in Peace

The funeral of Mr Ronald Karmen will take place at Bedford Crematorium at 2.30pm on Wednesday 24 January. Royden
