Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Pam Crouch in loving memory of her husband Jack and brother Tom.

The flowers in St Mark's Church this week are given by Rosemary and Colin McNeillage in celebration of their Golden Wedding.

Prayer for the Week

Judge eternal, bringer of justice, hear the cry of those who suffer under the
lash of heartless political oppression;
those who languish in prisons and labour
camps, untried or falsely condemned;
those whose bodies are shattered,
or whose minds are unhinged by torture or deprivation.

Meet them in their anguish and despair,
and kindle in them the light of hope,
that they may find rest in your love,
healing I your compassion
and faith in your mercy.

In the name of him who suffered, Jesus
Christ our Lord. Amen

Third Sunday after Epiphany

Opening Verse of Scripture - Ps 128 v 1

Blessed are all who fear the Lord,
who walk in His ways.

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading—Genesis 14 v 17 - 20

After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High, and he blessed Abram, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth. And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything (This is the Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading – Revelation 19 v 6 – 10

Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud peals of thunder, shouting: "Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.) Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!' " And he added, "These are the true words of God." At this I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me. "Do not do it! I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." (This is the Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading –John 2 v 1 - 11

On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine." "Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied, "My time has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet." They did so, and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now." This, the first of his miraculous signs, Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee. He thus revealed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him (This is the Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Morning Worship and Mission Praise)

1. Fill thou my life 146
2. I am a new creation 254
3. Christ, whose glory fills the skies 79
4. Take my life 624
5. O for a heart to praise my God 495

Commentary A New Beginning

The miracle of turning the water into wine at Cana is only reported in John's gospel where he places it at the beginning of Jesus' ministry. He says that it was the first of the seven signs performed by Jesus and through it He 'revealed His glory and His disciples put their faith in Him'. It's because of this revelation of His glory that the episode at Cana, together with the visit of the Magi and Christ's baptism, came to be associated with Epiphany. In the Middle Ages, the miracle at Cana and the revelation of Christ's glory there came to be celebrated by itself on the second Sunday after Epiphany. Water and wine are familiar elements to us today in our worship and resonate with the meaning of this story. Indeed in the service of Holy Communion many churches mix water and wine together in the chalice. This practice is not to dilute the wine, but is a symbol of the unity of the human and divine natures in the person of Christ. The miracle takes place on the third day. A relatively short time later there would be another third day. That day would see the ultimate power of God breaking through when heaven and earth intersected in a way that would change the history of the world for eternity. In the same way the transformation of the water into wine at the wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the transformation which is continually taking place in our own lives, are only a faint foretaste of the ultimate transformation which is still to come.

All of today's readings speak of a life changing transformational encounter with God. Abraham recognises Melchizedek as a 'priest of God most high' and immediately gives him a tenth of everything he owned (including all the possessions he had just reclaimed after defeating Kedorlaomer, the king who had carried off Lot and his family and goods, the action which had precipitated the battle). Melchizedek, in Hebrew malki-sedeq, which can be translated as 'Sedeq is my king', or '(The God) Melek is righteousness' is the King of Salem (or Jerusalem as it became known) is a mysterious and enigmatic figure. In Ps 110 v 4 a Davidic king is proclaimed by the Lord as a 'priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek'. As Jesus is from the house of David, the Davidic Messiah, it follows that He qualifies to be the priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. The priesthood of Melchizedek is different and distinct from the Aaronic priesthood of the Old Testament; it is continuous and eternal, it does not need a line of succession in the earthly manner in which the Aaronic priesthood does, it's not based on tribal alignment from the tribe of Judah, not Levi; Jesus would not have qualified as an Aaronic priest, and it is a royal priesthood. As Christians, a priesthood of all believers it is Christ Himself who is our great High Priest and it is Christ Himself who transforms our own lives as we encounter Him day by day. In the reading from John, the disciples witness the changing of water into wine and put their faith in Him. Jesus had revealed His glory and the disciples view of Jesus was changed forever. They would never be the same again. Their lives too had been transformed, just as much as the water when it was transformed into wine. In the reading from Revelation the believers had encountered God in a life changing way, despite persecution, social isolation and hardship.

What is sometimes overlooked in all of these encounters to the revelation of God's glory and transformation that God brings is the spontaneous response of worship and an expression of faith in the God who is revealed. Indeed, in the Psalms we read that we are created to praise and worship God. The purpose of turning water into wine is not so that any social embarrassment may be averted, but so that God's glory may be revealed. God did not send His Son Jesus so that He could be at our beck and call to make our lives easier or to do the things we want or expect Him to do, He is here for a much bigger task, to transform and redeem creation itself through the life changing revelation of His Father's glory to all creation. Perhaps we get an insight into Jesus' mother's understanding of this at the wedding in Cana. She reports to her Son that the wine has run out. She does not ask for Jesus to intervene with a specific solution but merely lays the situation before Him and then instructs the servants to, 'Do whatever He tells you'. We may never understand the full why, when and how the revelation of God's glory will take place. Perhaps it sometimes happens and we don't even recognise it for what it is. How often too are we all to willing to drink the fine wine that God through His grace has provided for us in our lives but fail to make the link to our response of thanks, praise and worship. In a world in which many must feel like the puzzled guests at the wedding at Cana in Galilee where the wine had run out and wonder what is happening our role is to help all people make sense of their lives and the world. Part of this is by laying our own situations and concerns before God in prayer and in so doing expose our world to the glory of God, revealed through the transforming presence and love of His Son, so that it can be transformed into His Kingdom on earth. Part too is to understanding our own role in doing whatever He tells us.

Sam Cappleman.

Meditation

Every year on 27 January, the world marks Holocaust Memorial Day. On Holocaust Memorial Day we share the memory of the millions who have been murdered in the Holocaust and subsequent genocides in Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur in order to challenge hatred and bigotry in our own society. As the Holocaust Memorial Day web site states, it's impossible for anyone who was not there to fully imagine what took place during the Holocaust or in subsequent genocides. But Holocaust Memorial Day is not simply about remembering. It is a time when we seek to learn the lessons of the past and to recognise that genocide does not just take place on its own, it's a steady process which can begin if discrimination, racism and hatred are not checked and prevented. In the UK we are not at risk of genocide. However, in communities and neighbourhoods hatred exists. Discrimination has not ended, nor has the use of the language of hatred or exclusion. All are equal in the sight of God, and as Christians we need to reflect and celebrate the equality of all people in God's creation and be prepared to speak out and take action when we see society fall away from God's standards and Christ's transforming power.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

As the beautiful, dew covered rose rises from amongst its thorns, so may my heart be so full of love for you my God, that I may rise above the storms and evils that assail me, and stand fast in trust and freedom of spirit. Amen. Hadewijch of Brabant - 13th Century

Almighty God, your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world. May your people shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped and obeyed to the ends of the earth; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Almighty God, you sent your Son to proclaim your kingdom and to teach with authority. Anoint us with the power of your Spirit, that we, too, may bring good news to the afflicted, bind up the broken hearted, and proclaim liberty to the captive; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

God of dawning light, hear our prayers today and give us the strength to put aside all cares and follow you in your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christ the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you, scatter the darkness from before your path, and make you ready to meet him when he comes in glory; and the blessing; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Prayers for Remembering the Holocaust

Lord, remember not only the men and women of goodwill, but also those of ill will. Do not remember all the sufferings they have inflicted upon us; remember the fruits we bear, thanks to this suffering – our comradeship, our loyalty, our humanity, courage, generosity, the greatness of heart which has grown out of all this. And when they come to judgement, let all the fruits that we have borne be their forgiveness.

A prayer found on a scrap of paper beside the body of a girl who died at Ravensbruck

Prayers said on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the death of Anne Frank: Reproduced with kind permission of the Anne Frank Educational Trust and the Council of Christians and Jews

Judge eternal, bringer of justice, hear the cry of those who suffer under the lash of heartless political oppression; those who languish in prisons and labour camps, untried or falsely condemned; those whose bodies are shattered, or whose minds are unhinged by torture or deprivation. Meet them in their anguish and despair, and kindle in them the light of hope, that they may find rest in your love, healing in your compassion and faith in your mercy. In the name of him who suffered, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

'Nothing that I can do will change the structure of the universe. But maybe, by raising my voice I can help the greatest of all causes - goodwill among men and peace on earth.' Albert Einstein, Scientist

First they came for the Communists
And I did not speak out
Because I was not a Communist
Then they came for the Socialists
And I did not speak out
Because I was not a Socialist
Then they came for the trade unionists
And I did not speak out
Because I was not a trade unionist
Then they came for the Jews
And I did not speak out
Because I was not a Jew
Then they came for me
And there was no one left
To speak out for me

Holocaust Memorial Day Commemorations Friday 27 January.

The first part of the commemoration event this year takes place around the Anne Frank Tree in Russell Park, between Pembroke and Bower Street at 12.30pm. After a short walk back to Borough Hall a second commemoration will commence at 1.30pm in the Council Chamber. Afterwards light refreshments will be served.

The theme for HMD 2012 (27 January) asks us all to Speak Up, Speak Out to create a safer, better future. To think about the rights, responsibility and duty we all have to speak up when we see or hear something which we believe to be wrong. It challenges us to learn about what happens when we don't speak out and what can happen when we do use our voice. HMD 2012 looks at how we make a choice when to speak up and considers the dangers in both choosing to speak out and not speaking up and asks us all to speak up against injustice and hatred today. Using the famous Niemoller poem as an inspiration, the theme asks us to speak up today.

This year for Lent we are looking at doing our Mission Plan. The Diocese has asked us to produce one and we will be using the opportunity of Lent. Sam is kindly heading this strategic piece of work and we will be using materials based on the diocesan website. It would be helpful for you to take a look at <http://www.livinggodslove.org/resources/resource/mission-action-planning>

We will be using three evenings during Lent to go through the stages Look, Listen, Plan, after Lent we will be looking at implementation ie Act

Look or Review - a time to Look and Listen, often called an audit. Getting into the community and looking beyond the local area to consider needs of the wider world, and as well considering the life and values of the church community.

Discern or Choose - out of the looking, a time to develop and articulate a vision, which will energise and unite the church. When the vision is owned, the priorities and goals flow naturally.

Plan - taking each of the goals and asking 'How?' Again a very prayerful approach is vital as people take on responsibility for specific actions, working to agreed dates.

Act - getting started. Keep praying and communicating together - recognise where modification may be necessary in the light of real experience. Celebrate achieved goals together!

There are also materials for homegroups to use during Lent and for personal prayer and Bible study.

We would like to stress that Mission Action Planning is not about looking for more things to do. It is about recognising who we are, what we do and where we see ourselves in the future. This might mean that we do some new things, however there is no expectation that we will do more. So if we decide to do something new, then we will be giving something else up! We cannot do everything and we already do so much. However it will be good to take some stock of where we are, a kind of audit and ask prayerfully what our strengths and weaknesses are. It should be something which we gain some satisfaction from as we reflect together on the life of our churches. Please speak to Sam if you have any questions !

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.

Rest in Peace

On Saturday morning we heard the sad news of the death of Pat Gregory. Pat was an extraordinary lady who lived a remarkable life, most recently she has shown great courage in facing her battle with cancer. Pat has been a long standing member of St Mark's Church where for many years she was a pastoral visitor. Details of her funeral will be published next week.
