Epiphany 3

Opening Sentence from Scripture

The LORD is my light and my salvation— whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life— of whom shall I be afraid? Psalm 27 v 1

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

Almighty God, who's Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Immediately they
and followed him

Old Testament Reading –Isaiah 9: 1-4

But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness – on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. (This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading –1 Corinthians 1: 10-18

I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, 'I belong to Paul,' or 'I belong to Apollos,' or 'I belong to Cephas,' or 'I belong to Christ.' Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else. For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power. For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God (This is the word of the Lord — All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading -Matthew 4:12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the lake, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: 'Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles – the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.' From that time Jesus began to proclaim, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.' As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the lake – for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.' Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people (Reader: This is the Word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer Almighty Father, whose Son Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of His glory, that he may be known, worshipped and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for He is alive and reigns, now and for ever

Hymns (Please distribute Mission Praise and morning worship)

1. Christ is made the sure foundation, 73 (Tune Westminster Abbey)
2. For I'm building a people of power, 151
3. Will you come and follow me, On Partnership News
4. May the mind of Christ my saviour, 463 (Tune St Leonard)
5. All my hope on God is founded, 16 (Tune Michael)

Meditation

Jesus' act of calling disciples would have been a common event in the Middle East. Usually, a person with a cause or grievance invites people to join him in promoting the cause or resolving the grievance. The disciples didn't quite understand Jesus' cause but they certainly followed Him. They must have believed it too, because they dropped everything to follow him. In unified groups there is strength. When people look at the Church and Christians today, how united do they see the people of God and Christ's disciples?

Unity in Christ

The Old Testament reading from Isaiah is very similar to the Christmas reading from this chapter. The verses about the birth of the Davidic king are dropped at the end, but the reading starts with the reference to "the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali" and "Galilee of the Gentiles. This passage is echoed in the gospel reading, where Matthew introduces it to mark the beginning of the Galilean ministry. Read on Christmas night, it relates to the nativity of Christ; it was then that light dawned in the darkness. Read now, it refers to the beginning of Jesus' ministry. His nativity and His ministry are intertwined; both are aspects of the single Christ-event, the coming of light into the darkness of the world. It is with His coming to Galilee and the launching of His proclamation that people began to become aware of the light that was shining.

As He went throughout Galilee, that light touched every aspect of people's lives and every aspect of society, He went through the region, 'teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people'. One of the aspects of the Bishop's initiative, 'Living God's Love', is about making disciples. As Jesus starts out in His ministry, He calls His disciples. From what we can tell, it would appear that there was not a great flurry of activity or multiple signs or miracles to attract attention to Himself or prove His credentials before Jesus called His disciples to follow Him. They did not seem to choose to follow Jesus because they were 'wowed' by witnessing acts of His supernatural activity or power, they followed Jesus merely because He called them and there was something in that call which was deeply attractive, attractive enough for men who had regular jobs and employment to drop everything and follow Him. At the most, all the disciples would have experienced of Jesus would be to have heard Him preach a few times. And yet, they chose to follow Him and become a group of people who would be united with Him in spreading the good news. People such as Simon-Peter, Andrew, James and John. Fishermen, not individuals known as great speakers or charismatic leaders, but everyday people who heard the call of Jesus and responded.

At this early stage of ministry they were probably very unclear what following Jesus would mean, but they stepped out in faith, left their security behind and followed Him. And throughout his ministry we know that the disciples often talked to each other, trying to work out what a particular parable or action of Jesus signified. Frequently this is portrayed by commentators as a negative thing, as if the disciples were grumbling about what they had got themselves into, wondering why people didn't see things the way they did, and even questioning the concept of Jesus as the Messiah and His authority. But this isn't the case. Often they were more concerned with understanding the significance of something Jesus had said, trying to work out the implications of some of His actions and radical approach and access to His Father God.

When we are following Christ, God does not mind if we have questions, does not mind if we don't always understand what is happening and why things are the way they are in the world. He wants us, as spiritual descendants of those first disciples, to follow in their footsteps, faithfully following Him as best as we are able with our imperfect understanding of Him and His ways. The uniqueness of the Christian faith is that it is dependent on the uniqueness of Christ, not on a perfect knowledge or understanding of God. And in that uniqueness there is absolute unity, based on the unshakable truths of the gospel message. A unity that Paul was keen to stress to the Corinthian Church. We may express our Christian faith in different ways, but as Christians we are all uniquely united in Christ. Our challenge is to live out that unity every day. Sam Cappleman

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

As the beautiful, dew covered rose rises from amongst its thorns, so may my heart be so full of love for you my God, that I may rise above the storms and evils that assail me, and stand fast in trust and freedom of spirit. Amen. Hadewijch of Brabant - 13th Century

Almighty God, you sent your Son to proclaim your kingdom and to teach with authority. Anoint us with the power of your Spirit, that we, too, may bring good news to the afflicted, bind up the broken hearted, and proclaim liberty to the captive; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

God of dawning light, hear our prayers today and give us the strength to put aside all cares and follow you in your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christ the Son of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always. Amen

But now, this is what the LORD says—he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. Isaiah 43:1

The ship called "The Queen Mary" was one of the finest of British ships. Shortly before the ship's launch in 1934, Sir Thomas Royden, one of the directors of the shipping company, Cunard, met King George V (the 5th), intending to ask his permission to name the new ship "The Queen Victoria". Royden asked the king if the ship could be named "after the greatest queen this country has ever known." King George, presuming the words were being said of his wife (Queen Mary), said: "That is the greatest compliment ever paid to my wife. I'll ask her if your ship may be named after her." It was only years later that the shipping company mentioned that it had been intending to call the ship "The Queen Victoria" ! There is always a great ceremony when ships are named, and a bottle is broken on the bow of the ship. We celebrate when people are given their name at the time of baptism (christening). If someone is not bothered to call people by their name, it might reflect a lack of care and respect. We know that Adolf Hitler's father never called him by his name, but whistled for him (like for a dog) whenever he wanted him. In some countries, prisoners are called by numbers rather than by their names as a way of de-humanising them, of taking away their individuality.

God our Father, you call each of us by name, and you treasure each of us individually as though no-one else exists. Inspire us to respect and value each person who comes into our lives this day. Amen

A Holocaust Memorial Day Commemoration will take place at Biddenham International School, at 6pm, on 27 January 2011. This year's moving event will carry the theme of 'Untold Stories' from this period. The date, 27 January, was chosen for the Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) as it was on this date in 1945 that the largest Nazi killing camp Auschwitz-Birkenau was liberated.

A Hymn for Sunday

- 1 Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown,
in you and you in me?
- 2 Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?
- 3 Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?
- 4 Will you love the 'you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?
- 5 Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity We are very privileged indeed this year in Bedford, for we have managed to get the General Secretary of the Methodist Church, the Rev. Dr Martyn Atkins as our preacher at the Bedford-Wide United Service. It will be held at the Salvation Army Citadel in Commercial Road on Sunday 23 January at 6.30pm. This service provides a wonderful opportunity to meet and worship with Christians from other denominations from all over the town. In addition, short lunchtime services are being held during the week at the following venues;
 24 January - St. John's, St John's Street
 25 January - University of Bedfordshire, Polhill Ave
 All the services start at 12.30pm, and last about 20 minutes. Tea/coffee will be provided after each of the services and you are encouraged to stay, bringing your own sandwiches if you wish. These services, too, provide an excellent opportunity to have a chat with other Bedford Christians.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
