Prayer for Sunday

"Open wide the window of our spirits, O Lord, and fill us full of light; open wide the door of our hearts, that we may receive and entertain you with all our powers of adoration and love." Christina Rossetti (1830-1894), English poet

Eternal God, in Christ you make yourself our guest. Amid all our cares and concerns make us attentive to your voice and alert to your presence, that we may prize your word above all else; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, you are the light of the minds that know you, the life of the souls that love you, and the strength of the wills that serve you; help us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whom to serve is perfect freedom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Augustine of Hippo (354-430)

Verse of Scripture - (Ephesians 3, 18-19)
May you, in company with all God's people, be strong to grasp what is the breadth and length and height and depth of Christ's love.

A Collect Prayer -
Before we read we pray

Grant us Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those things which last for ever. Amen.

Methodist Worship

I will bring them back to their pasture..

First Bible Reading - Jeremiah 23: 1-6

"Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!" declares the LORD. Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: "Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done," declares the LORD. "I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number. I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing," declares the LORD. "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will raise up to David a righteous Branch, a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. This is the name by which he will be called: The LORD Our Righteousness.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Ephesians 2: 11-22

Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "the circumcision" (that done in the body by the hands of men)- remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new man out of the two, thus making peace, and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit. Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Mark 6: 30-34, 53-56

The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest." So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things. When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside—they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed. Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Commentary

Jesus and the disciples would have had have reason to be annoyed in our reading today. Jesus had sent the disciples out (6:7) to preach, teach and heal. The disciples had just got back from this exhausting ministry and understandably they would have wanted to speak with Jesus about what had happened. They would also be more than ready for a well deserved rest and something to eat. However, it was so busy with people all around, that Jesus decided to take them somewhere quiet. Jesus has compassion for these weary disciples who have toiled as "apostles"--"ones sent." Jesus knows that for them to keep their perspective, enthusiasm for mission, energy to preach, teach and heal, they must, do as he says and "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile." If we need one, then that must be an excuse for all of us to have a break from time to time, we all need time for renewal.

So they rowed to a quiet place and when they get there the crowd has already seen where they are going and forms a welcome party. Mark doesn't tell us how the disciples respond, we can perhaps guess how we would have felt, but Jesus has compassion on the crowd, because he said that they were "like sheep without a shepherd" (v. 34). Jesus was not a soft touch for everyone, but for people in need he always had time and compassion.

In Numbers 27:15-18 we read

Moses said to the LORD, "May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint a man over this community to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so the Lord's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd." So the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand on him.

Surely these words in Mark's Gospel "sheep without a shepherd" would have reminded people of Moses' request for God to appoint someone to succeed him as leader of the people. God chose Joshua, the name means 'YHWH (God) is Salvation.' The Greek form of that name, 'Iesous', is known to us as Jesus. All of this would not be lost on the reader of Mark's Gospel. The words, "sheep without a shepherd" clearly form a rebuke on the religious leaders of Jesus' day, who have failed in their shepherd role. It was because of this failure that a special shepherd was needed, one who cared for the sheep more than simply thinking of his own needs, that shepherd was Jesus.

Our reading from Jeremiah sees God's promise "...I will raise up a righteous shoot to David." God promises not to abandon his people and those promises are fulfilled in Jesus. Jesus is the fulfilment of all the expectations of the people and all the promises of God, for a shepherd who was worthy of the name. Indeed, in Jesus, God provided the ultimate in the caring shepherd, one who would be willing to lay down his life for the sheep. Charles Royden

Meditation

"God promises his people that he will give them shepherds that will truly guide them in the ways of peace, justice and liberty. And although we usually divide up the roles, making some pastors and others sheep, We must admit that we must all be loving pastors of all. Do I recognize my responsibility for the fate of my brothers and sisters? Do I feel responsible for their lives, their peace, their happiness, or do I always leave the welfare of others to someone else?"

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Lord, be merciful to your people. Fill us with your gifts and make us always eager to serve you in faith, hope, and love. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

As the deer pants for the water

As the deer pants for the water,
so my soul longs after You.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship You.
You alone are my strength, my shield,
to You alone may my spirit yield.
You alone are my heart's desire
and I long to worship You.

I want You more than gold or silver,
only You can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy-giver
and the apple of my eye.
Chorus

You're my Friend and You're my Brother,
even though You are a king.
I love You more than any other,
so much more than anything.
Chorus

Come on and celebrate

Come on and celebrate
His gift of love, we will celebrate
The Son of God who loved us
And gave us life.
We'll shout Your praise, O King,
You give us joy nothing else can bring,
We'll give to You our offering
In celebration praise.

Come on and celebrate,
Celebrate,
Celebrate and sing,
Celebrate and sing to the King.
Come on and celebrate,
Celebrate,
Celebrate and sing,
Celebrate and sing to the King

Support Woodland Burial. You can make a difference You may have seen in the Times and Citizen a positive article relating to the application for a woodland burial site at Keysoe made by St Mark's Church. It is most important that this application receives fair treatment by the planning department and is not derailed by malicious gossip or a lack of understanding. It would be greatly appreciated if people were able to give support to the application by writing to the planning department stressing how important such a place of burial would be to the Christian community in Bedford

Glen Longden and Family Acknowledgements

Glen Longden and family wish to thank our many friends at Putnoe Heights and St Mark's for their messages of love and support following our recent tragic loss of Kathie.

The depth of intensity expressed in such quantity by all writers on such a delicate subject has been very touching.

The ability to make individual replies would be a mountainous task for me. Therefore, our friends, please accept these public thanks for your many messages of love and support which are greatly appreciated.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Kathleen Longden
Richard Warnett

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
