The flowers at the back of the church have been given by Vera Tippet to thank her family, especially for help with her move.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Gracious God, let the light of your face shine upon us. Let your peace rule in our hearts, your strength be our song and your grace be sufficient for our need. Prepare us for the events of each day that we may take up our cross and follow in the steps of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Matthew Henry, 1662-1714

Opening Verses of Scripture - Romans 11

O, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out! "Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counsellor?" "Who has ever given to God, that God should repay him?" For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.

Collect Prayer for the Day — Before we read we pray

Almighty God, whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence: give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven Matt 16:19

First Bible Reading - Exodus 1: 8– 2:10

Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt. "Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become much too numerous for us. Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country." So they put slave masters over them to oppress them with forced labor, and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites and worked them ruthlessly. They made their lives bitter with hard labor in brick and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their hard labor the Egyptians used them ruthlessly. The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah, "When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the delivery stool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live." The midwives, however, feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do; they let the boys live. Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?" The midwives answered Pharaoh, "Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive." So God was kind to the midwives and the people increased and became even more numerous. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own. Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: "Every boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live." Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months. But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile. His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him. Then Pharaoh's daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the river bank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to get it. She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said. Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?" "Yes, go," she answered. And the girl went and got the baby's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the baby and nursed him. When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, "I drew him out of the water."

Second Reading - Romans 12: 1-8

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man's gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully. (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading Matthew 16: 13-20

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ the Son of the living God." Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ. (This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator, you feed your children with the true manna, the living bread from heaven: let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary

Today's Gospel reading is one of the outstanding passages in the New Testament where Peter confesses that Jesus is 'The Christ, the Son of God', and so thereby establishes himself as the Apostle who would lead the Church after our Lord ascended to heaven.

When Jesus said 'I will build my Church' He did not mean buildings, such as the one on the corner of Avon Drive/Calder Rise, but a gathering of people who will meet regularly and engage in faithful worships of Him, and follow His teaching in their daily lives. Being a Christian does not merely mean someone who is either not an atheist or a member of another faith, it is someone who has a commitment to Christ Himself, and the Church.

We live in a country which owes so much to the Christian Church. Our hospitals, education system and social services all owe their origin, and were built on a foundation, laid by the Church. It has a highly honourable history of service to the poor and downtrodden in our cities and towns and has so much to be proud of. Yet politicians introduce legislation which offends Christians and forces it upon them by law, then with intellectual influence in our schools, colleges and universities, does all it can to eradicate Christianity from peoples minds.

The massive increase in crime and violence, coupled with the becoming of murder as a daily crime, and the breakdown of social behaviour, all coincide with the decrease of Christian influence.

When you read of the decrease of numbers attending Christian Churches, first remember it is not all about numbers, but in addition, consider the vast growth in the Church in the Southern Hemisphere, in Asia, Africa, and South America and most significantly in China where a Communist government believes in permitting Christianity as it creates a positive power for a harmonious society and workers will work in a more relaxed and satisfied way. But is not all doom in the United Kingdom either, there are still Churches attracting huge congregations within this country.

In a few weeks time one Sunday is devoted to the theme of 'Back to Church Sunday' right across the nation. We should pray there will be a very good response and that people will use the opportunity to demonstrate their support for the Church, the rejection of the evil and all that is spoiling our society. It is a chance to show that they have a desire to have a Christian nation based on Christian principles. Pray especially for our Churches here at St, Mark's and Putnoe Heights.

If we are not as strong in this country as we would want it to be, perhaps we ought to be listening carefully to the word of our Lord. Jesus said, 'I will build my Church'. Builders invariably make covenants on their property. When Jesus built His Church He laid down covenants in the form of His teaching in the New Testament as to how we are to conduct our lives, with unequivocal precepts and doctrine.

Sadly, there are those, a minority within the Church, (but with an excessive influence,) who want to change teaching and tradition to meet their own ambitions and desires, irrespective of the wider effect it will have on the Church at large. Often within a family sacrifices have to be made for the general unity of keeping the family together, and the same applies to the Church family. The vital issue is to keep the unity of the Church together even at personal sacrifice.

If you should read or hear words coming from the television or press, as is common, (even perhaps within the Church) that you need not take the Bible too seriously as we are now in the 21st century and we have to adopt to the culture of the day, I beg you in the name of Jesus Christ, do not accept them. If people wish to reject the Bible that is for them to decide, but it cannot be watered down to suit or passed off as not applying to today. Listen instead to the words of Jesus Himself, who said, 'the Scriptures cannot be broken'. In other words, they do not have an expiry date. Rev Eric Royden

Meditation

Imagine you are sitting on a jury to try a man accused of breaking into a shop. A solicitor represents the prosecution and is there to obtain a conviction. The accused man pleads not guilty and denies the charge completely. A policeman gives evidence that he saw the man coming from the shop where the door had been forced carrying a television set and that the accused had made a full confession.

Surprisingly the prosecutor then addresses the jury and tells them that the case is weak because the policeman might have only imagined that he saw the man leaving the shop and that he finds the confession unconvincing. Would you find the man guilty? Probably not !

Now imagine you are someone who has just been given a Bible to read and decide to go to a Church looking for spiritual guidance. You hear the preacher say, 'You don't have to take all that is written in the Bible too literally, times have changed and we are in the 21st century'. Would you be interested in coming again? Rev Eric Royden

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Heavenly Father, may your Holy Spirit lead the rich nations to support the poor, and the strong nations to support the weak; so that every nation may develop in its own way, and work together with other nations in true partnership for the promotion of peace and the good of all people, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Diocese of Melanesia

O God, whose Son Jesus Christ cared for the welfare of everyone and went about doing good; grant us the imagination and perseverance to create in this country and throughout the world a just and loving society for the human family, and make us agents of your compassion to the suffering, the persecuted and the oppressed, through the Spirit of your Son, who shared the sufferings of men, our pattern and our redeemer, Jesus Christ. Norwich Cathedral

God, we know that every person is your beloved child. When anyone suffers, you suffer also. may we have the courage to bring equality among people, so that your life, as well as ours, is free from the pain of injustice. Amen. John W. Riggs

O Lord, vouchsafe to look mercifully upon us, and grant that we may ever choose the way of peace. Sarum Missal us on a walk on Sunday 31 August in the Leighton Buzzard area. It is a pleasant and varied walk alongside the river Ouzel and the Grand Union Canal. Distance approximately 4 miles consists of some road/pavement walking, sandy paths, a stretch in grassy fields where there may be some (mainly avoidable) mud after rain, and finishing on a stretch of gravel/surfaced canal tow path. There is only one stile to climb. Meet at 2.30pm in the car park of Tesco's in Leighton Buzzard. Enter the parking area by passing Tesco's petrol station on your right and head for the area marked by a green sign welcoming you to Homebase – we will be in this part of the car park, which is shared by Tesco's and Homebase. Do not use the part of the car park on the left as you enter the complex as this has a barrier which may be closed when we return. We have a mobile phone with us, 07710 520674. Alison and Warwick Holden, tel 01234 403551

A Hymn for Sunday

Joyful, joyful, we adore Thee,
 God of glory, Lord of love;
 Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee,
 opening to the sun above.
 Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
 drive the dark of doubt away;
 Giver of immortal gladness,
 fill us with the light of day!

All Thy works with joy surround Thee,
 earth and heaven reflect Thy rays,
 Stars and angels sing around Thee,
 center of unbroken praise.
 Field and forest, vale and mountain,
 flowery meadow, flashing sea,
 Singing bird and flowing fountain
 call us to rejoice in Thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving,
 ever blessing, ever blessed,
 Wellspring of the joy of living,
 ocean depth of happy rest!
 Thou our Father, Christ our Brother,
 all who live in love are Thine;
 Teach us how to love each other,
 lift us to the joy divine.

Mortals, join the happy chorus,
 which the morning stars began;
 Father love is reigning o'er us,
 brother love binds man to man.
 Ever singing, march we onward,
 victors in the midst of strife,
 Joyful music leads us Sunward
 in the triumph song of life.
 (Tune Ode to Joy(MP600))

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Mary Elizabeth Roberts
 Mrs Gladys Mary Inskip

'May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
