Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Veta Hudson-Rae to celebrate her birthday and the birthday of her grandson Samuel.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Welcome

A special welcome to St Mark's this week to Lily Ann Stewart , her family and friends who have come to celebrate her baptism.

Prayer for the Week

God of our salvation,
we falter before the demands of your word
and turn away from your call to life.
Pour out your mercy on us
as you showed mercy to your people of old,
that we may turn from our sinfulness
and walk the path of self-emptying love make known in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Opening Verse of Scripture - Philippians 2

Value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of others.

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

Father of all, you gave your only Son, to take upon himself the form of a servant and to be obedient even to death on a cross. Give us the same mind that was in Christ Jesus that, sharing in his humility, we may come to be with him in his glory; for he lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Exodus 17: 1-7

The whole Israelite community set out from the Desert of Sin, travelling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. So they quarrelled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?" But the people were thirsty for water there, and they grumbled against Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?" Then Moses cried out to the LORD, "What am I to do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me." The LORD answered Moses, "Go out in front of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. And he called the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarrelled and because they tested the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?" (This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Reading Philippians 2: 1-13

Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death— even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed— not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfil his good purpose. (This is the Word of the Lord — All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Matthew 21: 23-32

Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave you this authority?" Jesus replied, "I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. John's baptism—where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or of human origin?" They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin'—we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Then he said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. "What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.' "I will not,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went. "Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go. "Which of the two did what his father wanted?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him. (This is the Word of the Lord — All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Morning Worship, Baptism booklet and Hymns and Praise)

2. At the name of Jesus 74

Commentary

The reading from Matthew today describes the discussion between the Jewish leaders and Jesus following the incident which we often call the "Cleansing of the Temple." This is the only violent act which is attributed to Jesus in the whole of his ministry and it occurs in all four gospels. Matthew, Mark and Luke place the story at the end of Jesus's ministry, after his triumphal entry and before the parable of the tenants. John places the story at the very beginning of his gospel. Clearly, chronology is not as important to the Gospel writers as the fact that Jesus actually did this disturbing thing.

Jesus makes this violent and extreme response towards the scene of seeing people selling cattle, sheep and doves to the pilgrims who needed them to make their obligatory sacrifices. You will remember that Mary and Joseph took Jesus to the temple and made a sacrifice following his birth (Luke 2:22). I would like to think that Jesus was affronted by the very concept of killing animals in order to assuage human guilt. Indeed Jesus does speak of the destruction of the temple and it being rebuilt in three days, an allusion perhaps to the end of temple worship and his death and resurrection. However there is clearly more going on here as Jesus has described the temple as a 'den of robbers'.

We need to appreciate the temple economy, pilgrims visiting the temple from far and wide were obliged to exchange their Roman currency into Jewish money in order to pay the temple tax in the proper coinage. The money-changers changed Roman money into Temple money since Roman coins, with their idolatrous images of the Emperor, could not be carried into the Temple. The money-changers charged an exchange fee of roughly 50%, two Roman coins earned one of Temple money in return. Surely this was an abuse of power an exploitation which would have upset Jesus. The sacrifices themselves were also a way of abstracting more money from the poor worshipper. Doves were a suitable sacrifice for those who could not afford to offer sheep, however even these low-cost options carried a significant mark-up in price. Later in the first century, the son of Rabbi Gamaliel would lead a successful protest against the exorbitant mark-up on sacrificial doves.

We should expect Jesus to react with anger on behalf of the poor who were being ripped off by the Temple which had a complete monopoly on God's forgiveness. We should not be surprised that he would have to do something dramatic to gain attention in the midst of the Temple, full of noises, human crowds and animals. To make an impression Jesus uses a whip, he chases the animals from the temple, scattered the coffers of the money changers, and overturned their tables: "How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!"

Jesus rejects the fraud, exploitation and avarice of the religious authorities who control the means of ritual purity. However the passage today does give us an insight into some more of Jesus thoughts. Jesus is asked by the Jewish authorities to justify his actions and explain what authority he had to show such an extreme reaction against the temple trade. In good rabbinical style Jesus answers a question with another question 'Was John's baptism divine or merely human? This trapped the temple teachers. If they said it was merely human, they feared reprisals from the crowds. And if they admitted that John's baptism was from God, then they had no excuse for not accepting it and repenting. They were caught between fear and disobedience. Jesus is excused answering their question as they refuse to answer his. Then Jesus tells a story. A lazy son refused to work but then changed his mind and obeyed his father's request. His brother did the opposite: he promised to work but then didn't. Jesus asks, 'which is worse?'. The answer is simple, since breach of a promise was worse than never having promised in the first place. The son had violated his word.

In this illustration Jesus is comparing the temple authorities to the latter son, for they had made bold claims but showed no obedience. Tax collectors and prostitutes on the other hand had never made bold religious promises, yet they nevertheless believed John's message of invitation and indictment and they would therefore enter the kingdom of God. Jesus is really very abusive towards the chief priests and elders who have come to talk to him. He chooses to make them subordinate even to prostitutes and tax collectors, the people that the religious leaders looked down on, people they hated and persecuted. Jesus chooses these groups to make the strongest point.

There is a message for us, Jesus wants us to live out our faith in words and deed, saying the right words matters for nothing. We need to stop judging others and instead make it our goal to do God's will here and now, to live out lives of peace and justice. We have only to look to Jesus to find out how we should behave. His was a life of forgiving people who hurt him, caring for others in need - like the hungry and homeless. As St Paul says in the letter to the Philippians, we have to put on the mind of Christ and have the attitude of Christ, and love humanity as much as Christ does. We are to be a people who love our enemies, because that is what Jesus did and that is the will of God for us.

Jesus was constantly confronted by the pious who were demonstrative in claiming to serve God by their strict observance of religious rules. Yet, Jesus criticized them for their lack of compassion for those they oppressed by their strict interpretation of their religion. He accused them of putting burdens on the shoulders of others while being unwilling to lift a finger to help them. So Jesus reserved the strongest criticism of all for the religious leaders and called them hypocrites. These were people who has lost touch with what religion was really all about. Jesus has launched an attack on the Temple's financial base and the ruling families who ran it. Jesus has again aligned himself in the popular mind with John the Baptist. He reminds the crowd that he and the Baptist had much in common. Jesus presents himself on the side of the popular martyred hero, and in opposition to the ruling circles which killed him, inevitably Jesus was now set to meet the same fate. Charles Royden

Meditation

We all know that actions speak louder than words. The gospel passage today warns us not to tamper with religion unless we are prepared to try and honestly live the things we speak and pray about. If we claim to be followers of Jesus then we are expected to prove it with actions, not pious words. Just because we say we are Christians does not entitle us to appreciation by God. Those who have no religious motivation are often more compassionate, forgiving and less judgemental. In his beautiful letter today, Paul prays that the Christian community will be loving and filled with compassionate people determined to serve one another's needs. We are all called to make that prayer a reality in the loving ways we care for others. Actions speak louder than words, because words do not cost anything. Actions demand that we give a part of ourselves, our time, energy, resources. Charles Royden

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Lord, you know our hearts.

No matter what act we put on in public, you know what we are really like.

No matter how hard we try to appear perfect to the outside world, you know the truth about us – for you made us and you love us.

And Lord, if we are honest, we know the truth about ourselves too. We know that we are selfish, proud, stubborn. We say things without thinking. We turn away when others need our help. Lord, in the things we do and in the things we fail to do, we fall short of your ways so often.

Forgive us, Lord, when we feel self-righteous, when we think we are better than others, when we are full of our own importance. Forgive us when we get complacent and ignore our own faults, yet are quick to see the faults in those around us.

Lord, you made us out of love, you made us to be free to choose your way of love. Time and time again you offer us the chance to start anew. Your love for us is unconditional and you long for us to share that love in our lives.

We know that in our own strength we can't really change, so we come to you. Lord, grant us the humility to accept our weaknesses and the courage to let you change us. Amen

Harvest

'A time to give thanks,
for things we take for granted'

Our Harvest this year will support BeCHaR.
(Bedford Concern for the Homeless and Rootless)

Every year at Harvest our churches gather together to give thanks for the many good things which we are able to enjoy. We thank God for the basics like food and water, and we also remember those who work hard to provide all the things we need.

To show our gratitude for how fortunate we are, we always use Harvest as an opportunity to raise funds and give towards a charity. This year we are remembering the most vulnerable and homeless in our own community, those who haven't even got a roof over their heads,.

Our chosen charity is BeCHaR (Bedford Concern for the Homeless and Rootless) a local Bedford charity based in Prebend Street Day Centre. They desperately need funds and resources. They need things like tins of food to feed the hungry, they also need our financial support. Please come and join us for harvest, give thanks for what we have and remember those who have nothing.

Over the next few weeks please drop off any tins or gifts for BeCHaR at the churches in the foyer. These will then be taken to BeCHaR. For more information about BeCHaR call our church offices or visit the website www.prebendcentre.org.uk

St. Mark's Church Council Next meeting will be held on Wednesday 12 October in the chapel, 7.30pm for 7.45pm.

Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Appeal Choosing gifts to put in a shoebox is a really fun part of getting involved in Operation Christmas Child. There is something very rewarding about giving to a child you will probably never meet in this world – especially when you know your simple act of kindness will be felt and appreciated in more ways than you can ever imagine. As the 2012 London Olympics are only just around the corner, the Samaritan's Purse has suggested that, to be a part of the Olympic spirit, this year's Operation Christmas Child campaign can have sports-themed shoeboxes. As well as giving us the chance to do something a bit different with our shoeboxes, this is also a chance to send sporty items out to needy children in our world – children who might otherwise not have the chance to experience the joy of sport for themselves. There is a full list of items that we can and cannot accept on the Children's and Youth notice board in the welcome area at Putnoe Heights. If you would prefer to make a monetary donation we do have some gift aid envelopes for your use. Each shoe box costs £2.50 to send. Empty shoeboxes will also be appreciated. We are starting to collect from 3rd October until 23rd October so please leave any donations in the office by Sunday 23rd October 2011 for our Children's and Youth groups to pack. Thank you. Carolyn and Emma.

A Hymn for Sunday (Mission Praise 880)

Lord, I come to you,
Let my heart be changed, renewed,
Flowing from the grace
That I found in You.
And Lord, I've come to know
The weaknesses I see in me
Will be stripped away
By the power of Your love.

Hold me close,
Let Your love surround me.
Bring me near, draw me to Your side.
And as I wait
I'll rise up like the eagle,
And I will soar with You,
Your Spirit leads me on
In the power of Your love.

Lord, unveil my eyes,
Let me see You face to face,
The knowledge of Your love
As You live in me.
Lord, renew my mind
As Your will unfolds in my life,
In living every day
By the power of Your love.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
