Thank You

The flowers at St Mark's Church this week have been given by Doreen Smart to say thank you to all my dear friends at St Mark's for the wonderful cards sent for my birthday. God bless you all. Doreen.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for This Week

Loving and Gracious God, take our minds and think through them, take our lips and speak through them, and set our hearts on fire with a greater love for you and your church, and its mission in the world, that of caring for those who cannot care for themselves. AMEN

Ordinary 26

Opening Sentence from Scripture

If you make the Most High your dwelling-- even the LORD, who is my refuge-- then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

Collect (Before we read we pray)

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Common Worship

Old Testament Reading - Amos 6: 1a,4-7

Woe to you who are complacent in Zion. You lie on beds inlaid with ivory and lounge on your couches. You dine on choice lambs and fattened calves. You strum away on your harps like David and improvise on musical instruments. You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph. Therefore you will be among the first to go into exile; your feasting and lounging will end.

(This is the word of the Lord -- All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading —1 Timothy 6: 6-19

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, who while testifying before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, which God will bring about in his own time--God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To him be honour and might forever. Amen. Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading Luke 16: 19-31

There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. "The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'

"But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.' "He answered, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house, for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.' "Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.' "No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' "He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

(This is the word of the Lord—All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God, you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymns for Sunday (Please distribute Morning Worship and Hymns and Psalms)

19 With gladness we worship (Tune St Denio)

343 God in his love for us

402 For the healing of the nations. (Tune Westminster Abbey Purcell)

Commentary

Through Luke we have been hearing Jesus speak about the dangers of money and once again today Jesus is speaking to the Pharisees, who were rich men about the dangers of wealth. The dangers of wealth are so important that one out of every seven passages in Luke is about money and wealth. We need to remember that 95% of people in Palestine at the time of Jesus were desperately poor. It was a huge social and economic problem and Jesus doesn't dodge the political challenge. The contrast which Jesus makes in Luke is so stark that it seems difficult to imagine these words on his lips

Blessed are you who are poor, 6:21., Woe to you who are rich 6:24., Blessed are you who are hungry 6:22., Woe to you who are well fed. 6:25

Today we have the story of Lazarus, which incorporates these blessings and curses. The rich man is dressed in purple and fine linen, both of these things indicate great wealth. Contrast this with poor Lazarus, who is reduced to a life of begging. He is not adorned in fine clothes rather the words used describe his skin covered in ulcerated sores, which would have made him unclean. His only companions are wild dogs. He is left at the gate of the rich man, the gate emphasising the size of the rich man's estate and the separation which exists between them. If Lazarus had received even the scraps from the rich man he would have perhaps survived, the gates allowed the rich man to shut out Lazarus and prevent the needs of Lazarus from becoming his concern. People build gates on their homes not because they want to be kept in, rather because they want to keep others out. They wish to remain protected from the world beyond. The gate is very symbolic and challenges us all to consider whether we are remote and isolated from the needs of our wider society. Every day the rich man would have gone past Lazarus, yet he might never have even noticed that he was there. How many times are we just too preoccupied with our own lives that we fail to notice those with great need?

Remember that we are not told in this parable that the rich man had done anything wrong. He was not necessarily somebody who had stolen, indulged in financial exploitation or whatever, his crime was simply one of indifference. Like us he failed to get angry at the plight of those who suffered and in this he created a wide gulf between himself and those in need. As our country suffers from the belt tightening exercises caused by our debt crisis, there will inevitably be those who suffer and often the burden falls disproportionately on the poor. Recently I visited Furniture Link in Bedford to learn about the invaluable work which they do in our community. I felt strongly that organisations such as this which provide a lifeline to those who have not got huge wealth will be increasingly important in the coming years.

We are told that Lazarus dies and the angels carry him to the bosom of Abraham. No doubt he would have had little ceremony at his passing, yet despite the manner of his funeral, he goes straight to "the bosom of Abraham." When the rich man dies he would undoubtedly receive a fine burial, but this is ineffective and he goes, to Hades, the place of the dead. Hades is a Greek term, like the Hebrew concept of the "underworld," or sheol. It brings to mind the understanding of the world in very primitive cosmology as the earth in the middle, heaven above and the underworld below.

This should not be read as story of heaven and hell, rather the fulfilment of the blessings and curses which we have read about in the beatitudes. The poor Lazarus goes not to heaven but to Abraham and is fed, the rich has the tables turned and is deprived. Jesus exhorts Lazarus by using his name, (which means 'the one God helps') the rich man in kept anonymous, as he were of less importance.

The rich man understandably pleaded with Abraham and calls him, 'Father Abraham'. We cannot read this without thinking back to Chapter 3:8-11 where John the Baptist berates those who claim to have Abraham as their father but fail to look after the poor. The rich man pleads for mercy but Abraham is unable to help because of the great divide between. The plea for mercy made by the rich man, echoes the lack of mercy which he had shown to poor Lazarus.

The story should not be read a theological exposition of what happens when you die, rather as a warning of how you should live. In scripture there are conflicting ideas represented about what happens when you die. In this story there is a choice of Abraham and Hades, whilst on the cross Jesus gives assurance of paradise on the same day, and in the New Testament there is also described a general resurrection of the dead when bodies are raised from sleep. Nobody knows what to expect, but the teaching is the same, prepare now in this life for what will take place in the next. Those who work to support groups like Furniture Link, Emmaus, Bechar etc. These people are wise, for Jesus himself encourages us to make friends with the poor so that when we die they will make representations on our behalf and allow us to have a heavenly home (16:9). I notice that this week in Partnership News there are requests for volunteers to help with Clubhouse at St Mark's for those with learning Difficulties and Prebend day Centre. The needs are endless. It has been said that if Hitler is saved it will be through the prayers of the people he killed. Who knows, if the rich man had been a better neighbour, would Lazarus have been able to shout out to Abraham to show mercy? Charles Royden

Meditation

The psalmist reminds us of the inseparable connection between loving God and caring for the poor. There are many reasons to care for the poor and the vulnerable, but our ultimate motivation is based in the character of God himself. In three short verses Psalm 146:7–9 reveals the tender action of God for people in trouble. Notice the different vulnerable groups of people mentioned:

He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

The Lord sets prisoners free,

the Lord gives sight to the blind,

the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down, the Lord loves the righteous.

The Lord watches over the alien and sustains the fatherless and the widow,

but he frustrates the way of the wicked.

A Prayer for Sunday and the week ahead

Anoint my eyes dear Lord Jesus to see those like Lazarus that live by my gate and know few of the blessings which I enjoy. Anoint dear Lord Jesus my hands that they may be used in your service to reach out and help those like Lazarus who call to me for help.

The Bandstand Marathon Sunday 26 September 2 -4pm, Mill Meadows, Bedford. It's that time of year again when Bedford takes part in the Cultural Olympiad Event, The Bandstand Marathon. We will be part of a national marathon when 100+ bands will be striking up in bandstands all over the country at the same time on the same date and we are the only bandstand in the whole of the county to be participating. This year we will have tea, coffee, cakes and pancakes available to make the day more enjoyable. So bring friends and family along to Mill Meadows and enjoy the concert performed by our nationally renowned Bedford Town Band. This year our invited guests helping to celebrate the Cultural Olympiad are from Special Schools, Children in Care, Youth Parliament, Foster Carers and Adult Services. The Mayor will be opening the concert saying a little about the services we have in our communities.

House Group September 2010 Wendy Waters will be holding a house group at 13 Farnham Way, Putnoe at 7.45 pm on Mondays: 27 September; 4, 18 and 25 October. We will use a 'York Course' entitled 'In the Wilderness'. These are very popular courses based on a CD which provides thought provoking input from Christians; on this course they include Rob Frost and Elaine Storkey. There is also a booklet which forms the basis of informal exploration and discussion. If you are interested in being part of the group or for more details please contact Wendy Waters on 401834.

Sankey Moody Evening at Putnoe Heights Church 31st October at 6.30pm. On this evening we will be remembering the meetings held by these two great evangelists and it is an opportunity to enjoy singing a collection of some old favourite hymns and songs. The BBC 'Songs of Praise' programme featured the music last year and was popular with listeners, so making it an attraction for everyone. We would like to form a small choir to lead the singing so as to help make the service more enjoyable, and Mike has kindly stated his willingness to hold a rehearsal beforehand. Please speak to either Mike (Puttock) or contact me, ericroyden@gmail.com, telephone 07722138410 Let us make this an enjoyable and memorable evening.

Volunteering Opportunity – St Mark's Clubhouse St Marks' Clubhouse is a project which provides social opportunities and training for adults with learning difficulties. The project is open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays between 9 am and 3 pm. We want to build up a bank of volunteers who would like to contribute to this valuable and rewarding project. Our volunteering opportunities offer the chance to work with a mixed group of people and we are looking for people of all ages and experience to help us with a range of tasks. This could be your chance to share your skills, make a difference to your community and learn more about life for people living with learning difficulties. If you (or anyone you know) would like to find out more please contact Delia Shephard on 07753 843446

Next Week Harvest Festival

Sunday 3 October

St Mark's Church at 9.30am
Putnoe Heights Church at 11.00am

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

John Kay

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.
