The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Liz Hayward in memory of her Mum, Olive Betts; and also by Maureen and Bill Headland who were married at Putnoe 40 years ago this week.

Prayer for the Week

O God, your eye is over all your people, and you have called them to a kingdom not of this world; send forth your Holy Spirit into every corner of our lives, to still and calm the noise of our daily toil; help us to carry faith to the doubting, hope to the fearful, strength to the weak, light to the mourners; and increase and empower the pure in heart who see, and reveal, more and more of God. Amen

Pentecost

Opening Verse of Scripture Acts 2:17-18

In the last days, God says, 'I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.'

Collect Prayer Before we read we pray

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by that same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

First Bible Reading Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine." Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

" 'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'"
(Reader: This is the Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently. In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord – All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading – John 15:26-27 & 16:4b-15

When the Counsellor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me. And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning.

I did not tell you this at first because I was with you. “Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counsellor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgement: in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; and in regard to judgement, because the prince of this world now stands condemned.

“I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

Commentary

This commentary is based on a lecture given by Cannon Dennis Stamps, on 22 May, to Bedford area Readers and Local Preachers entitled: ‘Life in the Spirit: Paul’s Distinctive contribution to Christian Theology’.

‘When considering Paul’s contribution to ‘Life in the Spirit’ we must bear in mind his own story, his dramatic conversion from fervent persecutor of, to fervent preacher of the Gospel. After his conversion

Saul, later to be known as Paul, disappears for a while before being integrated into the Church. We do well to consider how the first Christians, many of whom had first hand contact with Jesus, might have viewed Paul at this stage. Perhaps with suspicion of his motives bearing in mind his reputation, not dissimilar to how in recent times terrorists have infiltrated organisations only to later wreak injury and death upon them. How would they have known that Paul had really changed?

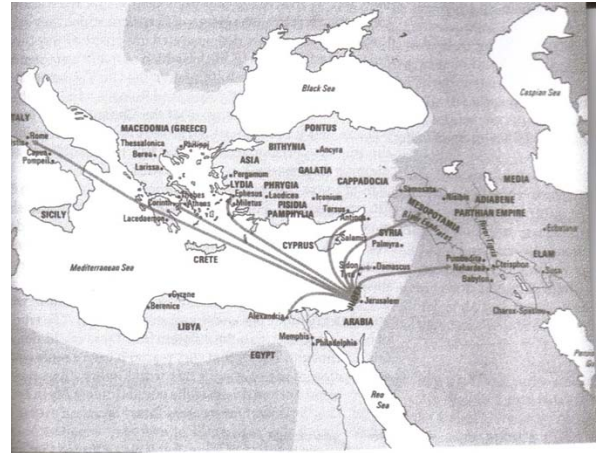

After what might be viewed as the ‘Antioch revival’ Barnabas sends for Paul to begin his public ministry as a missionary. Christianity begins to expand with the baptism of practising Jews. Paul then begins to wonder why those who follow Jesus’ teaching need to become Jewish and keep the Old Testament rules. He begins to tell non Jewish converts that they do not need to become Jewish and keep their rules. He is then called to Jerusalem to give an account of what he is saying (Acts 15). As a result some of the rules are amended e.g. Sabbath; some are partially stopped e.g. purity laws; some completely stopped e.g. circumcision of Gentiles.

During his second missionary journey Paul decides all that is necessary is for people to believe in Jesus, so he further explores how this fits with his past understanding of Jewish Law. He was faced with a dilemma of the old covenant which we see in the pages of the Old Testament and he developed his theology of justification by faith, not law (Gal 2:16).

The Jewish people had always believed in a covenant of grace, in that law was given to maintain the covenant not to establish it. So Paul is able to relate the theme of grace between the old and the new covenant. The new covenant is fulfilled in Christ and is open to all. (Acts 2:38, 1 Cor12:13,).

Paul also teaches that the gifts of the Spirit are there for the building up of the Body of Christ, not for our own personal benefit. The gifts are many and varied, see the variations in 1 Cor 12: 4 -11; Rom 12:4- 8; Eph 4: 1-16. In addition Paul teaches about principle of freedom of 'Life Controlled by the Spirit': 'Now the Lord is Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom' (2 Cor 3:17). This does not mean there are no boundaries but freedom guided by the Holy Spirit. His letters set out those boundaries. This idea of 'freedom' is open to all in those early days many slaves came to Christ, they were then equal with their masters (Eph 6: 5 -9). A new creation had begun, order had been disturbed for the good of all; all were to regard and respect one another; if one fails they are to be encouraged. The law of Christ is to be fulfilled by the law of love (Rom 13:8, Gal 6:2, 1 Cor. 13).' What a contribution and legacy has been left by Paul to 'Life in the Spirit!' Wendy Waters 15). As a result some of the rules are amended e.g. Sabbath; some are partially stopped e.g. purity laws; some stopped e.g. circumcision of Gentiles. During his second missionary journey Paul decides all that is necessary is for people to believe in Jesus so further explores how this fits with his past understanding of Jewish Law. He was faced with a dilemma of the OT and NT. From this he develops his theology of justification by faith, not law (Gal 2:16). Along with the OT perspective of the covenant of Grace, in that law was given to maintain the covenant not get it. In this way Paul re casts the OT covenant to the NT Covenant. Crucially, it being fulfilled in Christ, that this new covenant is open to all. (Acts 2:38, 1 Cor12:13,). Wendy Waters

Meditation

Simple in himself, the Spirit is manifold in his mighty works. The whole of his being is present to each individual; the whole of his being is present everywhere. Though shared in by many, he remains unchanged; his self-giving is no loss to himself. Like the sunshine, which permeates all the atmosphere, spreading over land and sea, and yet is enjoyed by each person as though it were for him alone, so the Spirit pours forth his grace in full measure, sufficient for all, and yet is present as though exclusively to everyone who can receive him. To all creatures that share in him he gives a delight limited only by their own nature, not by his ability to give. Basil the Great (392-379 AD)

Prayers for week ahead

Holy Spirit of God, on the day of Pentecost you came once for all to the Church as the gift of the exalted Lord. Come to us in your grace and power today to make Jesus real to us, teach us more about him, and to deepen our faith in him; that we may be changed into his likeness and be his witnesses in the world, to the glory of God the Father

Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost opened the way for the preaching of the gospel to people of every race and nation and tongue by the promised gift of the Holy Spirit: renew your Church in the power of the same Spirit, that its witness may reach to the ends of the earth, and all flesh may see your salvation revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord Jesus you were fully aware that we needed your Holy Spirit to enable us to fulfil your new commands to love one another, free from any form of inequality. Breath, we pray, your Spirit on us again so that we will be alert to discrimination within ourselves, our churches and our communities.

O Lord our heavenly Father, renew in us the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Increase our faith, strengthen our hope, enlarge our charity; and make us ever ready to serve you, both in body and soul, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayers for Pentecost Sunday

For Pentecost

Holy Spirit, you worked in the hearts and lives of the first disciples at Pentecost. You took their weak and frail wills and you transformed them into a people who trusted in your promises of life. Men and women who feared to belong to Jesus were willing even to give of their lives in service. So come Holy Spirit and warm our spirits with the power of God's love, that we might follow the example of service which has been set out before us by the saints who have gone before us. We pray that our own lives would be an example of your grace, that many would be brought to know Jesus as Saviour and Lord. Amen

For our lives

Lord Jesus, you spent time in the wilderness choosing the pattern of life which you would follow. You agonised in the Garden of Gethsemane because you knew the pain of choosing the way of the cross. So be with us as we face choices in our lives. May we never be motivated by self-interest, help us to look outwards at the difficulties of those less fortunate than ourselves. Forgive us when we pretend that there is nothing which we can do and help us to see those who need our help. We remember the lonely, the sick and the isolated in our community. Those who would value our time if we volunteered to work with the disadvantaged, the weak and the homeless. We give thank for all of those who give of themselves in our community to work alongside children and families, young people, those with disabilities and the many charities and community groups based in our own church centres. Amen

For our armed forces

Heavenly Father, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women in our Armed Forces at home and abroad. Stretch forth your mighty arm to defend them day by day with your heavenly grace. Strengthen them in their trials and temptations and give them courage to face the perils that beset them. Support them in times of conflict, and in their rest and training keep them safe from all evil. Endue them with courage and loyalty; and grant that in all things they may serve without reproach; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For our world

Lord God, you sustain all creation and every life is dear to you whatever race, religion colour or other mark which causes us to distinguish among ourselves. We pray for your children everywhere, remembering especially those in danger or suffering. We pray for all who yield authority, the dictators, the elected leaders, those who hold power by terror and wickedness. May the proud be brought low and those who seek wisdom be empowered to lead. we ask for your hand to be upon all who seek justice and peace, that the needy not might not be forgotten nor the hope of the poor be taken away. Strengthen your people that they might be instruments of peace and may your glory be over all the earth. Amen

For the dying

Lord God, your creative love gave us life, and your arms enfold us in our death. Surround all who face death with your loving embrace, that the might know the strength of your compassion and knowledge of your fatherly goodness. Amen

For the bereaved

Lord Jesus, you wept at the grave of Lazarus your friend and felt the deep loss of parting from those you loved. Surround also all those who mourn this day. You share our mourning and walk with us along the road of bereavement. So comforted by your presence with us, may we know never be overwhelmed by grief. In our affliction may we grow in faith and trust in your promise of life beyond the time and tears of this world. Amen

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
