Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by John and Janet Smith to mark their 35th wedding anniversary

The flowers at St Mark's Church this week have been given by Mary Hill in memory of her husband Rex, and Florence Hulatt in memory of family members.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for the Week

My Father, how blind and deaf I am – to miss your voice as you speak within my own being! You call to me in my restlessness and discontent, You guide me by my own confusion....out of myself into you.

Keep me faithful while I grope my way along – as one who searches blindly along a wall – until I understand that there is a door... always open. And the door is you. Amen

Ordinary 22

Introduction

Being a follower of Jesus has rewards, there is no doubt that there can be no greater promise made by Jesus than his assurance that we are loved by God for ever, even beyond death. But Jesus wants his followers to know that the realisation of this love brings with it responsibility. In our relationships we know that we cannot take somebody for granted just because they love us. Indeed a real relationship should mean total commitment and a willingness to give everything to the one we love. So it is that Jesus tells his disciples they must be totally committed to him. It is no good professing dedication and being half hearted. This meant that his disciples would have to be prepared to openly stand up for Jesus and be prepared to take consequences. At the time that meant the probability of persecution and quite possibly death. How deep is our commitment ? Would you be prepared to give everything for Jesus ?

If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Matthew 16.24

Opening Verse of Scripture - Psalm 105

Praise the LORD and pray in his name! Tell everyone what he has done. Sing praises to the LORD! Tell about his miracles. Celebrate and worship his holy name with all your heart.

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

God of all creation, you call all peoples of the earth into your kingdom. Grant that we, with young and old of all nations, may boldly confess Jesus Christ as Lord; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and praise, now and forever. Amen Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading -Exodus 3: 1-15

Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. So Moses thought, "I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up." When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, "Moses! Moses!" And Moses said, "Here I am." "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground." Then he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob." At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God. The LORD said, "I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering. So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" And God said, "I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain." Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' Then what shall I tell them?" God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: 'I AM has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'The LORD the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.' "This is my name forever, the name you shall call me from generation to generation.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Romans 12:9-21

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honour one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with God's people who are in need. Practice hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited. Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Matthew 16: 21-28

From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to you!" Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it. What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father's glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done. I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom .

(This is the Word of the Lord — All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator, you feed your children with the true manna, the living bread from heaven: let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary

Last Sunday Jesus blessed Peter and gave him authority over his mission to build the household of God. Things have turned quickly on Peter as now Jesus calls him a devil and pushes him off. The sound of his rejection reminds us of what Jesus said to the devil when he tempted Jesus in the desert, "Away with you, Satan!"

You can't blame Peter for trying to save his master from pain and death. But there is more involved than just a devoted disciple's desire to protect the teacher he loves and follows. Christianity is not an easy walk, all smiles and good feelings. "Finding Jesus," or having "Jesus in my heart," might produce initial buoyancy of spirit. But eventually the fuller picture of what following Jesus entails will set in. Peter should have known better, after all, he's following the prophet Jesus. If Peter had reflected over the history of his religion he would have remembered how prophets got rejected and killed. Now Peter is facing what the prophets faced: he is being called to accept a prophetic role and it will cost. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny themselves, take up their cross and follow me."

You can buy a cross in any jewellery store, but that's not the kind of cross Jesus invites Peter and us to willingly take up each day. We are not likely to suffer crucifixion as Jesus did, but it's clear Jesus invites his disciples to sacrifice for his sake and for the preaching of the gospel.

Today Paul points out how we disciples are to live. We ought to offer our bodies "as a living sacrifice." Christians are not to "conform yourselves to this age...." If we choose to follow Christ we will live lives based on a different set of values from what guides those around us. This choice will cost us—friends, family, popularity and even possessions. We cannot buy into the values of our culture without first passing them under the lens of the gospel. At first Peter does not accept the terms of the relationship Jesus is offering. The emphasis on the pain and sacrifice seems to have blocked his ears to what comes along with the cross—life. Peter will, Jesus promises, gain his life.

After we get beyond Jesus' casting Peter off, we might notice there's an offer also being made to Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" It's an initial rejection, Jesus is also telling Peter to go back where disciples should be—behind and following Jesus. That's the right place for us too, despite our repeated failures to live up to being Jesus' disciples. Like Peter, in subtle or more obvious ways, we have rejected the cost of discipleship and admit today our need for another chance to keep trying.

We are invited back where we belong—following Jesus. Along with other disciples we will be guided by Matthew over the next weeks as we listen to Jesus' teachings. We disciples will notice on our journey with Jesus how he daily accepts his cross; the rejection and slander thrown in his path on the road to Jerusalem. As always, Jesus offers forgiveness for wayward and even obstructing disciples. Jesus sees in us what he saw in Peter, a willingness to do the best we can to follow him, even unto death. And so we join Peter as we get behind Jesus and follow him to Jerusalem

Meditation

The bible states, 'speak to one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord'. As believers our worship is distinguished by joy which is manifested when we sing and make melody to the Lord. A singing heart is a joyful one. What better way to praise the Lord than by singing to Him words of praise which He inspired men to write based on Holy Scripture'. Singing does not have to be of any standard, and if we sing with the heart it is accepted and welcomed by God, and it is to the Lord we sing to please.

God blessed some men and women to write glorious hymns and spiritual songs which have lasted through the years containing sound doctrine from Scripture. These words remind us of the greatness of God in how He saves and delivers us and intervenes in our lives to help us, forgiving us through the atoning action of Jesus Christ.

The great revival meetings led by Moody and Sankey were characterised by joyful praise with a strong gospel message, and it was of course the hymns of Charles Wesley which led so many to Methodism. I invite you to come and join in this service of Timeless Praise as we sing hymns of gifted writers old and new. Music touches the heart and brings people together. Bring a friend with you and enjoy the evening on Sunday 11th September at 6-30p.m at Putnoe Heights Church. Many Churches recognise September as the start of the new Church year, let us start it well.

(Eric Royden)

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

O God, we thank you for your Son, who chose the path of suffering for the sake of the world. Humble us by his example to be a living sacrifice to you. Guide us to serve those around the world as you have commissioned us to do, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Prayers of Intercession

For all who offer their lives as instruments of your peace so others may live in freedom: let us pray that oppression, violence, and hatred may cease and that goodwill may triumph.

Gracious God, we thank you for your loving gift of grace. Guide us to love all as you love us. We especially pray that you show us how to serve those we name enemies.

Loving God, please be with all of those suffering from disasters around the world. Guide us and our congregation to share your love and comfort in these places of destruction.

Thought for the day

Christianity had no tradition of impressive buildings at the time Constantine became Emperor in the fourth century. This changed with Constantine, who lavished many favours upon the Christian faith, including some great buildings and opulent digs. Said St. Jerome at the time: "Parchments are died purple, gold is melted into lettering, manuscripts are dressed up in jewels, while Christ lies at the door naked and dying."

Woodland Burial Tour A Unique Opportunity

On Tuesday 30 August at 11.00am there will be a guided tour of St Albans Woodland Burial Ground. This will be an opportunity to ask any questions which you may have about how funerals take place or what you can do to make a very personal service. Trustees will be accompanied by other professionals who will be available to answer any questions which you may have.

Footprints 4 September All are cordially invited to join the Footprints group on a 3½ mile walk from Tempsford along delightful paths beside the River Ivel and through the village of Blunham – plus a fascinating, but optional, extra bit at the end on return to Tempsford! Paths may be muddy after rain, so appropriate footwear is advised, as are long trousers as this is a bit of a jungle jaunt in places (yes, blackberries!). Don't let that put you off, because the walk is worth it. We will meet in Tempsford in time for a 2.30pm departure. Park beside the road opposite the Wheatsheaf pub; we will begin our walk along Mill Lane. To get to the meeting point, drive to the Black Cat roundabout and turn right (south) on the A1. Soon after this, take the first exit and follow the signs for Tempsford Church End, which will take you parallel with the A1 and then back over the A1 via right turns at a couple of roundabouts. If you have any queries, please contact Alison and Warwick Holden at St Mark's.

Clubhouse Changes to Opens House !

St Mark's Church Council met last week to discuss changes to it's Clubhouse project which works with people with learning disabilities. In order to continue to provide this important support service, the church has decided to make the project entirely free to all those who wish to access the service. To demonstrate this new free facility the name will be changed to Open House. Families and carers will also be able to access Open House free of charge. We are delighted to be able to continue to provide this service to the community and hope that we will be able to attract volunteers to help run the session which will be from 10.00am until 2.00pm every Wednesday. If you are interested in being involved in any way, please speak to Charles Royden

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Jim Pearson
Aphrodite Hubbard

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'

Forthcoming Funerals

The funeral of Michael Kenneth Eaton will take place at Bedford crematorium on Friday 9 September at 10.00am
