Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Derrick Stoneham in memory of his wife, Marjorie, and by Doris Wilson in memory of her sister, Stella.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

Prayer for Sunday

Risen Christ, you have raised our human nature to the throne of heaven: help us to seek and serve you, that we may join you at the Father's side, where you reign with the Spirit in glory, now and for ever.

Common Worship Shorter Collect

Welcome

A special welcome at St Mark's Church to the family and friends of Eva Veronica Alison who has been brought for baptism.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Opening Verses of Scripture Psalm 5:11

But let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy. Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may rejoice in you.

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Eternal God, you have given all authority in heaven and on earth to your Son, our Saviour

Jesus Christ. Grant that we may never lose the vision of your kingdom but serve you with hope and joy; through him who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen. Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Acts 1:15–17, 21-26

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) and said, “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus—he was one of our number and shared in this ministry.” Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from John’s baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection.” So they proposed two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. Then they prayed, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs.” Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 John 5:9-13

We accept man's testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son. Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart. Anyone who does not believe God has made him out to be a liar, because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son. And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 17:6-19

(Please stand for the Gospel. When the Gospel is announced - ‘Glory to Christ our Saviour’)
“I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours. All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them. I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name—the name you gave me—so that they may be one as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled. “I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them. I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life: grant us to walk in his way, to rejoice in his truth, and to share his risen life; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Morning Worship and Baptism booklets at St Mark's)

First Hymn Joy to the world

Hymns and Psalms 77 Tune Antioch

- 1 Joy to the world, the Lord has come!
Let earth receive her King;
let every heart prepare him room,
and heaven and nature sing.
- 2 Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns!
Your sweetest songs employ;
while fields and streams and hills and plains
repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove
the glories of his righteousness,
the wonders of his love.

Second Hymn If you want joy

If you want joy, real joy, wonderful joy,
Let Jesus come into your heart.
Your sins He'll wash away,
Your night He'll turn to day,
Your life He'll make it over anew,
And then come in to stay.
If you want joy, real joy, wonderful joy,
Let Jesus come into your heart.
Anonymous 96 Junior Praise

Third Hymn Glorious things of thee are spoken 817 Hymns and Psalms Tune Austria

- 1 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God;
he whose word cannot be broken
formed thee for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
what can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
- 2 See, the streams of living waters,
springing from eternal love,
well supply thy sons and daughters,
and all fear of want remove.
Who can faint while such a river ever flows their thirst to assuagegrace which, like the Lord the giver, never fails from age to age?
- 3 Saviour, if of Zion's city
I through grace a member am,
let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure.
all his boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasure
none but Zion's children know.

Fourth Hymn Joyful songs, of broken people

Joyful songs of broken people smiling faces, lilting praise welcome those who come to worship in the cauldron of these days.

Listen to the wondrous story
born in poverty and fear,
thousands, now ten thousand voices ringing out that God is near.

Near because we carry with us
love of God in every heart;
love that holds, that binds, protects us,
love that never will depart.

Tune Sussex

	Woodland Burial Update
For some years many of us in the Partnership have been seeking to establish a woodland burial ground. We are pleased to report that we are about to make a planning application for a woodland burial ground in Keysoe. The application would allow us to consecrate a two acre site in existing community woodland, with small but established trees.
We will keep you posted with further information on the progress of the application.

Fifth Hymn Joyful, Joyful, we adore thee

1. Joyful, joyful, we adore thee,
God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee,
Hail thee as the sun above!
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day.

2. All thy works with joy surround thee,
Earth and heaven reflect thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around thee,
Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain,
Flowering meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain
Call us to rejoice in thee.

3. Thou art giving and forgiving,
Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of living,
Ocean-depth of happy rest!
Thou the Father, Christ our Brother,
All who live in love are thine;
Teach us how to love each other,
Lift us to the joy divine.

4. Mortals join the mighty chorus,
Which the morning stars recall;
Father-love is reigning o'er us,
Kindred love binds each to all;
Ever singing march we onward,
Victors in the midst of strife;
Joyful music lifts us sunward
In the triumph song of life.

Tune: Ode to joy

Commentary

From even before his birth we are told that the presence of Jesus should bring joy and if we read the pages of Scripture we recognise that Christians should be people overflowing in their joy and delight. The Christmas stories tell us that when Jesus was born it was a time for Joy to come to the earth. So it was that when the Magi saw the baby Jesus they were 'overjoyed.' The angels went on to make it clear that joy was coming to earth in Jesus. "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people."

And so we ask the question, is unbridled joy a characteristic of the Christian? When people think of what Christianity stands for, do they think of joyfulness? The answer I suspect is an undoubted 'No'.

Although one of the enduring proofs of the presence of the Spirit is joy, we often fail to show this fruit in our lives. (Galatians 5:22). Christians are encouraged by scripture to 'Rejoice always', (1 Thessalonians 5:16), but so often we do not and it is as if the writer to the Phillipians knew of our reluctance, when he wrote his letter he said, 'Rejoice in the Lord always,' then he added 'Again I will say, rejoice!' (Philippians 4:4) It is as if he knows of our joyless condition and wants to make it clear, 'look I really do mean it, rejoice!' It is not just OK for Christians to enjoy themselves, it should be a part and parcel of our daily living. How else are we to persuade people that the Christian life is worth choosing?

There is so much to rejoice about, but sadly we have a disposition to think of the things which trouble us. As an example, the church has so much to be joyful about but so often we focus on the things which divide us. Is it possible that if churches spent more time rejoicing with one another we might find less time to fall out with one another?

Would more joyful Christians also be more united Christians? It is interesting that in this passage Jesus also prays to God that 'they may be one as we are one.' One of the most heartbreaking tragedies of the church is that our history is one of division and condemnation and competition with each other. It is a scandal that the body of Christ on earth is divided in the way that it is. It is quite remarkable that we can read this passage of scripture today in churches across the world, whilst we still continue to keep divisions alive. We can blame all sorts of people throughout the history of Christianity for the reasons why churches are divided and yet it is us who perpetuate the wrongs of the past. It is us who cling to our own parties, who refuse to move outside our comfort zones. It is us who refuse to allow the power of love to unite us and transcend human differences of opinion.

There are therefore at least two very important messages of mission in the reading today.

1. Be a joyful church
2. Be a united church

If the church was both joyful and united, then it would be a church drawing attention to itself in the right ways, it would be attractive and have a relevant message. This is important in society today. People are looking for happiness, yet seek fulfilment in things which are disappointing and do not stand the test of time. What passes for life enhancing opportunities are so often the cause of disillusionment. Solid joys and lasting treasure, none but Zion's children know! Charles Royden

Meditation

Joy may be expressed in laughter, yet it draws from a deep spring that keeps flowing long after transient laughter has died. Joy survives the fleeting happiness of this world, and overcomes the tears of our too short lives, because it trusts in the promise of the world to come. Joy enables us to be cheerful even when the world has become tired and grey with grief and worry.

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Lord, help us to know Joy as a spring always welling up within us and give us power to dance through life, not as men and women who are blind to sorrow, misery or shame, but as those who know your victory over death and who cannot but rejoice. Edmund Banyard

O joy that seekest me through pain
I cannot close my heart to thee
I trace the rainbow through the rain and feel the promise is not vain that morn shall tearless be.

O Christ, you were called the man of sorrows, and yet you prayed for your disciples that they might have your joy; grant us such sympathy as takes upon itself the burden of the sorrowing; and with it such glad courage as shall turn the way the sadness into the way of joy, because we follow in your footsteps, O blessed master, Jesus Christ. Amen. Walter Russell Bowie

As the hand is made for holding and the eye for seeing, you have created me for joy, O God. Share with me in finding that joy everywhere: in the violet's beauty, in the lark's melody, in the child's face, in a mother's love, in the purity of Jesus. Traditional Scottish Gaelic Prayer

My God, I pray that I may so know you and love you, that I may rejoice in you. And if I may not do so fully in this life, let me go steadily on to the day when I come to that fullness...Let me receive that which you promised through your truth that my joy may be full. St Anselm

Annual Moody & Sankey Evening at Park Road on Sunday 4 June at 6.30pm. If you would like to choose a hymn let Bill Davies or Jenny Clifford (404644) know by 29.5.06. If you would like to say a few words about your choice you are welcome to but it is not compulsory. Everyone is welcome to come for a rousing sing. Jenny Clifford.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

York. Joan, Caroline, Nick, Andy and family would like to thank everyone who came to Edgar's funeral. Thanks for all the lovely cards and messages of sympathy. Special thanks to Joan and Charles for the lovely service and all the members of Putnoe Heights Church who have given us such tremendous support in our loss. Thanks in particular to Sue Allen and her catering team.

Teddy BearTimes. Church Times this week reports of a 'new' idea which has come to a church in Oxford to hold a teddy bear service. 'Speaking on Tuesday the Vicar said 'it was definitely "a homegrown idea", and came out of a discussion held after the Easter Day dawn service. "All of the four churches and the three villages have got really into the idea, and we are expecting a lot of bears." He was used to animal services, but toy bears would be a first.'

Clearly Church Times didn't 'do a Google' and check before making these extravagant claims of a first. Surely they would have found that as usual the Partnership was first to welcome teddy to say his prayers!
