Prayer for Sunday

May all created things praise you, O Lord.
May you be blessed
in the fellowship of human hearts.
May you be worshipped by the exile,
hallowed by the pilgrim
and adored by the saints;
until together we come to the palace
of your heavenly glory;
and this we ask through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Opening Verse — Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

Collect Prayer for the Day

Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Common Worship Shorter Collect.

First Bible Reading - Acts 9: 36-43

In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which, when translated, is Dorcas), who was always doing good and helping the poor. About that time she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room. Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Please come at once!" Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them. Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up. He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive. This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord. Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon. (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading - Rev 7: 9-17

After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying: "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honour and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!" Then one of the elders asked me, "These in white robes--who are they, and where did they come from?" I answered, "Sir, you know." And he said, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore, "they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat upon them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd; he will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Gospel reading - John 10: 22-30

(After the Gospel is announced—Glory to Christ our Saviour)

"Then came the Feast of Dedication at Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was in the temple area walking in Solomon's Colonnade. The Jews gathered around him, saying, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I did tell you, but you do not believe. The miracles I do in my Father's name speak for me, but you do not believe because you are not my sheep. My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all ; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. I and the Father are one."

(This is the Gospel of Christ -- Praise to Christ our Lord.)

Hymns (Please distribute Hymns and Psalms and Holy Communion with Christian Healing)

1. God is here as we his people 653
2. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God 138
3. God is love. let heaven adore him 36
4. The King of Love my Shepherd is 69

Commentary

Today's Gospel takes us back to a time before the Crucifixion, as Jesus is walking in the temple. The Jews gather around him questioning, perhaps taunting him. "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." The question they ask lacks sincerity. We know that they do not believe Jesus is the Messiah, in fact quite the opposite, they believe him to be nothing less than an heretic and trouble maker. Their hope is that he will confirm this by telling them plainly that he is the Messiah. And with this declaration he will give them permission to prosecute him and rid themselves of his annoying threat to their power and authority. Jealousy and anger form a powerful mix and these emotions are directed towards Jesus.

Once again, however, Jesus refuses to be drawn. Instead, as he often did, he turned the question back to them, saying, "I have told you and you do not believe." How has he told them? His works, he says, testify to who he is. There is plenty of evidence, he assures them, the real issue is their own belief, or lack of it.

Belief is what the Gospel challenges us about this morning. Of course we do believe, don't we? Here we are in the midst of the season of joyous belief. Easter is the celebration of victory over death, the awareness of our lives redeemed forever from the power of sin, fifty days of gratitude for penance paid and absolution guaranteed for all eternity. But the question continues to tug at the back corners of our minds. Do we believe—and how?

Our Western mind has been formed by the notion that belief is based on evidence. The scientific method depends on the formulation of an hypothesis, which we then test by experimentation. If the data from the experiment confirms the hypothesis, we may be reasonably certain. If the evidence fails to confirm the hypothesis, we must revise it or create a whole new theory. A belief is firmly rooted in observation and evidence collected in support of it. However these Jews had seen and observed Jesus for some time, but the testimony of his works is not enough for this group.

So how does one get to be one of those sheep who knows the Master's voice, a member of the flock that cannot be snatched from his hand? The time comes when evaluating the evidence must end. Eventually all the questions we have to ask become evidence only of our own procrastination. The deep chasm of uncertainty that stands between the known and the possible has no bridge except our own choice to believe.

Throughout these fifty days of Easter, we are moving inevitably to the day of Ascension. The memory of these Easter days must sustain us for the rest of the year. These are the days when we stand close to the flame of the Paschal candle so that we may look closely at the world lit by its brilliance. We should hold these memories of the world lit by the promise of eternal life as in the dark days that come. Today, in the midst of the stories of Christ's appearances, we are called to remember that these miracles, wrought by God's great gift, Jesus Christ, are not ours by evidence, not by hypotheses proven by experiments. They are ours by choice. We believe.

The choice is freely offered as a gift to every person who has, or does, or will ever live. It is a choice which allows us to experience inward and spiritual grace. It is also a choice that calls us to lives that produce signs, distinctive behaviours, that will be noticed by those around us. It is a choice that sets us apart from the rest of the world, and yet urges us to invite the rest of the world to join us. It is a choice that calls us to make Easter, and a sense of the presence of Christ, alive not just for fifty days but every day. This is the choice each of us will carry with us, the choice to live each day spreading the joy and vitality of this love of God to all people for all time. Alleluia!

Meditation Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

O Lord Jesus Christ, Thou Good Shepherd of the sheep, who camest to seek the lost, and to gather them into Thy fold, have compassion upon those who have wandered from Thee, feed those who hunger, cause the weary to lie in Thy pastures, bind up those who are with broken heart, and strengthen those who are weak, that we, relying on Thy care and being comforted by Thy love, may abide in Thy guidance to our lives' end. Amen. 5c prayer

Post Communion Prayer

Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Loving Shepherd of your sheep, keep your lamb in safety, keep;
Nothing can your power withstand, none can pluck me from your hand. Jane Eliza Leeson

Dear Father, whom I cannot see, I know that you are near to me. Quite quietly I speak to you, please show me what you'd have me do. Please help me plan kind things to do, for other people and for you. Thank you for always helping me, dear Father, whom I cannot see. Lilian Cox

My dearest Lord, be thou a bright flame before me, be thou a guiding star above me, be thou a smooth path beneath me, be thou a kindly shepherd behind me, today and evermore St Columba

Lord, lift me up, put me in the palm of your hand, and unlock the sealed chamber of my heart. Let love come in. Lord I have been walking, Lord, hold my hand. I'm tired of stumbling in dark alleys, put me in the palm of your hand. Lord, lift me up. Show me that love is still around. Lord, lift me up. Show me that love is still around. James Matthews

God, our loving Father, thank you that you never change. You are as strong and wise and loving as the day you made the world. Thank you that nothing can ever happen that will make you alter. You are the one true God and Maker of all. Amen

Glory be to you, O Father, our true and only hope. Glory be to you, O Son of God, our true and only refuge. Glory be to you, O Holy Spirit, our true and only protection. Glory be to you, O Holy Trinity, our true and only light; now and to the ages of ages. Amen A Prayer of the Eastern Church

Footprints next Ramble is 6 May at 2.30pm. Please meet in the public car park on V10 - 100yards from Bow Brickhill Railway station. Sturdy footwear is recommended as the ground is uneven in places. There are 1 or 2 steepish climbs but there will be plenty of recovery time. If the weather is doubtful on the day, please ring before setting out. More details from Sue & Richard Butler 354183.

Footprints Walking Group. Walking Weekend 21,22,23 September 2007. Details of the annual away weekend are now available. The venue will be the Nightingale Hotel and Leisure Club situated in a quiet village on the outskirts of Swindon which boasts a swimming pool, fitness suite and health spa. For walkers the Cotswolds and the Ridgeway Path are close by. Non walkers have easy access to shopping and the Railway Museum in Swindon. More details from Sue Allen (407264)

Chairs for sale. Since the arrival of the extra 20 chairs in the chapel at St Mark's, we now have too many chairs in the church. We have sorted through them and there are about 25 chairs which the Leadership Team have agreed to sell. They are not in great condition, but would respond well to recovering. We are initially asking £2. 50 per chair. Please do help yourself.

Thank you to Judith Stanton and her supporters for their kind donation to the church of £120.

NCH Home collecting boxes. Could you please give Margaret Standley your box so that the contents can be counted and banked. Throughout the year you have collected £256.81 already. Last year £308.25 was raised in this way by May and I will eventually give you the final total for this year. The support you give helps NCH to work locally with vulnerable children. Putting a little aside now and again means NCH can count on almost £600,000 from these boxes nationally. This allows help and care to be planned for the children that need support. Thank you.

Adopt-a-bed Scheme. Help is needed to keep weeds at bay in new garden areas. If you could adopt a bed and keep it weed free and dead headed please sign up on plan in foyer or talk to Marion. Thank you.

Christian Aid week goes gold and green
Christian Aid Week (13-19 May), Britain's longest running door-to-door fundraising week, turns 50 this year. To mark this golden jubilee it is going green by encouraging people of all ages to plant trees in support of its overseas work on climate change projects.
Christian Aid works with 700 local organisations across 50 developing countries. Working with poor communities, it trains people to deal with the effects of climate change and prepares them for the threat of natural disasters. These local organisations – or 'partners' – also work on HIV, training and education, health and sanitation and peace and reconciliation.

This year Christian Aid is encouraging people to plant trees in their gardens, community spaces and churchyards as a way of reflecting on the impact deforestation and climate change is having on poor communities around the world. For more information visit: <http://www.christian-aid.org.uk/>

It is quite outstanding as a feature, This will provide the unique opportunity to purchase a vault in a granite wall for the interment of ashes. Since it is in consecrated ground, unlike other such facilities, this will be granted in perpetuity. (In council cemeteries places for ashes are rented, usually for about 40 years after which they are removed.) If you would like more information then please speak with Mary Stubbs.

Consecration of the Woodland Burial Site. This will take place on 7 June at approximately 2.00pm. Prior to the consecration of the woodland the Bishop of Bedford will also consecrate the extension to the Garden of Remembrance at St Mark's.

Nomination for Church Councils

Are you interested in becoming a member of Putnoe Heights or St Mark's Church Council, or do you know somebody who would be interested? If so here is a good opportunity to serve your church for the benefit of its members and the local community. If you are interested you will need a proposer and seconder. If you wish to propose somebody else you will need their consent and a proposer and seconder. Please complete a nomination form (obtainable from the church office) and then hand it the church office by the latest for Sunday 29 April.

The annual congregational meetings will this year be held on 6 May 2007 after the Sunday morning service. We hope that people will feel that it is more convenient to simply remain behind after the service.

Mother Teresa Support Group –Would you like to spend a pleasant afternoon in good company, knitting and chatting with a cup of tea and biscuits to sustain you? Thank you for saving all your plastic sleeving. I now have a Sainsbury's bag full and I think I have plenty for my needs. If you have already saved more please do send them to St Marks, but don't worry about further collection. I do however still collect the "cellophane" sleeving from greetings cards, so offering of these will continually be welcomed. (They are needed for packing hand made cards/envelopes) Thanks again, Marion.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
