The flowers in church at St Mark's this week have been given by Margaret and John Standley to celebrate the wedding of their son Richard to Sally Hind daughter of Margaret and Mike Carpenter.

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Arthur Merryman in memory of his wife, Vi, on their wedding anniversary, and by Mrs Freeman in memory of her father, Bill Phillips.

Prayer for Sunday

O blessed Jesus, immortal and victorious, by the sorrow you suffered when all the powers of your heart failed you, have mercy on us and help us in our days of darkness and in our hours of weakness, that we do not lose hold of you either in this life, or in the life of the world to come; and this we ask for your own name's sake. Amen
St Bridget of Sweden, 1303-1373

Bible Notes Ordinary 22

Opening Verse of Scripture Philippians

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray .

Father of all, you gave your only Son, to take upon himself the form of a servant and to be obedient even to death on a cross. Give us the same mind that was in Christ Jesus that, sharing in his humility, we may come to be with him in his glory; for he lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading –Proverbs 25: 6-7

<sup>6</sup>Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence, and do not claim a place among great men; it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman.

What you have seen with your eyes

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord—All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading- Hebrews 13: 1-8, 15-16

Keep on loving each other as brothers. Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those in prison as if you were their fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering. Marriage should be honoured by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral. Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?" Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise--the fruit of lips that confess his name . And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading –Luke 14: 1, 7-14

(Please stand for the reading)

When the reading is announced—Glory to Christ our Saviour

One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched. When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honour at the table, he told them this parable: "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honour, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honoured in the presence of all your fellow guests. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted." Then Jesus said to his host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or relatives, or your rich neighbours; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." (Reader: This is the Gospel of Christ—Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Prayer God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gates of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Healing Holy Communion booklets and Hymns and Psalms)

Commentary

Jesus was criticized for his lifestyle, he was considered to be a heavy drinker and a glutton. It seems that he was only too willing to accept dinner invitations, even if they were occasions used by his enemies to trap him. For Jesus meals were an important occasion and they were about much more than devouring food. The meal was an occasion for talking and fellowship, and important things were said by Jesus in this public gathering. This was a society without radio television or newspapers and meals were often large occasions with many people listening and reporting what took place.

On the occasion reported in Luke today, Jesus is invited to dinner with a leader of the Pharisees. All eyes would be upon Jesus especially by those who wanted him to make a mistake. It would be understandable if Jesus had declined such an invitation but he does not, he is prepared to meet with everybody, even to eat in the company of those who wanted to trap him. Indeed, not only does Jesus turn up, he uses the occasion to heal on the Sabbath and takes the opportunity to tell a parable about the Kingdom.

It is not in the reading today but we are told in verses 2-7 that there was a man at the gathering who had dropsy, he would have swelling and be suffering from his condition. He might have been deliberately placed by the opponents of Jesus, as a challenge to see how Jesus would act. Would the man be healed by Jesus, or would Jesus respect the Sabbath? Notwithstanding the medical condition of the man it would be entirely reasonable for Jesus to make an appointment for the man to come back the following day, to avoid healing on the Sabbath. Instead Jesus faces his opponents head on and performs a healing, rules are not more important than compassion.

It is then afterwards that Jesus taught a parable which is part of our Gospel reading today. The thrust of the teaching is as follows,

"all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

Perhaps at the meal Jesus noticed people jostling and trying to take the best seats. We know that Jesus frowned upon people who liked to glorify themselves and he had particularly strong words for the Pharisees. Remember this passage from Matthew Chapter 23:1

'Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples: "The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. So you must obey them and do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. They tie up heavy loads and put them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them. "Everything they do is done for men to see: They make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long; they love the place of honour at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues; they love to be greeted in the marketplaces and to have men call them 'Rabbi.'

Jesus had harsh words for those who held high positions and who sought elevation of their position over others. advancement of their own. Christians should be people who are voluntarily humble and modest. If we seek pride of place and vainly pursue our own ambition, then eventually we are likely to find ourselves subject to embarrassment and shame. This is an important lesson in life. But the teaching of Jesus is more far reaching, if we behave in such a way we will anger God and bring upon ourselves his judgement. God does not favour the proud, rather he brings them low and exalts the humble and the meek. Anything we consider ourselves to possess worth boasting of is not ours by personal merit, it is a gift and grace of God.

Then Jesus went on to speak about who we should invite to dinner. Jesus is saying that in God's Kingdom the rules of order and importance are very different. Christians should be concerned with those whom society does not esteem, because God cares deeply for those who are treated badly. If we care for those who are unloved and uncared for then In doing such a thing we will ourselves find blessing. At the time of Jesus the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind were examples of groups that Christians should be concerned with. This was because they were treated badly and thought to be a lower class of person. The crippled, lame and blind were forbidden to serve as priests because of their physical imperfections (Lev 21:17-23).

To a certain extent this is always the way in which the poor are thought of, but each generation has other groups which are marginalized. The words of Jesus are challenging because his words are not about who we say prayers for, or who we donate money towards. Jesus demands action at a most fundamental level, who we eat with.

Jesus is not against hospitality towards our families and friends, but he is making very clear the point that those who do good to their relations and friends but are tight fisted to the poor, are certainly not praiseworthy, for they are not exercising love, but thinking only of themselves. Caring for others has nothing to do with mutual return, liberality which is given in the pursuit of personal gain is something to be ashamed of. Such deeds have their own reward and will not be congratulated or rewarded by God. Rather, they are blessed who give without hope of any earthly reward, it is they who carry out God's work.

God calls Christians to participate in an the values and principles of the Kingdom. When we do so we are blessed by God, not in a material, but a spiritual way. We store up riches in heaven, even if we are broke on earth! We should seek to please God, not other people. "

Charles Royden

Meditation

True godliness is an apparently reckless investment in the parts of the world that beg for attention in real need, but that show no potential of paying back dividends. Yet, Jesus promises that God sees and that God will pay the interest on an investment.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Lord, teach us that your Son died to save us, not from suffering but from ourselves; not from injustice, but from being unjust; and not from dying but so that we might die to ourselves; and this we ask through the same Christ our Lord. Amen

George Macdonald 1824-1905

Gracious God, whose only desire it is that men and women will come from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south and will sit down together at the feast of your Kingdom; have mercy on those of Abrahamic faith, whether they are Jews, Christians or Muslims, and grant that they may behold in you the one God and Father of all, and see in each other only those created in your own image and likeness; and that thus beholding and seeing they may turn aside from all evil and violence and, with one mind, undertake that ministry of reconciliation which you have committed to them; for to you belongs all honour, all glory and praise, now and for ever. Amen

Riding Lights on Saturday 9 October 7.30pm At Putnoe Heights Church, Bedford.

Riding Lights Theatre Company presents the PRISON & CHURCH TOUR 2004 of ‘Hope Opera’ The Stuff of Life

Imagine a kitchen in a house down the road from you. A mismatched group of people trading tales of their great scrapes and escapes. Pushing bags of the white stuff around a table with scarred and tattooed fists. It’s flour, of course. They’re making bread.

This is a place where people live their own stories; where sharing your story could open a window on eternity. Hope Opera’s a place at that table, with the mix of heroes and hopeless cases: a boy with nothing but tattoos to his name, a girl whose curiosity got the better of her, a man made of anger. Extraordinary stories told in extraordinary ways... colourful, moving, unforgettable, Hope Opera stops you in your tracks, turns things round, and starts you off in new directions. A remarkable blend of grit and grandeur, masks and music, getting a grip on the stuff of real life.

New Partnership Youth Group Starts Soon! TNT explodes into life! Our new Partnership youth group TNT (The Nearly Teens) has its first meeting on Sunday 5th September. The group, which is open to anyone aged 5-13 who attends our churches, will meet once a fortnight at Putnoe on Sundays 6-7.45pm. A wide range of sporting activities, craft, music, games, quizzes, parties and much more is planned. The first meeting will be a BBQ with games. Offers of help with the BBQ warmly received! Please phone Joan 344536.

Bereavement Support Group. You will know that we are fortunate to have a well-established Pastoral Team in the Partnership. From early September, the Team will be extending their care by offering an afternoon each week, at St Mark's, especially aimed at those who have been bereaved. The first "Drop-In" afternoon will be on Wednesday September 8th, from 2.30-4pm. We would welcome people from our own congregation who would be willing to help by making tea or chatting to our guests. Many of you know the pain of bereavement and would be of great help in listening to and supporting others. For further details, please contact Mary Stubbs, 406784

St Mark's Scoops Lottery Grant. After many unsuccessful applications to the Lottery Fund, St Mark's heard this week of the award of £4,200 towards safe all weather surfacing of the children's playground.

Brickhill Parish Council Meeting. To be held at St Mark's Church Community Centre on Monday 6 September at 7.30pm. Amongst many other things, this meeting will display plans of the new housing development and it is hoped the Planning Department will be represented.

With great sadness we heard this week of the death of Doris Cook at Steppingly Hospital. Doris had returned to hospital after a deterioration in her condition after having enjoyed some months at home in her bungalow. Doris was a much loved and loyal member of St Mark's Church and a person greatly admired for the manner in which she bravely faced her illness. Our thought and prayers are with the family. A service will be held at St Mark's Church on September 6 at 3.15pm

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
