Prayer for Sunday

O God of all the patriarchs and prophets , you herald the coming of the Son of Man
by wondrous signs in the heavens and on the earth.
Guard our hearts from despair so that we,
in the company of the faithful and by the power of your Holy Spirit, may be found ready to raise our heads
at the coming near of our redemption,
the day of Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Sunday of Advent

Opening Verses of Scripture—Romans Chapter 13:11

Now is the time to wake out of sleep: for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed

Collect Prayer for the Day - Before we read we pray

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Common Worship & Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Jeremiah Chapter 33 v 14 - 16

'The days are coming,' declares the LORD, 'when I will fulfil the gracious promise I made to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. "In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David's line; he will do what is just and right in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The LORD Our Righteousness.'

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading— 1 Thessalonians 3 v 9 – 13

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you again and supply what is lacking in your faith. Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you. May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you. May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

Gospel Reading - Luke 21 v 25 – 36 All: Glory to Christ our Saviour

"There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. Men will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." He told them this parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees. When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near. "I tell you the truth; this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away. "Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap. For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man." (Reader: This is the Gospel of Christ - All: Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Prayer

O Lord our God, make us watchful and keep us faithful as we await the coming of your Son our Lord; that, when he shall appear, he may not find us sleeping in sin but active in his service and joyful in his praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The days are surely coming, says the LORD,

when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.
Jeremiah 33:14

Meditation

I tried to present the Christian hope no longer as such an "opium of the beyond" but rather as the divine power that makes us alive in this world. Jürgen Moltmann, 20th century

Commentary

The colour for Advent is purple, which signifies that something serious is taking place. Purple is the colour of saying sorry - at Lent, it is the colour of mourning - at a funeral, it is the colour of reflective watchfulness - at Advent.. This is the period of preparation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus and begins on Sunday nearest to 30th November. Next week the carol services start , with different groups holding their own services there will be several services of one kind or another each week now until Christmas. This is a difficult time, indeed by the time Christmas eventually comes some of us will be suffering from 'FFS' that is 'festive fatigue syndrome.' Its good to give these things a name, it makes them sound more serious and researched, somehow 'fed up' doesn't sound nearly as important. Does part of you want to just fast forward to Christmas Eve and avoid the messy bits in between?

At Advent we prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas, but it also reminds us the coming of Christ again. This means that Advent is very much like life in general, and sometimes I suppose we wish that we could just fast forward over the messy bits, and have Jesus appear now. No wonder that the Bible finishes with a prayer hoping that Jesus will come soon' Revelation 22:20 'He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus. The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God's people. Amen.' As Christians we should all want Christ to come, yet we live all year round in Advent time, the period in which we are waiting and preparing for the return of Christ. This means that Advent should be a time characterised by vigilance. We are living in the present but trying very hard to bring to the present the realities of the future. Our lives should be characterised by the lifestyle of heaven, even though we are currently inhabitants of planet earth.

The text from Luke encourages us to think of the Lord's second coming on this Sunday on which we begin to prepare for Christmas. One Advent leads to another, but in the meantime we have the task of striving to build up a new community founded on justice and God's righteousness. As Luke tells us we have to be careful not to be 'weighed down by the anxieties of this life,' instead we should be 'always on the watch, and pray.' It is hard to live in a manner which reflects God's kingdom, rather than the somewhat shabby standards which are all too evident around us. We can too easily become preoccupied by 'life' just as we can lose the real meaning of Christmas in all of the preparations which cause 'festive fatigue syndrome.'

It is difficult to know how to interpret the standards of Jesus for our society. How do we 'turn the other cheek' in a society in which young children are brutally murdered on our streets, as we tragically heard again this week? Yet Advent tells us that we Christians are to do just that, bring God's reign in our own lives in such a way that we are salt in this sorry society and bring about change which makes a real difference. We must not become fatigued, we prepare inwardly and spiritually, but if that means anything it is demonstrated visibly in our changed lives. Somebody said "Nothing is more powerful than an individual acting out of his conscience, thus helping to bring the collective conscience to life." This Advent we are challenged not to blame others, but instead to recognise that the change must come from us as we live the new lives of the Kingdom. Charles Royden

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Lord our God, make us watchful and keep us faithful as we wait for the coming of your Son; then when He appears, He will not find us sleeping in sin, but active in His service and joyful in His praise, for the glory of your Holy name. Amen

Living God, you have given us a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead: grant that we, being risen with Him, may fix our hearts on heavenly things and share eternal life. Amen

Come, O Lord, in much mercy down into my soul and take possession and dwell there. A poor dwelling, I confess, for so glorious a Person as You. Yet, I am preparing for a fitting reception of you, by holy and fervent desires of your own inspiring. Enter then, and adorn my soul, and make it a worthy place for you to inhabit, since it is the work of your own hands. Give me yourself, without which, even if you should give me all that you ever have made, yet this would not satisfy my desires. Let my soul ever seek you, and let me persist in seeking, until I have found, and am in full possession of you. Amen. St. Augustine of Hippo

Lord our God, keep us your servants alert and watchful as we await the return of Christ your Son, so that when he comes and knocks at the door he may find us vigilant in prayer, with songs of praise on our lips. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Candle - The Patriachs

Leader: May the joy and peace of God fill our hearts as we wait for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

All: Thanks be to God

Leader: Today is the First Sunday of Advent, we will light a candle to remember the patriachs.

Genesis Chapter 12

The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you. "I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you;

I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

Abraham was obedient to God and left his home to go to a distant land. God told Abraham that through him all the nations of the world would be blessed. This blessing would come because he trusted and put his hope in God. The Gospel writer Matthew traces the ancestry of Jesus back through the Old Testament to Abraham. So it was that the promise was fulfilled, that all the nations of the world were blessed through the obedience of Abraham.

(A person lights the first candle here)

Leader: Let us pray:

All: God of Abraham and all the patriachs of old, you are our Father too. Help us as we await the coming of Jesus to show the same obedience and willingness as Abraham. May we seek always to follow your path for our lives. Amen

A Hymn for Sunday

- 1 As sons of the day and daughters of light, no longer we sleep like creatures of night:
For Jesus has died that with him we may live; by all he has given, we learn how to give.
- 2 One body in Christ, let all play their part: the lazy be warned, the timid take heart;
let those who are hurt never pay back with wrong, but serve one another: together be strong!
- 3 Be constant in prayer, at all times rejoice, in all things give thanks-let God hear your voice!
alive to the Spirit, alert to his word, test all things, and hold to what pleases the Lord.
- 4 May God who first called, gave peace and made whole, preserve us from fault in body and soul:
our Lord Jesus Christ keep us firm in his grace, until at his coming we meet face to face.

Tune Laudate Dominum

Nativity Scenes. On Saturday December 19 we are holding a nativity festival at Putnoe Heights, that is if there are nativities to show! So far I have one from South Africa, the promise of another African one and a huge banner, designed by a good friend of mine. But I'd like more! This is where you come in, if you have a nativity scene that is special to you or your family in some way, and you are willing to lend it to us for the weekend before Christmas, please could you let me know! It doesn't matter what it looks like, is there one someone knitted for you? Is there a slightly tatty one with teeth marks of a over enthusiastic child in (or maybe a character is missing)? Is there one that has been part of your families for so long it wouldn't seem like Christmas without it? Is there one from a particular holiday, or maybe there's one from a difficult time in your life that you'd be willing to share? Whatever the story I think it would be great to share it, I hope to be able to display a wide variety, and produce a 'programme' which has a little 'story' about each one. Although I don't need them until the day, I'd like to have any stories ASAP and idea of numbers by the previous week, to enable the production of the programme! Jane Mason

Christmas Charity

Working with the Homeless in Bedford

We are all used to seeing scenes of deprivation on our television from third world countries. However homelessness is not something which just happens in other countries.

Recently I had cause to report problems with derelict garages in Brickhill and problems associated with people sleeping rough in these dilapidated buildings. People from the Kings Arms Charity turned out and on one night helped five homeless people sleeping rough on cold garage floors. The Kings Arms are the people who come and help folks who have literally hit rock bottom.

It is in some ways easier to feel sorry about human misery in places like Ethiopia or Darfur. We know that there is so little which we can do in these distant places. However we are not so powerless when we see suffering in our own community. If we are genuine in wanting to make a real difference then we have to show action at home where we do have the resources and committed Christian people who are working for change. The people of Kings Arms need our help.

So this year please give generously to an outstanding group of local people who are helping some of the most deprived people in the world, who live on our doorstep. There are three main ways to help

1. Take envelopes from church and give
2. Purchase our Christmas cards
3. Come along to our fundraising Christmas concert by Kempston Musical Society on Monday 14th December at 7.30pm at St Mark's

Our special thanks to Mr Bob Wardale, of Putnoe, Bedford, who kindly allowed us to use his painting of Putnoe Heights Church.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

departed through the mercy of God,
rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.*
