Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Height Church this week have been given by Lawrence & Betty Wyatt and by Richard & Claire Peck, to mark their wedding anniversaries.

The flowers at St Mark's this week have been given by Ada Hill remembering Derek's birthday.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights).

A Prayer for Sunday

God, you have poured the Spirit of your Son into our hearts so that we call you Father. Give us grace to devote our freedom to your service that we and all creation may be brought into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For the Kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Ordinary 17

Verse of Scripture - Ephesians 3:20

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Gracious God, Your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of life and the word of your Kingdom. Renew Your people with Your heavenly grace and in all our weakness sustain us by Your true and living bread, even Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen Methodist Worship

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. Ephesians 3:14

First Bible Reading - 2 Kings 4: 42-44

A man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe grain, along with some heads of new grain. "Give it to the people to eat," Elisha said. "How can I set this before a hundred men?" his servant asked. But Elisha answered, "Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says: 'They will eat and have some left over.' " Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD .

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Ephesians 3: 14-21

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen. (Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 6: 1-21

Please stand for the Gospel. When the Gospel is announced - 'Glorify to Christ our Saviour' Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs he had performed on the sick. Then Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples. The Jewish Passover Feast was near. When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

Philip answered him, "Eight months' wages would not buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!" Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up, "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"

Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and the men sat down, about five thousand of them. Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten. After the people saw the miraculous sign that Jesus did, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world." Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.

When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. When they had rowed three or three and a half miles, they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid." Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

Reader : This is the Gospel of Christ All: Praise to Christ our Lord

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hymns (Please distribute Hymns and Psalms and Holy Communion with PCH)

1. Praise to the Lord the almighty the king. 16
2. He's got the whole world in his hands. 25
3. May the mind of Christ my Saviour. 739
4. Great is thy faithfulness 66

Commentary

I am sure that Neil's sermon, from last Sunday, on the feeding of the five thousand is still fresh in your minds, so this week I shall be mainly focussing on the epistle reading. The letter to the Ephesians has rightly be called the "queen of the epistles"(ST Coleridge) because it is a marvellously concise yet comprehensive guide to Christian faith and practise. Although the letter declares itself to be by the apostle Paul, scholars from the early nineteenth century onwards pointed out that the vocabulary and style of the epistle was not the same as other epistles from Paul. Although the evidence that they produce to support this theory is strong, does it matter? Could it not be that some other brilliant writer took Paul's words and précised them at a later date, rather than copy down every word from Paul's letter. The theology of the letter is exactly in line with Paul's teachings. Ephesus was a former Greek colony. By Paul's time it was the capital if the Roman province of Asia. As a port, Ephesus was a meeting place for many cultures and religions. It even contained one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, the great temple of Artemis (Diana). Paul had visited there and caused a great upset to the cult of Diana which had a valuable trade in selling little silver models of the temple. Paul was thus addressing a church planted right in the heart of a powerful pagan culture. The excerpt from his letter, which we read this morning, deals with a concept which is powerful and central to the Christian faith. Put simply it is this: God is not in a building, a Temple, whether the Great Temple of Solomon or any other, He is not far away in Heaven, He is close to us, closer than close, in the souls of those who believe in Him. This great promise comes through the love of the Lord Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. The reading is in the form of a prayer for the faith of the people of Ephesus to be deepened. The miracle of love has made Christ dwell in their hearts, it is for them to try to understand the implications of this "indwelling". By accepting Christ into their lives, at their conversion, they had allowed Him to enter into their hearts and minds. But what does that mean? By turning back to the original Greek used by Paul we get a clearer picture of what he was trying to say in this phrase of God dwelling within them. There were two similar Greek verbs paroikeo and katoikeo that he could have chosen to express the concept. The first paroikeo means merely to inhabit a place as a stranger. He chose to use the second word, Katoikeo which means to settle permanently. What Paul was insisting was that God was not a fleeting visitor in the soul of the believer, a presence which would fade away, but a permanent resident, a faithful and abiding presence in the lives of those who had welcomed him. What difference does such an idea make to our idea of God's relationship with us? If God dwells within us, who sometimes do we feel so far from Him? What can we do to keep that miraculous closeness of God a living reality in our spiritual lives? Joan

Meditation

I bought a lovely new book some months ago, a book of blessings. It is a lovely volume containing blessings collected from every part of the world. It also contains blessings for many occasions. Who can say when I shall be needing a special prayer for the blessing of chickens, for example? Or a special prayer for the end of a day canoeing (from Canada)? The book brings home a very serious point, that every part of life, mundane or extraordinary can be rejoiced in. Even the dull routine can be sanctified by prayer and gratitude to God. How often do people look back on their lives and realise that they took the simple blessings for granted, knowing only in retrospect how lucky they were? It used to be called "counting your blessings" (and there was a song with the same title), and however trite it may sound, it is a spiritual discipline which we should all practise. Being aware of the blessings God has bestowed upon us, whether it is water in the tap, a bed to sleep upon or a choice of food to eat, is important. It helps us to remember that what we have comes from God, and that many do not enjoy what we are so much inclined to take for granted. Joan

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Prayer for the day of Mary Magdalene. 22 July. Faithful friend of Jesus, apostle to the apostles, misunderstood and wrongly accused. Guide us now o God, as with Mary Magdalene, we tread new paths in our passionate love for Christ. May we ambassadors of the good news to your Church and let your people rejoice in the leadership of women. (Nikki Archy, Women and the Church)

Blessing for a hard time. Go in peace and faith. If you are tired, may you find rest, if you are anxious, may you find peace, if you are lonely may you find friends and if you are dying may you find new life. Know that nothing can separate you from the love of God in Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen

Prayers for Peace

Ever-loving God, we praise and thank you through Christ Jesus for your presence and action in the world. In the midst of conflict and division, we know it is you who turn our minds to thoughts of peace. The Spirit changes our hearts: enemies begin to speak to one another, those who were estranged join hands in friendship, and nations seek the way of peace together. The Spirit is at work when understanding puts an end to strife, when hatred is quenched by mercy, and when vengeance gives way to forgiveness. For this we thank and praise you. Amen.

Creator of all — Father,

The people whose faith and covenant with you began with Abraham offer our prayers for the people living in Israel, Palestine, and Lebanon today. Hear us!

We pray for peace and for cease-fire as a first step toward peace. Help us!

We pray that all our sisters and brothers may live in the way of peace, even while violence rips their lands and tempts them to act with violence in return. Encourage us!

We pray that we may teach peace, not only with our lips, but in our lives, to those all around us. Challenge us!

We pray that we may have the courage and compassion to walk with those who suffer violence, terror, and death, together with their families and communities. Drive us!

We pray that we may find the generosity to act with goodwill even toward enemies, those who wish or do us harm, that the fullness of your compassion, mercy, and justice may shine in our lives and in the lives of our sisters and brothers around the world. Strengthen us!

Around you we are one. Guide us all in the way of peace. Unite us! Amen!

Circuit Farewell Service for Reverend Neil Bramble-Chapman

Monday 31 July, 7.30pm at Putnoe Heights

Come and join us as we say farewell to Neil and wish him and the family well as he takes on the position of chaplain at St Nicholas Hospice, Bury St Edmunds.

NCH House to House collection. NCH, the children's charity, works with disadvantaged and disabled children, and their families through its family centres located throughout the country. It is an independent charity working with other groups in partnership including the Methodist Church. The annual house to house collection to support the vital work of the NCH will take place as usual in the first 3 weeks in September. St Mark's Church has the responsibility for covering most of Brickhill and last year we raised over £800. If you could spare a few hours during early September to put out and collect envelopes in the Brickhill area, perhaps near to where you live, or you would like some more information then please contact me. Support Woodland Burial. You can make a difference. Contrary to letter which have appeared in the local press, there is no consecrated place of burial available to members of the public in Bedford. Village graveyards have strict policies on who may be buried, which usually means villagers!

We have made an application for a woodland burial site at Keysoe in the name of St Mark's Church. It is most important that this application receives fair treatment by the planning department and is not derailed by malicious gossip or a lack of understanding. It would be greatly appreciated if people were able to give support to the application by writing to the planning department now - stressing how important such a place of burial would be to the Christian community in Bedford.

Bypass Challenge. A sponsored fun run on the new Great Barford Bypass will be held on Sunday 20th August 2006. Funds to be shared between St. John's Hospice and registered charities of participants' choice. There will be prizes for the best fancy dress and the biggest fundraiser. For further details lwww.barfordbypasschallenge.org or phone 01767 641044.

NCH Sunday Envelopes, A big thank you to all members of Putnoe Heights who gave money in envelopes on July 9th. The total collected was £78. 95 (excluding gift aid)

Telecare Takes Off !

Thank you to all of those who have completed the Telecare form. We now have over 50 people who have joined the scheme. Telecare will be an important way for us to keep in touch with members of the congregation, especially senior members and those who live alone.

We now have a regular pattern of contact established and calls are being made every two weeks to help us keep in touch. More information will follow soon.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
