Bible Notes Easter

(Pentecost Sunday Year C, Red)

Opening Verse of Scripture Romans 5:5
The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

A Collect Prayer for Pentecost

Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit on the disciples with the wind from heaven and with tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the Gospel: send us out in the power of the same Spirit to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

First Bible Reading Acts Chapter 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs--we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine." Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: "'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'" (This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God)

Second Reading Romans Chapter 8:14-17

because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs--heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory. (This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading John Chapter 14:8-17

(Please stand for the reading. When the reading is announced - Glory to Christ our Saviour)

Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you are not just my own. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves. I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it. "If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you forever-- the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. (This is the Gospel of Christ - Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Prayer

Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Commentary

As a child I had wondered why so many people had gathered in Jerusalem for the Christian Festival of Pentecost. This was of course until I discovered that the people were not there for what we understand Pentecost to be, the coming of the Holy Spirit, but for the Jewish Festival of the first fruits, when the first sheaf of wheat harvest was offered to God in Thanksgiving. This Jewish festival had also come to be associated with the giving of the law and the renewal of the covenant. So it is not surprising then that the Early Church took over this festival of thanksgiving and celebration of God's faithfulness to the People and the giving of the law, to celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit to the first disciples. It also became for Christians a wonderful time to celebrate the new covenant relationship made possible in Jesus Christ.

The symbolism of wind and fire would have been readily understandable to the first century audience. The breath of God is life-giving in every way and fire purifies and cleanses. The Holy Spirit is described as rushing in like a wind and settling upon the disciples like tongues of fire. They may have been disturbed initially, but then they are inspired, given breath and new life, they are set on fire in their lives and hearts. Through this outpouring of the Holy Spirit the disciples are transformed from a group of frightened individuals, who perhaps like Peter on his fishing trip, had been tempted to go back to their old ways, and they begin proclaiming the Gospel on the streets of Jerusalem.

From this point on the Church is born. This collection of individuals become one body, united in mission and ministry. The life and characteristics of the early church are described in Acts and we see a community of believers who gather for worship, prayer and sharing a common life. It is a pattern of church which has transcended the centuries. Today we stand in this tradition as inheritors of God's promises, as the church, the people of God. We too receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, who is not just for the Pentecostals, but for all Christians. We too are a community of believers, gathering for worship, prayer and the common life. We too are the people of God who are, or at least should be, united in mission and ministry.

The gift of the Holy Spirit is God's wonderful gift to each one of us. It is not something we should refuse or be afraid of, but we should embrace and welcome. The Holy Spirit not only comes to challenge and disturb us in our thinking and practice as individuals and as the Church, but also comes to guide and inspire, to encourage and transform us into the likeness of God. The Holy Spirit is like a two edged sword, cutting both ways, but at the same time working God's purposes within us, calling us, renewing us, enabling us to become the people God wants us to be.

This Pentecost, may we embrace and welcome the gift of the Holy Spirit in to our lives, to be inspired for God's Glory and Mission.

Rev'd Neil Bramble-Chapman

Meditation

The Holy Spirit gives life to the people of God. This is challenging for us. The life to animate us as Christians and as churches is a power which is beyond our controlling. The picture of the tongues of fire, leaping around, is a good way of stressing that the Spirit is uncontrollable. The fire was not constrained within a grate, it was a fire which rendered the disciples powerless to control it. We do not like losing control, we like to manage and legislate but the Holy Spirit is not to be controlled but to fill us and take us over.

At Pentecost we remind ourselves that we must not be too busy, too tired, too poor, too spiritually apathetic —to face up to the task which God has called us to do. We must open ourselves to the Spirit of God to move us.

- What gifts do I have?
- With whom do I share them?
- What are the gifts that I don't share as freely as I could or should?
- Why am I reluctant to get involved in sharing those gifts?
- How can God help take away any fear that might hold me back? Charles Royden

Prayers for Pentecost

May Christ inflame the desires of all people to break through the barriers which divide them, to strengthen the bonds of mutual love, to learn to understand one another, and to pardon those who have done them wrong. Through Christ's power and inspiration may all peoples welcome each other to their hearts as brothers and sisters, and may the peace they long for ever flower and ever reign among them."

Pope John XXIII, Pacem in Terris, #171

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Faithful God, you fulfilled the promise of Easter by sending your Holy Spirit and opening the way of eternal life to all the human race. Keep us in the unity of your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, we your children pray: let your glory come down.

Let the Fire fall as on that first Day of Pentecost.

Revive our spirits, fill us with new excitement,
with joy unspeakable and faith for a dying world.

Empower us to speak your Word; to utter the words of Life;
using a variety of languages to bring the good news to the poor.

LORD, let your fire fall once again on this church, on this community, on this country, and to the ends of the earth.

In Jesus name and in the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.

Accompanied Self-Appraisal.

Each year, all Methodist Ministers and Deacons are required to engage in an exercise of self-appraisal. This involves the Minister and a volunteer 'accompanist' from outside the circuit working together confidentially to identify an area of the minister's work (e.g. preaching, pastoral work, chairing of meetings etc.) on which to focus. Together they work out a project on an annual basis to seek feedback and thus give the minister some measure of performance. The nature of the scheme is essentially gracious and affirming and is fundamentally different from appraisal in the usual workplace setting.

Our District (London North-West) is seeking to recruit some new accompanists and a residential training weekend is planned in the autumn. If you would like to learn more please speak to either of us. Sue Allen (407264) Brian Leeson (305347) Mary Stubbs 406784

Working with Disabilities. This week, Wendy Rider and I attended a meeting with Social Services to discuss the future of the projects in our churches. We were impressed by their commitment to ensuring that this work continues and their willingness to commit resources. It would be wonderful to see more volunteers from our churches offering to spend time on either a Monday, Wednesday or Friday. If this is something which you would consider, then please speak with Wendy Rider in the first instance.

Since Social Services at St Mark's are able to use the new office accommodation in the upper room, the office used by the now closed GOLD charity has become vacant. From June 1 this office will be allocated to Pre-school who have asked for office accommodation for many years. We are pleased to finally be able to give them the facilities which they deserve. Charles Royden

Hymn for Sunday

- 1 Head of thy church, whose Spirit fills
And flows through every faithful soul,
Unites in mystic love, and seals
Them one, and sanctifies the whole:
- 2 'Come, Lord!' thy glorious Spirit cries;
And souls beneath the altar groan;
'Come, Lord,' the bride on earth replies,
'And perfect all our souls in one!'
- 3 Pour out the promised gift on all,
Answer the universal 'Come!'
The fullness of the Gentiles call,
And take thine ancient people home.
- 4 To thee let all the nations flow,
Let all obey the gospel word;
Let all their suffering Saviour know,
Filled with the glory of the Lord.
- 5 O for thy truth and mercy's sake
The purchase of thy passion claim;
Thine heritage, the nations, take
And cause the world to know thy name!

Rest In Peace. It was with great sadness that we heard this week of the death of Stella Fensome. Stella was a lovely lady who has worshipped at Putnoe Heights every week for many years. Stella was worshipping with us at Putnoe Heights only a few weeks ago, in spite

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
