Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church have been given by Dawn Allinson in loving memory of her husband Maurice

Also by Liz Hayward in memory of her mother Olive Betts.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the Foyers.

Banns of Marriage

We publish the banns and pray for the marriage of Graham Paul Hornsby and Alice May Court, both of this parish to be married at St Pandiona & St John the Baptist Church Eltisle (third time of reading)

Prayer for Sunday

We bind unto ourselves the name, the strong name of the Trinity, by invocation of the same, the three in one and one in three, of whom all nature has creation, eternal Father, Spirit, Word; praise to the God of our salvation; salvation is of Christ the Lord. Amen

Trinity

Sentence of Scripture Acts 1:8

You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses .

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Bible Reading Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory." At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty." Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

(This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading - Romans 8:12-17

Brothers and sisters, we have an obligation - but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it. For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live, because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs - heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

(This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 3:1-17

(Please stand when the reading is announced)- Glory to Christ our Saviour

There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council. He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi, we know you are a teacher who has come from God. For no-one could perform the miraculous signs you are doing if God were not with him." In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no-one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again."

"How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!"

Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit." "How can this be?" Nicodemus asked.

"You are Israel's teacher," said Jesus, "and do you not understand these things? I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony. I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? No-one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven - the Son of Man. Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him."

(This is the Gospel of Christ — Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Sentence

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen

Hymns for Sunday (Holy Communion with PCH booklets and Mission Praise where requested)

1. Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
2. Father we love you
3. Sing of a God in majestic divinity (attached, circulated by Clive)
4. O breath of Life come sweeping through us.

Commentary Trinity Sunday

Trinity Sunday is a gift! It is a time given over to thinking about who God is. This may sound simple, but it is something that even the most scholarly or dedicated Christians can find hard because of the knowledge that, logically, something cannot be both three and one! Trinity Sunday celebrates the fact that we encounter God in contradictory ways; through prayer, scripture and experience. Each of these are equally valuable and they all add to our whole understanding.

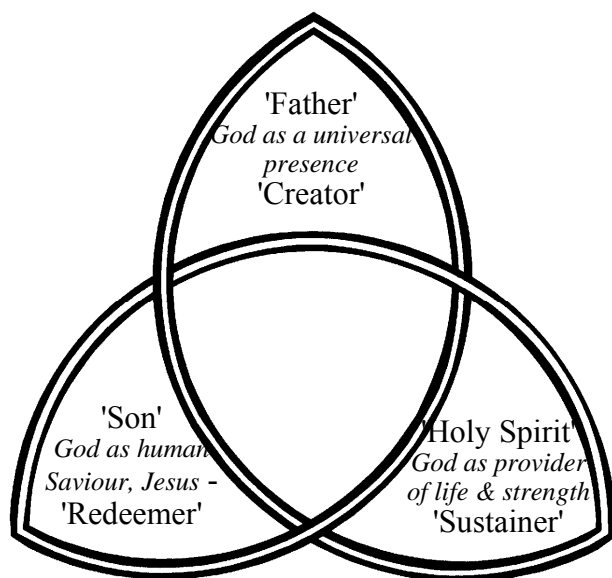

The word Trinity is not found in our readings, yet each of them explores one experience of each part; the vision of a Heavenly God in Isaiah, the account of Jesus explaining to Nicodemus the need to be born again, and the exploration of 'life in the Spirit' in Romans.

At each stage in our lives we may be drawn to a different part of this multi-faceted God, maybe as we cling to that heavenly love in the face of dark times, perhaps holding on to the example of Christ as we seek the best way to move forward or maybe we are keenly aware that the Spirit gives us the strength to do what is required. For most of us it may be unnecessary, or perhaps even unwise, to try to understand the whole of God; who can do this? I would suggest that all that is asked of us is that we each attempt to discern what God is saying to us at any given time.

Personally I find it helpful to think of the Trinity as similar to our own state of humanity, with three equally important aspects, namely; mind, body and spirit (or soul). This is especially appropriate today, as we include the opportunity for prayers for healing within our service. The Journey to Wholeness can seem at odds with today's society, with its apparent obsession with avoiding the effects of illness and aging, that risks focusing on care for the body only, and dismissing the needs of mental and spiritual health. Paul is sometimes understood to be saying that we have a body, which is largely irrelevant, and a Spirit which is all important. On some level this is true, yet we all have a duty to look after the body we are given in order to carry out the mission we are given, as St Teresa of Avila puts in in her well known prayer;

*Christ has no body now, but yours.
No hands, no feet on earth, but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which he looks
With compassion on this world.*

We maintain our earthly bodies by being physically active, eating well, getting enough sleep and avoiding excess. We also need to manage our emotions the best we can, to make healthy choices, and maintain our spirituality through personal and corporate prayer, worship and bible study, along with the 'secular' hobbies and activities we enjoy. Our mind-set can transform the person we are, and the things we do, for good or for bad. For example if we are happy we smile and share that, but if we have been hurt we can risk lashing out and hurting those who are actually trying to help or console us. Personally I find that, when I am busy, it is my personal spirituality which suffers first – This must be a common weakness as I cannot count the number of Christian meetings I have been to where prayer feels like an afterthought, or is treated as an 'only if we have time' consideration, when it should surely be a priority, as it inevitably helps things move more smoothly!

So, as we engage with our worship today, let each of us offer to God our whole self, all that we are, and let each be aware that we are loved, and God can and does offer healing, not just of our bodies but also of our minds and our Spirit. Maybe this healing is not in the way we hope or imagine, yet we are given the strength to cope and the companions to share our journey with, and we find we are blessed indeed. I leave you with the final words of St Teresa's prayer, words that are as true today as when she wrote them in the 16th century;

*Let nothing disturb you. Let nothing frighten you.
All things pass away: God never changes.
Patience obtains all things. Those who have God
Find they lack nothing; God alone suffices.*

Amen to that! Deacon Jane Mills

Meditation

I wonder if you have ever been lucky enough to discover that you are heir to an estate? Well imagine that you receive a letter from a solicitor to tell you that you have a long lost relative who has made you their heir and that you have inherited an estate. Your financial worries are over and your future looks bright, how would you feel? For most people it would be a huge surprise and also welcome news, however for some people it would come as a huge relief, especially for those who were worried about their future prospects. This would be great reassurance and a source of comfort. Well spiritually this is exactly the kind of news which we read in Romans this morning. We are told that we are God's children and not only that we are also heirs, in fact we are joint heirs with Jesus! We are assured that there is nothing of which we need to be afraid of in the future, because we have been invited to enjoy God's blessing. God has a future planned which involves the giving of his love which will pour out to all humankind and all creation. This is the gift of God's unconditional love expressed through Jesus which includes us, and we are told in the reading from John, also includes the whole cosmos.

Prayers for Trinity Sunday and the week ahead

Let us remember God the Father in Creation

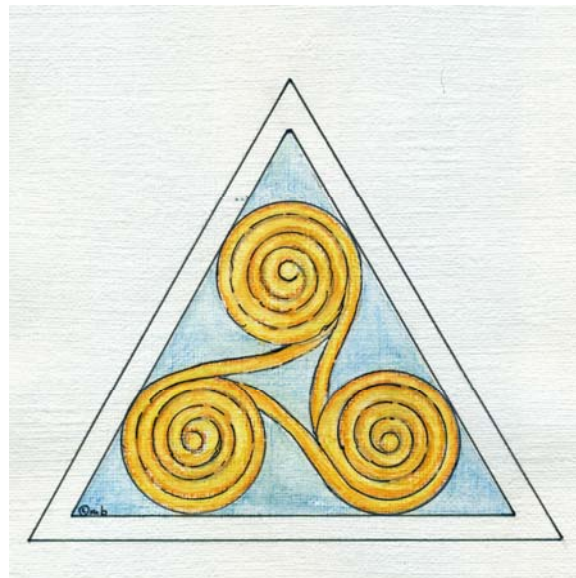

O God, the Father, we thank you for your creating power.
That you have made all things and made them well;
That you have given us all things richly to enjoy;
For the beauty and the bounty of this fair earth;
And for the creating power which can make all things new: We thank you. O Father.

Let us remember God the Son in Redemption

O Lord Jesus Christ the Son, we thank you for your redeeming power.
That you loved us and gave yourself for us;
That you gave your life a ransom for many, a ransom for us.
That you were obedient unto death, even the death of the Cross:
We thank you, O Christ.

Let us remember God the Spirit in Providence

O Holy Spirit of God, we thank you for your keeping power.
For the guidance you have given us,
For the knowledge you have brought us;
For your continual upholding, strengthening, protecting power:
We thank you, O Spirit of God.

BELIEF'S Spring course entitled "Reading the Putnoe Heights "Missions knitting and crochet group". Knit-a-square for KasCare, providing comfort for orphans and vulnerable children in South Africa. <http://www.knit-a-square.com> a mission project for everyone. We could meet once a month; knit at home; donate wool or postage to send the items we have made. KasCare likes knitted and crochet 8 inch squares sent to them to make blankets to keep children warm. For more details speak to Carolyn Morris or visit their website for patterns and instructions.

Footprints Walk Sunday 7 June. A 4mile walk around Pavenham, partly by the river so boots recommended. Parking along the main street so please car share if possible. More details Warwick.holden@ntlworld.com

St Mark's Clothes collections Thank you to everybody who is using the clothes collection bank at St Mark's. We have now raised over £300 from two collections which is an enormous amount for such a short time. We really want to keep this going so please do drop of clothes, curtains and any other unwanted textiles shoes or handbags. Wherever possible they are reused and so this is a great way to help others and the environment whilst raising money for church funds.

Help with Storage Do you have any space in a dry environment such as a garage or even a shed where we could store a marquee for church use. We are considering purchasing the marquee for the Mission and then using for events such as the annual Brickhill fete.

The Methodist Church in Britain has published the report of an independent review of past safeguarding cases related to the Church from 1950 to 2014. Speaking on behalf of the Church, the Secretary of the Methodist Conference and General Secretary the Revd Dr Martyn Atkins has issued a full and unreserved apology to survivors and victims of abuse in response to the report: "On behalf of the Methodist Church in Britain I want to express an unreserved apology for the failure of its current and earlier processes fully to protect children, young people and adults from physical and sexual abuse inflicted by some ministers in Full Connexion and members of the Methodist Church. That abuse has been inflicted by some Methodists on children, young people and adults is and will remain a deep source of grief and shame to the Church."

The independent past cases review considered all safeguarding cases for which there were written records and those recalled from memory by ministers and members of the Church going back to 1950. In each identified case, the Church's response was reviewed on whether it had been safe, pastorally appropriate and compliant with current legislation and policy. The review, which has taken three years, was led by former Deputy Chief Executive of Barnardo's Jane Stacey, who has had a long career in senior management of organisations in the child welfare field.

"It was a courageous act for the Methodist Church to launch such a comprehensive Past Cases Review. Even more courageous was the response from the survivors or victims who relived very difficult experiences to contribute to the review, either directly or through a third party. However thorough the review has been, there are undoubtedly cases that have not been reported and the Church would encourage survivors and victims and those with any information to contact the Safeguarding Team: safeguarding@methodistchurch.org.uk. They will be listened to and support will be offered.

Help with Fire A local pre-school family have lost all their possessions in a house fire in Mersey Way. They have a son of 8 years and a daughter of 4 years. Any donations, gratefully received, to St Mark's Church Office which will be forwarded on to family. A payment fund has been set up by Lindsey Ashpole: www.gofundme.com

Car Boot Success. Thanks to everybody who helped in the enormously successful car boots sale which raised a massive £1212.74. We served a massive 40lbs of bacon in sandwiches on a beautiful day which was a real community event.

Visit of the Archbishop of Canterbury to St Albans Diocese: June 2015 Sustaining Ministry and Personal Faith - Thursday 18 June 2015 at 7.15pm. We have four requests for this event and this is the last chance to be included !

Friends for Life is holding a Volunteer Induction Session on Saturday 6 June at Priory Methodist Church, Bedford. Friends for Life seeks to reduce isolation amongst Care Home residents by providing Personal Befrienders to visit residents who have few or no visitors. This work is very flexible and highly rewarding. If you can spare just half an hour each fortnight to massively enhance the life of a Care Home resident, please consider volunteering. Further sessions will take place in July, September and November. For more information please contact Joanne Barrow on 01234 213038; barrow.ffl@virginmedia.com or visit www.friendsforlifebedford.org.uk

Partnership Mission

Bishop Richard is joining us in the Partnership on the week commencing 13 July and he will be preaching at both services on Sunday 19 July. During the week he will be visiting schools, lunch Club, Anjuluta Court, and as many church activities as possible.

Please put these dates in your diary

Tuesday 14 July at St Mark's Church - an evening exploring the Christian faith with the Bishop addressing questions. There will be entertainment and refreshments provided.

Saturday 18 July

- During the day we will be providing a Church marquee for the Brickhill on the Green Fete.
- In the evening we are having a Caribbean Evening at Putnoe Heights with food and entertainment.

Ways you can help

- Make sure that you invite the Bishop to any activities which you have going on - speak with one of the ministers
- Please remember the Bishop and the Partnership Mission in your prayers and use these great opportunities to invite friends so invite them along to the Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday services.

There will be more information nearer the time

A Hymn for Sunday

Sing of a God in majestic divinity, seeding the heavens with numberless stars,
forming the dust and our dreams of infinity,
God of our lives and the judge of our wars.

Sing of a Child who was cradled so tenderly,
sing of a boyhood by Galilee's lake;
sing of a cross and a Saviour who wondrously suffered and died for humanity's sake.

Sing of a Spirit who daily addressing us,
lives in our sciences, nature and arts;
moving through all of creation and blessing us,
guiding our minds and engaging our hearts.

Sing of this God who in glory and mystery chooses to lie in humanity's womb, enters the prison and pain of our history,
rises triumphant and opens the tomb.

Tune: Was lebet (H&P 505: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness)

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office

Kathleen Eileen Richards
Horace Allan Lavia

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.
