Ordinary 14 Year A (Green)
Family Service 3 July 2005

Welcome

Verse of Scripture Psalm 141 v 2

May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice

(please join with words in bold type)

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you

All and also with you

This is the day that the Lord has made

All Let us rejoice and be glad in it

We have come together in the name of Christ to offer our praise and thanksgiving, to hear and receive God's holy word, to pray for the needs of the world, and to seek the forgiveness of our sins, that by the power of the Holy Spirit we may give ourselves to the service of God.

Hymn

How sweet the name of Jesus sounds 251 Mission Praise

Confession

Jesus says, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' So let us turn away from our sin and turn to Christ, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

All God of mercy and of love
We have failed to walk in the way of your justice
We have abused our stewardship of your creation
We have been happy to accept the divisions
Between rich and poor
Between black and white
Between powerful and powerless
So contrary to your will
For human flourishing
We beg you to forgive us and heal us
That we may walk humbly again with you, our God.

The Lord enrich you with his grace, and nourish you with his blessing; the Lord defend you in trouble and keep you from all evil; the Lord accept your prayers, and absolve you from your offences, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen

The Offering

*After the offering is collected it is to be brought forward.
The people stand as it is presented and say*

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendour, and the majesty; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours. All things come from you, and of your own do we give you.

HYMN
Lord of the Dance

I danced in the morning
When the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon
And the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven
And I danced on the earth,
At Bethlehem, I had my birth.

*Dance, then, wherever you may be,
I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he*

I danced for the scribe
And the pharisee,
But they would not dance
And they wouldn't follow me.
I danced for the fishermen,
For James and John -
They came with me
And the Dance went on.

I danced on the Sabbath
And I cured the lame;
The holy people
Said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped
And they hung me on high,
And they left me there
On a Cross to die.

I danced on a Friday
When the sky turned black -
It's hard to dance
With the devil on your back.
They buried my body
And they thought I'd gone,
But I am the Dance,
And I still go on.

They cut me down
And I leapt up high;
I am the life
That'll never, never die;
I'll live in you
If you'll live in me -
I am the Lord
Of the Dance, said he.

The Baptism

We bring these children whom God has entrusted to us and claim for them all that Christ has won for us. Christ loves them and is ready to receive them with the arms of his mercy and to give them the blessing of eternal life. Children are brought to be baptized with water as a sign of the new life in Christ and to be made members of God's family the Church.

The Water is Blessed

Almighty God whose Son Jesus Christ was baptized in the River Jordan: we thank you for the gift of water to cleanse and revive us. Bless this water that your servants who are washed in it may be made one with Christ in his death and in his resurrection, to be cleansed and delivered from all sin. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to bring them to new birth in the family of your Church, and raise them with Christ to full and eternal life. For all might, majesty, authority and power are yours, now and for ever. Amen

The Promises of the Church

Congregation, please stand

Members of the Body of Christ, who are now in his name to receive these children, will you so maintain the common life of worship and service that they and all children in this church may grow in grace and in the knowledge and love of God and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord?

With God's help, we will

Congregation say

Heavenly Father, in your love you have called us to know you, led us to trust you, and bound our life with yours. Surround these children with your love; protect them from evil; fill them with your Holy Spirit and receive them into the family of your church; that they may walk with us in the way of Christ and grow in the knowledge of your love. Amen.

The Promises of Parents and Godparents

On occasions of baptisms of more than one child, parents and godparents of the children will be invited to gather around the font individually as directed. Please bring with you your service sheets. The minister says to the parents and godparents

Those who bring children to be baptized must affirm their allegiance to Christ and their rejection of all that is evil. It is your duty to bring up this child to fight against evil and to follow Christ. Therefore I ask these questions which you must answer for yourselves and for this child.

Minister	Do you turn to Christ?
Parents and godparents	I turn to Christ
	Do you repent of your sins?
	I repent of my sins
	Do you renounce evil?
	I renounce evil

The Minister speaks to the parents

Do you then present your child to be baptized?

Parents please respond We do

The Minister takes the child to be baptised and says:

(Name) I baptize you in the name of the Father,
 and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.
 I sign with the cross, the sign of Christ.
 Do not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified.

The minister will invite the congregation to say:

Fight valiantly under the banner of Christ against sin, the world and the devil, and continue his faithful soldier and servant to the end of your life.

The Giving of a Lighted Candle

The parents and children who have been baptised gather together and a lighted candle is given to each child. The minister says,

Receive this light...this is to show that you have passed from darkness to light.

The congregation will be invited to respond:

Shine as a light in the world to the glory of God the Father.

The Welcome

Representing the whole Church we all welcome the newly baptized children.

Minister: God has received you by baptism into his Church.

All say: We welcome you into the Lord's family.
We are members together of the Body of Christ:
We are children of the same heavenly Father:
We are inheritors together of the Kingdom of God.
We welcome you.

The Bible Readings

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading – Zechariah Chapter 9 : 9 - 12

Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the war-horses from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth. As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit. Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope; even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Romans Chapter 7 : 15 – 25a

Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! But in order that sin might be recognised as sin, it produced death in me through what was good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do— this I keep on doing. Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it. So I find this law at work: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. For in my inner being I delight in God's law; but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God— through Jesus Christ our Lord! (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Third Reading –Matthew Chapter 11 : 16 - 19, 25 - 30

"To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the market-places and calling out to others:" 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn.' For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners".' But wisdom is proved right by her actions." At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure. "All things have been committed to me by my Father. No-one knows the Son except the Father, and no-one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." (This is the word of the Lord—Thanks be to God)

Commentary for the Bible Readings for Ordinary 14

By The Reverend Dr Sam Cappleman.

Commentary : Attributed to John Chrysostom I am gentle and humble in heart

Our Master is always the same, gentle and benevolent. In his constant concern for our salvation, he says explicitly in the gospel just read to us:

Come, learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

What great condescension on the part of the Creator! And yet the creature feels no shame!

Come, learn from me.

The Master came to console his fallen servants. This is how Christ treats us. He shows pity when a sinner deserves punishment. When the race that angers him deserves to be annihilated, he addresses the guilty ones in the kindly words:

Come, learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

God is humble, and we are proud! The judge is gentle; the criminal arrogant! The potter speaks in lowered voice; the clay discourses in the tones of a king!

Come, learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

Our master carries a whip not to wound, but to heal us. Reflect upon his indescribable kindness. Who could fail to love a master who never strikes his servants? Who would not marvel at a judge who beseeches a condemned criminal? Surely the self-abasement of these words must astound you.

I am the Creator and I love my work. I am the sculptor and I care for what I have made. If I thought of my dignity, I should not rescue fallen humankind. If I failed to treat its incurable sickness with fitting remedies, it would never recover its strength. If I did not console it, it would die. If I did nothing but threaten it, it would perish. This is why I apply the salve of kindness to it where it lies. Compassionately I bend down very low in order to raise it up. No one standing erect can lift a fallen man without putting a hand down to him.

Come, learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

I do not make a show of words; I have left you the proof of my deeds. You can see that I am gentle and humble in heart from what I have become. Consider my nature, reflect upon my dignity, and marvel at the condescension I have shown you. Think of where I came from, and of where I am as I speak to you. Heaven is my throne, yet I talk to you standing on the earth! I am glorified on high, but because I am long-suffering I am not angry with you, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

(Homily on Saint Bassus: Bareille, t. 4, 509-510)

Meditation

Rabbis spoke of the yoke of the Law, with its many regulations, as something people took on themselves to steer and guide them down God's paths in life. And it seems to have been a common complaint, addressed above all to the Scribes and Pharisees as interpreters of God's Law, that their teachings had become complicated and difficult to follow, a burden rather than a guide to holy living, a set of rules which were turning people away from God rather than to Him. By contrast, Jesus' way is not a complex set of rules - He merely says love God and love each other. His invitation is beautiful in its simplicity. It is not a summons to idol worship of Jesus, but a call to learn a new way, especially a new way of interpreting and understanding God's will. It is not a call to heaviness, but a call to lightness of being. It contrasts with the serious calls of those who would interpret scripture as demand and stricture as the Rabbis did of old. Modern reformers and spiritual leaders could well take a lesson from Jesus' principal challengers. Spiritual elitism repels many more than it attracts. The best guides are those who practice what they preach.

Things are not always what they seem!

In Jesus' time work animals (usually oxen) worked in pairs, yoked together by a hand-carved wooden frame to share the load. The design pressed against the windpipes of horses and choked them, so work horses weren't used in the field until the invention of the horse collar and harness much later in Northern Europe. In the Gospel passage Jesus is offering us the opportunity to share our load with Him. He also identifies his mission with John the Baptist's; but explains that they are different. John's mission was to proclaim the imminent arrival of the Kingdom and urge people to be ready for it. In Jesus not only is the kingdom announced; it is coming to reality, both now and in the future.

The words from the Gospel reading, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.", were known in the Book of Common Prayer as The Comfortable Words and were said by the Priest right after the Confession and Absolution in the service of Holy Communion. They were introduced with the words, "Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all that truly turn to him...". They reminded us of the hope we have in God, of our renewed reconciliation and peace we have with Him through our new life in Christ.

God had given his people basic guidelines for holy life, but the Pharisees had ended up making God's Law inaccessible and impossible to follow. Jesus assures his disciples that by learning and interpreting God's Law in His way, they will not be intimidated by complexity or burdened, and condemned to failure, by the minutiae of details and esoteric interpretation. Jesus points out the original simplicity of God's Covenant and Law, and demonstrates that all they need to guide and steer them is a simple uncomplicated faith in Him, through which everyone can find true peace, rest, and refreshment.

By putting the Comfortable Words back into the context of Matthew's Gospel, they have a depth that sometimes is not immediately obvious from their Eucharistic setting. Absolution and forgiveness is not conditional upon our ability to follow complicated rules, but is a gift from God, given freely out of His incomparable and compassionate riches. And as we find peace, refreshment and rest for ourselves we are called to live the kind of lives through which others, too, can find God's peace, God's refreshing grace, and the joy of placing their lives in God's hands.

In taking Jesus' yoke upon us we not only share our burdens with Him, He asks us to share His burden too. Our mission, like John's, is to proclaim the imminent arrival of the Kingdom and urge people to be ready for it. It's also like Jesus', to demonstrate this kingdom is a reality, both now and in the future. God will not ask too much from us, nor should we offer too little. His yoke is there to guide us, not to choke us. And we have the assurance that being yoked together, walking in step with God, we are never far from each other. Sam Cappleman.

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Praise to you, God, for all your work among us. Yours is the vigour in creation, yours is the impulse in our new discoveries. Make us adventurous, yet reverent and hopeful in all we do. Amen.

Lord, quieten us down, as we place into your hands those for whom we want to pray. We know that you love them with a greater love than we could ever imagine. In the stillness we are here, with you, for them. Amen

Lord God, we thank you for calling us into the company of those who trust in Christ and seek to obey His will. May your Spirit guide and strengthen us in mission and service to your world; for we are strangers no longer but pilgrims together on the way to your Kingdom. Amen

Prayer of the Inter Church Process (The Swanwick Declaration)

God the Sender, send you; God the Sent, go with us; God the Strengtheners of those who go, empower you, that you may go to do His will; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
