Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Margery and Harry Charie and by Marie and Roy Laird, to mark their respective wedding anniversaries.

The flowers at St Mark's Church this week celebrate the wedding anniversaries of Barbara Joy and Elizabeth Bean

Prayer for Sunday

Blessed Lord, be to me at all times
my unending joy, my eternal bliss
and my enduring comfort.
Be to me light in the darkness,
strength in temptation
and refreshment in the desert.
Grant that, penitent for my sins,
I may never be separated from you
and, longing for your face,
I may behold you in heaven;
for your own name's sake. Amen.

Margery Kempe, c.1373-c.1433

Telecare

It is extremely helpful to the Ministers to be able to have feed back, especially if somebody is poorly or in hospital. If you have not yet put your name down, please do so. Additional members of the Pastoral Team are sharing the task of making telephone calls. Please do not be concerned if a new person calls.

Friendship Sunday

Opening Verse

Jesus said "I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you." (John 15.12)

Introduction.

In today's service we shall celebrate friendship, giving thanks to God from whom all love and friendship comes. We shall praise God for the friends that He has sent us, in the past and in the present. We shall see how Jesus loved the friends he knew in his own time and how he feels that deep love for us.

Thank God
for good friends !

Hymn What a Friend we have in Jesus, Mission Praise 746

Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Heavenly Father, we give you thanks for our friends: For those who make us laugh

We thank you, God.

For those who share our games, dance with us, enjoy life with us,

We thank you, God.

For the friends who stay with us when we are sad, when we are ill or afraid.

We thank you, God. Amen

Confession

In a few moments of quiet we call to mind our friends, whether we see them now or not. We give thanks for them, for all that they have meant to us, for the ways in which they have helped us.

A silence is kept

We think about the kind of friend we would like to be. We think of the times when we have let our friends down, when we have failed to be kind to the people we meet. We say to God:

Father God, we ask you to forgive us when we have failed to be a good friend. We are sorry for the times we were too busy to help or to listen. Help us to see when someone needs us and to be a better friend to them. Amen

The offering is taken up

Offering Prayer

Gracious God, accept these gifts, and with them our lives to be used to your praise and glory. Amen

Hymn Be Bold, be strong 49 Mission Praise

Collect Prayer

God who is both father and mother, closest companion and dearest friend, be with us through every stage of our lives and guide us in the way that leads to Heaven. Amen

First Bible Reading Exodus 18: 9-27

Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians. He said, "Praise be to the LORD, who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from the hand of the Egyptians. Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods, for he did this to those who had treated Israel arrogantly." Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God. The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people, and they stood around him from morning till evening. When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he said, "What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand around you from morning till evening?" Moses answered him, "Because the people come to me to seek God's will. Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties and inform them of God's decrees and laws." Moses' father-in-law replied, "What you are doing is not good. You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone. Listen now to me and I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people's representative before God and bring their disputes to him. Teach them the decrees and laws, and show them the way to live and the duties they are to perform. But select capable men from all the people—men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain—and appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. That will make your load lighter, because they will share it with you. If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied." Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. He chose capable men from all Israel and made them leaders of the people, officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. They served as judges for the people at all times. The difficult cases they brought to Moses, but the simple ones they decided themselves. Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own country. (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading John 18:25-28

As Simon Peter stood warming himself, he was asked, "You are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it, saying, "I am not." One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, challenged him, "Didn't I see you with him in the olive grove?" Again Peter denied it, and at that moment a rooster began to crow. Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness the Jews did not enter the palace; they wanted to be able to eat the Passover.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Address (at Putnoe a presentation by Storybox plus)

Hymn Think of a world without any flowers ( Page 8 of Partnership News)

Prayers

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in Heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

Hymn As the deer pants for the water 37 Mission Praise

Final Prayer and Blessing

Commentary

Trinity Sunday is a special time in the church year when we remember who God is, Father Son and Holy Spirit, The Holy Trinity. This is at the heart of what it means to be a Christian and yet it is very difficult to believe that God can be one and three. Of course it is beyond human understanding, God is a mystery to us and it would be a remarkable thing if we were able to capture God within the measure of our human mind. The Christian teaching about the Trinity is not mean to be an explanation of God, rather it is a way of describing what we know about God, even though we know that humanly speaking it is beyond our reason. Read more in our Bible Notes

The word 'Trinity' is not used by Jesus, it is not found in the Bible at all, yet faith in the Holy Trinity is the touchstone of what it means to be a Christian. Those who do not believe in God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit cannot use the term Christian to describe themselves—Jehovah's Witnesses, Christadelphians etc.

Trinity Sunday is a special Sunday because we think about who God is—the Trinity of Father, Son, and Spirit. Even the most committed Christians find this hard because we all know that something cannot be individually three and also completely one. But this Sunday expresses and celebrates the fact that we encounter God in contradictory ways.

In our world there are some certain simple truths, like - 'water is generally wet.' But when we start to speak about things which really matter - like God, then we soon find out that we run out of words. Human language and thoughts simply fail to work. Truth is no more easily reduced to trite slogans than the scientific explanation of the creation of this wonderful world can be reduced to two chapters of Genesis. Through history we can see times when people have imagined that they did possess understanding and knowledge of God. But, actually this is an illusion, faith is not built upon the measure of the human mind.

As Christians we need to be honest about our inability to explain God. It would be wonderful to be able to speak of God in certain and simple truths, but if we are honest, certainty is the property of fools, not the learned. Those who are more intellectually secure will usually admit that the more that we find out - the less we seem to know. Issues are only seen in simple terms of black and white by the simplistic and those who seek to lead them.

Whilst the word Trinity is not found in the Bible, the belief which it expresses is stated many times. The early Christians soon discovered that they simply could not speak of God without speaking of the three ways in which he had revealed himself to them. This does not mean that there are three Gods. It means that there is one God who has shown himself in three ways: God the Father, God the Son or Jesus, and Holy Spirit of God who came to them and made God alive in them. Charles Royden

Meditation

To God, our ability is less important than our availability. Our ability can even get in the way if it obscures God's role in our achievement.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

We pray for our nation and those set in authority over us and for all the rulers and nations of this world. We ask that you would endue them with your spirit of justice and of compassion that peace may prevail. Lord God, especially we ask, that all people may enjoy the benefits of this great world which you have created. We pray for a more equal sharing, that all may prosper and share the blessings which you pour out upon the world. Amen.

Father we are concerned about the world and its conflicts and we are fearful of the hatred and bitterness which causes such waste of human life. Bring peace to those who are anxious and may we learn your lessons of peace and forgiveness. We pray for those in other lands and in our own country also who experience injustice and oppression, for those who hunger and cannot find food, for those who thirst and have no drink.

Gracious God, you have richly blessed us and yet so often we fail to thank you for these blessings. Instead we focus on what bothers us, what afflicts us, and we cry out, not in faith, but in doubt. Lord when we become mired in anger and despair and help us to have a faith that perseveres.

St Albans Woodland Burial Trust. The Consecration of the Woodland will take place on 7 June at approximately 2.00pm. Prior to the consecration of the woodland, the Bishop of Bedford will also consecrate the extension to the Garden of Remembrance at St Mark's at 1.00pm

A Hymn for Sunday

Think of a world without any paintings
Think of a room where all the walls are bare
Think of a rainbow without any colours
Think of the earth with darkness everywhere.
We thank you, Lord, for paintings and for colours
We thank you, Lord, and praise your holy name.

Think of a world without any poetry
Think of a book without any words
Think of a song without any music
Think of a hymn without any verse.
We thank you, Lord, for poetry and music,
We thank you, Lord, and praise your holy name.

Think of a world without any science
Think of a journey with nothing to explore
Think of a quest without any mystery
Nothing to seek and nothing left in store.
We thank you, Lord, for miracles of science,
We thank you, Lord, and praise your holy name.

Think of a world without any people
Think of a street with no-one living there
Think of a town without any houses
No-one to love and nobody to care.
We thank you, Lord, for families and friendships,
We thank you, Lord, and praise your holy name.

Christian Aid collection for Putnoe Heights raised the best ever sum of £1515. Sincere thanks to all who collected and organised.

An evening of Song and the Gershwin Story by The Moonlighters (based at Blunham) and Rex Walford on Saturday 23 June at 7.30pm at Putnoe Heights Church. Tickets £6 (concessions £4) from Liz Rume (01767 313742) or Liz Calvert (01234 358100) or on the door. Refreshments included.

The new Pentecost banner, created by Val Morgan and Maureen Watling was displayed at Putnoe last Sunday. We thank them both for their excellent work.

Bedford Cricketing Saints & Warthogs.

Help support www.ThisChurch.com

Our church website www.thischurch.com provides an outstanding ministry across the world. We provide a massive range of Christian resources including prayers, sermons, and Christian teaching. Every week we respond individually to prayer requests sent from many different countries. Money raised from purchases made through our website at Amazon helps support the cost of the web site. Please use Amazon whenever you can to buy books, electronic goods, CD's, computer supplies etc. Amazon is always one of the cheapest places to shop and delivery is free with orders over £15. We are always happy to receive your goods during the day at St Mark's Church office. It is important that you only visit Amazon by clicking on the link on our church website—that way we get the commission, which is generally about 5% of the total cost of the item. This year so far we have raised £46.75 but it could be so much more if we all used Amazon!

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'

Rest in Peace
