Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Stephen and Pauline Clare on their 24th wedding anniversary, and by Lucy Hedley in memory of her husband, Bill, on the day of her granddaughter's christening.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion, an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights)

Prayer for Sunday

Praise to you, O Lord our God, for the voice of the prophets calling us to obedience, for the melody of the psalmist inviting us to praise, for the wisdom of the proverbs informing our conscience and for the record of salvation leading us to faith in your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Lancelot Andrewes, 1555-1626

All Saints Sunday

Opening Verse Psalm 84: 1

You are my hiding place; you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.

Collect Prayer for the Day

Almighty God, you have knit together your chosen people in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord. Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys which you have prepared for those who love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

First Bible Reading - Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was lying on his bed. He wrote down the substance of his dream. Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea. Four great beasts, each different from the others, came up out of the sea. "I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me. I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this. "So he told me and gave me the interpretation of these things: 'The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth. But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever-yes, for ever and ever.'

(This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading - Ephesians 1: 11-23

In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession--to the praise of his glory For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is like the working of his mighty strength, which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way.

(This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Luke 6: 20-31

Looking at his disciples, he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when men hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. "Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their fathers treated the prophets. "But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort. Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets. "But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary

The word Hallow means 'Holy', (blessed, consecrated or set apart in a special way) and so 'All-Hallows' or 'All Saints' refers to the Saints—the Holy Ones who died for their faith or who lived extraordinary lives. This day dates back to the 5th century Antioch in Syria when the church dedicated a day to the memory of all those who had been killed for their faith. The theme of God's holiness permeates the entire Bible and as human beings we are invited to participate in the holiness of God through His Son, Jesus Christ. So today we continue to celebrate a Communion of Saints that embraces all Christians, past present and future; including those whose lives are not necessarily like us, or whose lives are not notably marked by saintliness! 'We live among saints but saints are not perfect. Their weaknesses and strengths are woven into our own'. But together we are part of that great community God calls His saints. Our own holiness starts then with a relationship with God through Jesus Christ, the mediator of all holiness. Our holiness also entails being in communion with one another and all the saints who have gone before us. Holiness therefore implies relationships; relationships which sometimes make it feel like it's very difficult to be holy!

But however challenging some of our relationships seem, it's impossible to be in communion alone. God's own holiness is part of being in communion, a communion of Father, Son, and Spirit dwelling together in love. To enter into a relationship with God is to enter into a relationship with all who share in that same fellowship of God; past, present and future. Just as we are called into a relationship with God, we are called into a relationship with each other, the Communion of Saints, the Priesthood of all believers. In our gospel reading Jesus reminds us that being His holy people, the Communion of Saints on earth, can be tough. We are to love those who are our enemies, to do good to those who hate us, pray for those who treat us badly and to turn the other cheek time and time again. Jesus also points out that the more we have, the harder it can be for us to be that kind of person because our personal riches can get in the way of the riches we inherit through Christ. Riches which enables us to be the holy people He wants us to be. This is the inheritance that Paul talks about in Ephesians. He speaks about the Holy Spirit being the pledge of our inheritance in Christ, an inheritance which God gives to all of us so that we can be truly free. Free to be ourselves, Free to be the people God on earth. Freedom to be the Communion of Saints and to be part of God's transforming and redeeming work.

It's our inheritance in Christ that links us back to the saints that have gone before us and forward to the saints that are to come. We are at the same time a part of that inheritance and guardians of it for future generations. As the saints before us have been examples for our lives, so we should set our sights on being Christian examples for those that will follow us. Examples that are based not on our worldly wealth or power but on our openness to God and our humility before Him as we live out His precepts in our lives. Sam Cappleman

Meditation

The book of Daniel is set in the days of the exile in Babylon and was probably written around 165 BC. It was written to give hope to the Jews who were suffering persecution under Antiochus IV Epiphanes, a Hellenistic ruler who tried to eliminate Judaism. The revelation through Daniel in our reading today reminds us that our earthly kingdoms, however powerful they may appear, will pass away to make way for the kingdom of God. As we remember those saints who have gone before us over the centuries we see the truth of the message of Daniel. Many kingdoms have passed away in the many centuries since the book of Daniel was written, but the kingdom of God remains strong through His people on earth. Earthly lives may pass away, but as Christians we are part of God's heavenly kingdom, an inheritance which will last for all eternity.

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

For all the saints who went before us,
Who have spoken to our hearts and touched us with your fire,
We praise you, O God

For all the saints who live beside us,
Whose weaknesses and strengths are woven into our own,
We praise you, O God

Who challenge us to change the world with them,
We praise you, O God

Janet Morley (in Bread of Tomorrow, Christian Aid and SPCK, 192, 2004)

O Lord, in every age you reveal yourself to the childlike and lowly of heart, and from every race you write names in your book of life, give us the simplicity and faith of your saints, that loving you above all things, we may be what you would have us be, and to do what you would have us do. So may we be numbered with your saints in glory everlasting. Amen.

Father God, you have brought us near to the spirits of those who have been made perfect, and to an innumerable company of angels; grant us during our earthly pilgrimage to abide in their fellowship, and in the heavenly country to become partakers of their joy. Amen

Lord God, we thank you for calling us into the company of those who trust in Christ and seek to obey His will. May your Spirit guide and strengthen us in mission and service to your world; for we are strangers no longer but pilgrims together on the way to your Kingdom. Amen Prayer of the Inter Church Process (The Swanwick Declaration)

May almighty God grant you to be numbered with the saints in glory everlasting; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Grant to us, Lord, the gift of inward happiness and the serenity that comes from living close to you. Renew in us each day the gift of joy that, bearing a good courage, we may meet what comes with a gallant heart, giving thanks to you in all things; through Christ our Lord. Amen. (Toc H Prayer)

Commemoration Service for the Faithful Departed.

11 November at 3.00 pm at St. Mark's Church

This year we are delighted that our speaker will be the Reverend Martin Hounsfield, Superintendent Minister.

All are invited to this very special service of remembrance. Following bereavement there can be a very deep sense of loss for many years, this service is found by many to be a great comfort. Please remember that we are always pleased to visit, if you feel that it would help to speak with somebody.

You may have been helped by one of our Pastoral Support Team and members will be present at this service. If you are able to remain behind after the service, tea and coffee will be served.

Our Book of Remembrance will be available to view in the chapel after the service and if you have not yet had an opportunity to make an entry somebody will be available to help you and take details.

Partnership' God Talk ' Group. For the last two years a group of women have been meeting on a Monday morning to pray, to share talks about God and enjoy each other's company. Since many of us are now working, we have decided to meet monthly on a Wednesday evening. We hope that you might like to join us. Our first meeting is on Wednesday December 8-9pm at the home of Claire Peck, 22 Brecon Way. Contact Majella Atkinson (group co-ordinator) on 325293 or Liz 302349

Tickets are now available for this performance at £12.50 each to include a glass of wine/juice and nibbles prior to the 7.45pm start of the show at the Mill Theatre, Sharnbrook. Tickets are available from Sue and Richard Butler (Tel: 354183) or Howard Lawrence (Tel: 267837). Please come, and bring your friends - we want this performance to be a sell-out!

Sunday Offerings at St Mark's Church

New sets of weekly offering envelopes are now available. There are a number of ways you can make regular gifts to St Mark's Church including the weekly offering envelopes, or by taking out a standing order, or by using the yellow Gift Aid envelopes left on the Church chairs each Sunday. In addition, if you are a UK tax payer, you can complete a declaration form and St Mark's can claim back the tax on the gifts you make through the above ways of giving – increasing your gift by 28%. If you don't currently make regular gifts to St Mark's and would like to find out more, please contact Jim Williams after the service or on 01234 360605.

St Mark's Christmas Craft Fayre

There are only 3 weeks left to our Annual Christmas Craft Fayre on Saturday 24th November 2007. We would be grateful for help with the following:- Tombola – Any NEW unwanted gifts\Christmas present etc. for our Tombola stall. Please bring any items up to the Church Office in the week beginning 19th November 2007.

Raffle – Raffle books are now available as for Sunday 21st October.

It would be appreciated if you could take a few books to sell to family and friends. We would also be grateful for any new items suitable for the raffle.

Cake Stall -Milly is kindly co-ordinating the cake stall again. If you are able to bake a cake for this stall please contact Milly via the Church Office.

Refreshments – We would very much appreciate donations of tray bakes to sell with tea and coffee. Ploughman's lunches will be on sale at lunchtime as usual. Volunteers to help in the kitchen on the day would be very much appreciated. To put your name down please see Avril Williams or Trudy Bunday. Any help gratefully received.

Secondhand Book Stall

Delia has very kindly volunteered to co-ordinate the second hand bookstall. Any good second hand books can be brought up to the Church anytime during the week beginning 19th November 2007.

This is one of our main fundraising events of the year and we are hoping to make it an even bigger success than last year, with your help I am sure we can achieve this. Thank you. Avril Williams

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office

Rex Gadsden

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.

Rest in Peace

The funeral of Mr George Mallows will be held at St Mark's Church on a date to be announced over the coming week. Please contact St Mark's office for details. Royden
