Ordinary 14

Sentence of Scripture —Matthew 11:28

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Servant Lord, grant us both the opportunity and the will to serve you day by day. May all that we do and how we bear each other's burdens be our offerings of love and service to the glory of your name. Amen. Methodist Worship

The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few
Jesus

First Reading— 2 Kings 5: 1-14

Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the Lord had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy. Now bands of raiders from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy."

Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said. "By all means, go," the king of Aram replied. "I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents[b] of silver, six thousand shekels[c] of gold and ten sets of clothing. The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: "With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy." As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!"

When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: "Why have you torn your robes? Have the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed."

But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be cleansed?" So he turned and went off in a rage.

Naaman's servants went to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed!'" So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Reading — Galatians 6 : 7-16

Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.

The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. See what large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand! Those who want to make a good impression outwardly are trying to compel you to be circumcised. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. Not even those who are circumcised obey the law, yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your flesh. May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is a new creation. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, even to the Israel of God.

(This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading – Luke 10: 1-11, 16-20

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road. "When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. Stay in that house, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house. "When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God is near you.' But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.'

"He who listens to you listens to me; he who rejects you rejects me; but he who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name." He replied, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

(This is the Word of the Lord –Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope; teach us ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Family Worship, Baptism booklets at St Mark's and Hymns Sheets)

1. Church of God, elect and glorious
2. How lovely on the mountains
3. We have a gospel to proclaim,
4. I, the Lord of sea and sky.
5. O God beyond all praising,

Commentary

In Chapter 9:1-6, Jesus sent the twelve on a mission; representing the twelve tribes of Israel. Now he sends the seventy or seventy two, representing the number of nations in Jewish tradition. Not only is the scope of the mission expanded by the larger number of participants, but the harvest metaphor also introduces a new urgency.

Some manuscripts tell that Jesus sent seventy and others read seventy-two, and we cannot determine with authority which is correct. The number almost certainly refers back to Genesis 10, where we find a list of seventy Gentile nations descended from Noah. A second Old Testament passage of significance might be Numbers 11:16-25, where Moses selected seventy elders to help him with his work.

Jesus sent two ahead of him into every city and place, where he was about to come. Deuteronomy 19:15 requires the testimony of two witnesses, and that is almost certainly why Jesus sends these disciples in pairs. However, going in pairs also strengthens resolve !

Then we have this harvest reference. The farmer works a year to prepare for the harvest, which must be accomplished when the crop is ready. Failure to do so is likely to be catastrophic. The meaning is clear for us, it is easy to sit in church, but we need labourers and we must pray that God will persuade the less active to become more active.

Given the urgency, we expect Jesus to tell the seventy to go quickly to begin the harvest. He will send them in verse 3, but first he commands them to pray. The work of disciples will be effective only as prayer undergirds it.

Jesus told his disciples that they would bear a cross and lose their lives (9:23-25). Now he warns them that he is sending them as defenceless lambs into the midst of wolves. It gets worse !

"Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals" (v. 4a). At the commissioning of the twelve Jesus gave similar instructions that they should carry no purse, wallet or sandals. The disciples are to trust in God to provide for their needs, and are not to encumber themselves with possessions. Since Jesus instructs his disciples to take a minimum of extras, perhaps we question whether he doesn't want us to be cluttered with material things that will distract us, something particularly challenging in a materialistic world. However we need to be realistic, whilst we appreciate Jesus' instruction to travel with little; to trust him and the message we bring, nevertheless there are situations that require we draw on material resources to provide for people's physical needs. Christians have had to raise money to build hospitals, orphanages, schools, housing and shelter for those in need. The ministry of Jesus and his disciples was also only made possible through the support of wealthy women.

Jesus tells the disciples that they should greet no one on the way, he is not calling disciples to be rude, but is rather telling them not to be side tracked by social niceties. The mission is urgent, and requires their full attention. While the seventy are not to be distracted by common courtesies along the road (v. 4), they are to observe them once they arrive at their destination. So that whatever house they enter they should say, 'Peace be to this house'" (v. 5). The peace offered is more than a simple greeting. It is a substantive gift — God's peace (Numbers 6:26; Isaiah 26:12; Luke 1:79; 2:14; Acts 10:36; Romans 5:1). Jesus calls the seventy to offer the peace without first trying to assess the worthiness of the recipient or to guess whether the recipient will accept or reject it.

They should then remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the labourer is worthy of his wages. Local residents are to provide hospitality for the seventy, who deserve to be supported (see Galatians 6:6; 1 Timothy 5:18). Jesus forbids them from moving house to house, they are to stay where they are and eat what they are given.

They are to heal the sick, those who are in need, and this is an act of compassion which draws attention to the message that the kingdom of God has come near. This combination of compassion and proclamation — deed and word — is a powerful form of witness.

If rejected, the disciples are to shake the dust from their feet, an act of repudiation. They are to do so publicly, stating their reason, and are to proclaim again, "the Kingdom of God has come near." This is warning, not retaliation — intended to convert — not to injure. Those who witness the repudiation might be persuaded to listen.

We are told that the seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name'" (v. 17). The disciples gained power and are overjoyed at the victory through their use of Jesus' name.

Meditation

An example of boldness and trust in God is Frances Xavier (Mother) Cabrini (1850-1917). She was born in Italy and wanted to be a missionary to China, but was sent by Pope Leo XIII, along with six sisters, to minister to the thousands of Italian immigrants living in New York City. In her 35 years she founded 67 institutions dedicated to serving the poor, abandoned, uneducated and sick. She was terrified of water, afraid of drowning. Still, she crossed the ocean more than 30 times. Pius XII said at her canonization, "Although her constitution was very frail... she permitted nothing to impede her from accomplishing what seemed beyond the strength of a woman." A story about Mother Cabrini tells that when she was discussing with her sisters the building of one more hospital. They protested that they did not have the resources for such an undertaking. Her response, "Whose work is it, God's or ours?" The hospital got built.

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Lord it is right and good to give you our thanks and praise, O God, for you have raised us up as a new creation and written our names in the book of life. You created the earth in your goodness and its plentiful harvest feeds your creatures. Through the law and prophets you revealed yourself as the God who heals us and makes us whole. Through Christ Jesus, whom you have robed in glory, you deliver us from the power of sin and death and send us as labourers into the harvest to proclaim your nearness, to immerse people into your healing waters, and to reap eternal life in your Spirit.

We pray to you Lord for your church and it's mission - the mission you have entrusted to us. Help us to be bold for you in the face of evil and injustice - and to show forth your healing power in the face of suffering and disease. Bless us as we share the good news of your love - that we may indeed be a blessing to others.

We pray to you Lord for the persons and situations that you have placed upon our hearts this day. Intercede, O Lord, and bring new hope, new joy, new life where it is needed. Send us as peacemakers and witnesses to your kingdom, and fill our hearts with joy in your promises of salvation; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Action for Children Will you join other box holders in the League of Light and shine hope into the lives of vulnerable children? The scheme began in 1932 and this year the lantern shaped home collecting box has been re-launched. We are grateful for all donations, large or small, I can supply you with a box if you add your name to the list in the Church foyer. You can make a difference to the children and young people we support. Nationwide box holders raise £500,000 annually. Thank you. M. Standley

Bowlers Beware! The annual cricket match between churches has slipped into history, but there is now an interest in a Bowls afternoon for teams representing local churches. Initial thoughts are for a Sunday afternoon before the end of September with teams from St Peters, Putnoe Heights, St Marks and St Andrews. Priory Bowls Club have offered to make their facilities available. Anyone interested in this suggestion, please contact John Handley on 342127 or Valerie Edwards on 409508.

It is early days yet but a great idea to put it in the diary now.

The Bishop of St Albans' Harvest Appeal 2013

A Sweeter Deal

Join us in supporting people in Ethiopia like Geji Tie, whose new beehives and beekeeping skills are making a world of difference to him and his family. Thank you.

For years, 78-year-old Geji Tie devoted time and energy into making a living through beekeeping and farming. But working alone, the results never quite seemed to match his efforts. So when Christian Aid partner, Action for Development (AFD), approached his community with the idea of setting up a beekeeping cooperative to improve honey production, Geji was keen to get involved. He has now learnt how to get the most from his hives, and with equipment provided by AFD, the cooperative is able to make more honey and sell it at a higher price at market.

Geji is delighted at the difference the project has made.

'I have so many beehives and about 20 of them are working. We are able to sell the honey at a higher price than usual. Things have certainly changed for me and my family. For instance, I am sending my children to school with the money I earn. I have more clothes so can change them more often. Before, whenever one of the family was sick it would take them more than a month to get better. Now, whenever a family member is sick we take them straight to the clinic and within a week they will be better. They get sick less often.'

Geji's cooperative has great hopes for the future to benefit the community. The members want to expand their business to include buying a flour-grinding machine and would even like to set up a community pharmacy. Thanks to the money from our appeal, many more farmers will be able to benefit from this support. So thank you so much for your gifts. They will make a real difference

Our Mission Appeal 2013. This year will be launched at harvest. We will be joining the St Albans Diocese in funding a project in Ethiopia that is teaching farmers about better beekeeping methods. Our gifts will make a real difference. New beehives and improved beekeeping skills are having a life-changing impact on people and communities in Ethiopia. Bees are vital pollinators; flying from flower to flower, they make connections that are fundamental to the life of our planet. The Bishop's Harvest Appeal is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our connected world and to make lifechanging, loving and lasting connections with people in Ethiopia.

£14 could pay for a protective veil and gloves to help beekeepers work without getting stung.

£85 could pay for a modern hive .

£207 could pay for a community honey-extractor machine for harvesting honey from hives efficiently.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
