Prayer for Easter Sunday

Christ is risen,
the world below lies desolate

Christ is risen
The spirits of evil are fallen

Christ is risen
The angles of God are rejoicing

Christ is risen
The tombs of the dead are empty

Christ is risen indeed from the dead
The first of the sleepers
Glory and power are his forever and ever.

Easter Sunday Liturgy

Minister: Alleluia! Christ is risen.

All: He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

The Easter Paschal candle is lit, saying

Minister: Jesus Christ yesterday and today the beginning and the end Alpha and Omega, all time belongs to him and all ages; to him be glory and power through every age and for ever.

Amen.

May the light of Christ, rising in glory banish all darkness from our hearts and minds.

The light of Christ

All: Thanks be to God

Opening Prayer

Risen Lord Jesus, as Mary Magdalene met you in the garden on the morning of your resurrection, so may we meet you today and every day: speak to us as you spoke to her; reveal yourself as the living Lord; renew our hope and kindle our joy; and send us to share the good news with others. Amen.

Collect Prayer for the Day

God of glory, by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and hell: full your Church with faith and hope; for a new day has dawned and the way of life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Common Worship Shorter Collect

First Bible Reading - Acts 10: 34-43

Then Peter began to speak: "I now realize how true it is that God does not show favouritism but accepts men from every nation who fear him and do what is right. You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, telling the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. You know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached— how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him. "We are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused him to be seen. He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading— 1 Corinthians 15: 19-26

If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men. But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. But each in his own turn: Christ, the first fruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. For he "has put everything under his feet." Now when it says that "everything" has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ. When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Gospel reading - John 20:1-18

(When the reading is announced 'Glory to Christ our Saviour)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) Then the disciples went back to their homes, but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?" "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. "Woman," he said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?" Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, 'I am returning to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.' "

Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that he had said these things to her.

(This is the Gospel of Christ -- Praise to Christ our Lord.)

Commentary

Debate continues about the resurrection of Jesus. Did Jesus literally come back from the dead? Is the resurrection only a myth, or worse, a hoax? Did Jesus arise physically in his earthly body or did he rise as a spirit? While polemics may go on forever, they cannot eclipse the fundamental belief of Christians, God raised Jesus and he appeared to his disciples. We believe this, however it happened. The "physics" involved in the resurrection are immaterial. What is important for us is that the seemingly catastrophic passion and death of Jesus ended on a happy note. Out of despair came hope, out of darkness came light, out of defeat came glory, out of death came life.

Psychologists note that people can bear almost anything as long as there is some meaning attached to it. We can put up with any "what" as long as we have a "why." Psychologists also observe that people can get through their problems and sufferings much more easily and productively if they believe there is light at the end of the tunnel. And this is precisely the good news that Easter gives us today. The dramatic lesson about Easter is not only that Jesus was raised from the dead, but that the resurrection of Jesus is our resurrection. A divine revelation is given that no matter what we suffer, no matter how badly we have it, no matter what tragedies we face-even death itself- we will be raised up as well. There is always light for us at the end of the tunnel. This light is often difficult to see, even imagine, especially when we are in the grip of an affliction or depression. When there seems to be no end to our struggles, when every road we take comes to a dead end, when suffering continues unabated, our inclination is not to believe in the light, but to curse the darkness. But it is expressly then, Easter promises, in the darkest night of the soul, that our resurrection is closest at hand. It may take courage but Easter beckons us to raise our eyes in hope and wait with trust for our redemption. No matter what we endure, God will raise us up. This is the glory of Christianity, the absolute promise of deliverance. Wisdom tells us there is a silver lining in every cloud, a reason for every problem we face, and an important lesson we learn in every suffering we endure. We are told "God never closes a door without opening up another." This isn't wishful thinking but a fact well-supported by experience. Some of the most important steps in our growth have taken place through suffering, which at the time perhaps seemed meaningless. There is never a Good Friday, however, without its Easter. Easter affirms that we will never be abandoned, that nothing is ever hopeless. Our strength, therefore, in facing our afflictions is not rigid stoicism or anger at life, or "why me?", or resignation to fate, but a patient, peaceful, confident Easter belief that it will be OK. There is light at the end of the tunnel.

Meditation The Paschal Candle

Today we light the Paschal Candle, it takes its name from the Hebrew word 'Pesach' meaning Passover. Passover was that time when the Israelites celebrated their exodus from slavery in Egypt. It was the feast celebrated by Jesus with the disciples (Maundy Thursday) on the night before he died. The Paschal Candle is then lit for every service in our church during the full 50 days of Eastertide. After the solemn weeks with purple colours of Lent we wear the white of Easter and the brightness of the candle symbolises the joy of the resurrection.

Post Communion Prayer

God of Life, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

God our Father, we come today to worship you and confess that devotion to you is often far from our minds. This morning may we refocus our attention upon our love for you and how we show that love. Help us Lord to be more willing to pour out our lives as fragrant offerings of love. We lay our lives before you and ask that we might know that love which does not count the cost.

Lord God, as we wait upon you now, as we listen for your voice in the silence of hearts and as we offer our prayers to you we think of those people in our lives who have loved us with a generous love we think of those who like Mary have not counted the cost of what they have given us; of those who given all of themselves to us as Christ gave himself for the world; and we thank you for them - and ask you to bless them and for you to make us like them. As we go into this week, O God, help us to have a focus, a purpose that is beyond that of just getting by; beyond that of just trying to make it through another week; show us we pray what you would have us do; reveal to us our own personal and unique ministry—and help us to do it.

In fact,
Christ has been raised
from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have died.
1 Corinthians 15:20

Bless O God those in our midst and those around the world whom we name in our hearts before you at this time; we especially ask for those who are poor in the basic needs of daily living; and for those who are poor in love; hear too the prayers we ask for those who need healing or hope in their lives, those who need justice, and those who require mercy.

The Easter Blessing

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Help Please! The sleeving collection is going well—Keep up the good work. Marion Prior Gardeners Ahoy — more help needed. We need to renovate the wide border round the car park, as the bark laid 4yrs ago has done its job, and turned into wonderful soil, which is easy to dig. We need to dig the soil over, remove weeds and roots, (especially convolvulus) and re-cover with bark. A start has been made. But if anyone else can do a bit to help it look right for Easter, that would be wonderful. B.Y.O. fork or spade. We have one barrow in the new courtyard, but its quicker with two! Liase with me if you need further information (01234 303254) Marion.

Line Dancing at St Mark's. Lessons begin 20 April. Further information contact Christine Rushton 01234 782360.

Churches Together Annual Forum 2007. To be held at St Nichols Church Hall, Barton. We would like our churches to be represented, can you go?

Woodland Burial. Reluctantly we have had to cancel the consecration date of the St Albans Woodland Burial Ground on 23 April. Sadly the date has not provided us with sufficient time to register the land. A new date is being arranged for May. Apologies for any inconvenience.

Bark, This is an excellent time to think about putting bark on your borders. The introduction of bark helps by retaining water, preventing weeds and breaking down poor soil. The Gardens at St Mark's have been using this for the past 10 years to good effect. St Mark's has just received a new delivery and we are able to supply the bark at a ridiculously cheap rate of 50p per bag—please supply the bag and yourself. Bags can be any size, provided that they can be lifted without mechanical effort.

Easter Offering 2007 - "Crossing divides"

Nomination for Church Councils

Are you interested in becoming a member of Putnoe Heights or St Mark's Church Council, or do you know somebody who would be interested? If so here is a good opportunity to serve your church for the benefit of its members and the local community. If you are interested you will need a proposer and seconder. If you wish to propose somebody else you will need their consent and a proposer and seconder. Please complete a nomination form (obtainable from the church office) and then hand it the church office by the latest for Sunday 29 April.

The annual congregational meetings will this year be held on 6 May 2007 after the Sunday morning service. We hope that people will feel that it is more convenient to simply remain behind after the service.

Thank You Storybox. The Storybox easter special on Good Friday was a great success. Thank you to everybody that helped in anyway to make it such an enjoyable Easter occasion.

Easter message from the President of the Methodist Conference The Revd Graham Carter, “Easter is about celebrating life – but not a self-centred, ‘let me be fulfilled at all costs’ kind of life. It’s about the life that does not depend upon wealth or power or status, but the kind of life that comes from the experience of the cross, that is, the experience of self-giving love that goes on giving, whatever the cost.

“During my presidential year I have experienced the immense generosity of poor people in various parts of the world. It has been embarrassing to receive gifts from people who are the poorest I have ever met. I have experienced God’s grace in acts of pure generosity and come away with my understanding of life deepened.

“Some time ago, when I was working with BBC Radio Merseyside, I had the opportunity of an interview with Jon Sobrino, one time colleague of Archbishop Oscar Romero who was assassinated in El Salvador while saying mass. He told me that those of us in the wealthy part of the world should not be paternalistic in our giving to charity, but learn that we had as much to receive from the poor as we had to give to them. This is what he said the poor have to give us: The poor don’t take life for granted – they know the value of simply being alive. The poor have a real sense of community and belonging to each other – they know their need to depend on each other. Community is more important than individualism. The poor show creativity at all levels – surviving is, in itself, an act of creativity. The poor know how to celebrate – celebration is not the same as entertainment or amusement.

Celebration means people are happy when they are with one another, they celebrate life in each other. The poor have tremendous generosity and commitment, even to the extent of giving up their lives. “This sounds like real life to me and is a reminder of how attachment to riches can prevent us from experiencing life as it is meant to be lived. It would be wrong to use this as an argument for keeping the poor in poverty, but for me there is something in this that echoes the Easter story. Resurrection life is not in spite of the cross, but because of it. It is only through self-giving love that we can experience real living.

“Easter is about celebrating life, but let’s be sure what kind of life we are celebrating and really go for it!”

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

James Molyneux

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.

Easter Hymn

If Christ had not been raised from death
our faith would be in vain,
our preaching but a waste of breath,
our sin and guilt remain.

But now the Lord is risen indeed;
he rules in earth and heaven:
his Gospel meets a world of need -
in Christ we are forgiven.

If Christ still lay within the tomb
then death would be the end,
and we should face our final doom
with neither guide nor friend.
But now the Saviour is raised up,
so when a Christian dies
we mourn, yet look to God in hope -
in Christ the saints arise!

If Christ had not been truly raised his church would live a lie;
his name should never more be praised,
his words deserve to die.
But now our great Redeemer lives;
through him we are restored;
his word endures, his church revives
in Christ, our risen Lord.

Rest in Peace
