Thank You

The Flowers at St Mark's have been given this week by Barbara Edwards in memory of her husband Cyril.

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Deborah and Kevin Wallace in memory of their Beloved only Daughter, Julie-Marie, on her birthday;

Also by Margaret and Alan Massey to mark their recent wedding anniversary.

A Prayer for Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God,
mercifully look upon our infirmities,
and in all dangers and necessities
stretch out your hand
to help and defend us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Verse of Scripture

He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."
Mark 10

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen
Common Worship

come unto me

First Bible Reading - Genesis 2: 18-24

The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him." Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found. So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.
(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Hebrews 1: 1-14 and 2: 5-16

In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs. It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. 6But there is a place where someone has testified: "What is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him? You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honour and put everything under his feet? In putting everything under him, God left nothing that is not subject to him. Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him. But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering. Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers. He says, "I will declare your name to my brothers; in the presence of the congregation I will sing your praises."
(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Mark 10: 2-16

Some Pharisees came and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" "What did Moses command you?" he replied. They said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away." "It was because your hearts were hard that Moses wrote you this law," Jesus replied. "But at the beginning of creation God 'made them male and female. "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh."¹ So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate." When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this. He answered, "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her. And if she divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery."

People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Commentary

God has a very high view of people. After all he created us - a little less than God - as Hebrews has it, quoting psalm 8. We are meant to have dominion over everything as the crown of creation – in the image of God ! This applies to men, to women and to children. Mark 10 shows us Jesus as the champion of women against the customs of his time – Jesus sees women as people equal with men in the sight of God – chattels ! And he made time for children.

But this ideal of what people should be is different from the present reality, which is so often the dark tragic story of failure. Endowed with knowledge we have invented destruction. Given freedom, we have chosen slavery.

C.G. Jung wrote; 'We are unable to suppress many of our emotions; we cannot change a bad mood into a good one and we cannot command our dreams to come and go.

Made for mastery, people are slaves to fears. Made for peace and joy, hearts are so often in torment.

Made for love, people hate, made for strength, people are too weak to throw off the shackles of sin.'

So we see hatred between races and groups, all sorts of divisions and chaos. We are in a real sense in bondage to sin and death. As Hebrews 2 /8 says 'At present we do not see everything subject to him.'

Rather, we abuse the planet.

Then Hebrews shows us how the actual can be changed into the ideal. But we see Jesus. He changes things by his sufferings and his glory he can make us what we were meant to be, and without him, can never be. He can do this because he has 'tested death for everyone.' His death was the defeat of sin and glorious promise to all who believe. And it's the wonder of his grace that he is 'not ashamed to call us brothers and sisters too ! ' That is how much we all mean to God. Richard Ledger

Meditation

The state of humanity is often linked to 'The Fall' in Genesis and the doctrine of original sin proves the sinfulness of all humankind. Steve Chalk in his book 'The Last Message of Jesus' points out that Jesus believed in original goodness ! God declared that all his creation, including humankind, was very good, and it is the original goodness that Jesus seeks out in us. He isn't denying that our relationship with God is in need of restoring and reconciliation, but he is rejecting any idea that we, or anyone else, are 'beyond the pale', beyond the reach of God's love. Steve Chalke reckons that it is a serious mistake to see humanity as inherently evil and steeped in original sin, instead of inherently made in God's image and so bathed in original goodness, however hidden it may become. He say that the doctrine of original sin was borne out of Augustine's view that the material world and everything in it was evil and corrupt. This 'fallenness' Augustine said was like a virus that is passed on. The Eastern Church especially followed the teaching of Irenaeus who believed that all people were God's image bearers and though flawed, were like flowers in bud, slowly coaxed into full bloom by God's love. Now there's a thought ! So how do we view other people ? Especially those different from us. What about people who do 'bad' things ? Do we write them off – condemn them ? Or could God's love slowly coax them into full bloom ? Isn't this what we are praying for when we pray, 'Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven' ? Everything – everyone – made new in Christ. One of my favourite Bible passages is the parable of the prodigal son – sometimes called the parable of the loving father. Do look it up in Luke 15. A story of amazing grace. Richard Ledger

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead.

Blessing and honour and thanksgiving and praise, more than we can utter, more than we can conceive, be unto Thee, O holy and glorious Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, by all angels, by all men, and all creatures for ever and ever Amen. (Thomas Ken 17th Century)

Thanks be to thee, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits which thou hast won for us, for all the pains and insults which thou hast borne for us. O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may we know thee more clearly, love thee more dearly and follow thee nearly, day by day Amen. (Richard of Chichester, 13th Century)

Eternal God, light of the minds that knows you, the life of the souls that loves you, strength of the wills that serve you; help us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whom to serve in perfect freedom. (Pope Gelasius, 8th Century.)

Dear Master, in whose life I see all that I long, but fail to be, let your clear light for ever shine to shame and guide this life of mine. Though what I dream and what I do in poor days are always true, help me oppressed by things undone, dear Lord, whose deeds and dreams were one. (John Hunter, 19th Century)

Bless our land, O Lord, may we be a nation of laughter and joy, of justice and reconciliation, of peace and unity, of compassion, caring and sharing. (Desmond Tutu, 20th Century.)

Headsup 4 a gr8 nu free txt service

The first of its kind in the UK, mtxt4u is a new regular texting service for 9 to 13 year-olds. Launched by MethodistChildren, the service aims to keep children in touch with what's going on in the world, give them food for thought and help them to get more involved in church life.

From 4 October, children who subscribe to the service will receive texts under 8 different topics: Links, UrWorld, Challenge, World, Action, Prayer, DaBuzz and Headsup. To sign up, they can simply text JOIN to 07786205203 and it's absolutely free.

Penny Fuller, MethodistChildren 9-13 Project Worker, said that; "With over 90% of 12 year-olds now owning a mobile phone, this is a great way to reach young people. Church can sometimes seem boring or irrelevant to young people and we want to show them that there are loads of exciting ways to get involved. We hope that by covering a variety of issues and even by setting the odd challenge, we can help them engage with a whole host of topics and think about what being Christian means for them".

Users of the service can respond to any of the texts they receive from mtxt4u by having their say on DaBlab – the bulletin board in the brand new 9-13s section of the MethodistChildren website (www.methodistchildren.org.uk). The new look website has much more to offer, including the latest film and music reviews, puzzles, BrainEacs activities (puzzles and games), a prayer page and much more. There will also be a chance for children to find out what's going on around to world and to share their own stories.

Penny said, "There'll be loads more to see and do on the site. As it continues to develop and grow, we're looking for groups and individuals to get involved, let us know what they'd like to see and even to contribute their own material. It's their website, so it should be done their way".

The website also has an area for children under 12, with lots to do, including fun and games, a storybook and even a gallery for children to submit their own pictures. But it's not all for the children; children's workers have their own section of the site, with an activity page for leaders, resources, training information and a bulletin board.

A Hymn for Sunday

God has spoken-by his prophets,
 Spoken his unchanging word,
 Each from age to age proclaiming
 God, the one, the righteous Lord.
 'Mid the world's despair and turmoil
 One firm anchor holds us fast:
 God is King, his throne eternal,
 God the first, and God the last.

God has spoken-by Christ Jesus,
 Christ, the everlasting Son,
 Brightness of the Father's glory,
 With the Father ever one;
 Spoken by the Word incarnate,
 God from God, ere time began,
 Light from Light, to earth descending,
 Man, revealing God to man.

God is speaking-by his Spirit,
 Speaking to the hearts of men,
 In the age-long word expounding
 God's own message, now as then,
 Through the rise and fall of nations
 One sure faith yet standing fast;
 God still speaks, his word unchanging,
 God the first, and God the last.

Tune Ode to Joy

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Branco Stanojev

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
