Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church
this week are given by Irene McKenzie in memory of her dearly beloved husband Eddie on their wedding anniversary.

The flowers at St Mark's Church this week have been given by Lois Webb in memory of her husband Peter on their 60th wedding anniversary.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St. Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the Foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

O Holy Spirit, giver of life and light, breath of all creatures, purifier of all souls and healer of all wounds:
be fire to my heart, light on my path and friend for my journey; and this for your own love's sake. Amen.

Ordinary 19

Sentence of Scripture John 6:35

"I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty".

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Common Worship

First Bible Reading 1 Kings 19:3-8

Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there, while he himself went a day's journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. "I have had enough, LORD," he said. "Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep. All at once an angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat." He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, "Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you." So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he travelled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

(This is the word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading Ephesians 4:25-5:2

Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbour, for we are all members of one body. In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold. He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need. Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

(This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 6:35, 41-51

Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven?'" "Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father. I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life. I am the bread of life. Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which a man may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

(This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands that have taken holy things; may the ears which have heard your word be deaf to clamour and dispute; may the tongues which have sung your praise be free from deceit; may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love shine with the light of hope; and may the bodies which have been fed with your body be refreshed with the fullness of your life; glory to you for ever.

Commentary

Elijah was frightened, exhausted, and dispirited. He became depressed in spite of his great triumph. So he prayed to God to give immediate death to his worthless self. Then, as depressed people will do, he went to sleep. He was under a broom tree (a tall hedge with which desert people shielded themselves from the sun in the day and the wind at night). God could have been harsh to Elijah as a result. But instead, a quiet touch from God's angel awakened the prophet, and the angel whispered: get up and eat. Lo and behold, "there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water." Elijah did eat and drink, but then settled right back into sleep again. With tender care the angel whispered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He did and was strengthened for the unknown mission he was to be sent on. Today's other readings are all about God's kindness to us too, his goodness even in small things. In the Gospel, Jesus offers nourishment too, but this time the provisions are for a very long journey: eternal life. The people listening will not have a bit of it. They argue among themselves, ridiculing his silly offer of miraculous food. They "murmur" that they knew his parents, which made him just a local boy acting crazy. Jesus ordered them to stop complaining and listen. He made the same comparison that we saw last week, between manna that came down from heaven in the desert and Himself, "the living bread that came down from heaven." Jesus as living bread can be a difficult concept to understand. But leave that aside for a moment and just concentrate on the deliberate kindness God shows to his people: feeding them, giving them drink, pursuing them again and again in order to offer the greatest gift of all, God's sacrificial love for us. God follows us quietly, gently. How can and should we respond? Receiving the living bread in Communion is a beginning. Reflecting on the mellowness of God is another. And simply slowing down. Stop running away and let the Lord find you. God's kind-hearted and also tough love is quite worth the struggle.

Elijah wanted to give it all up and most of us have been there and were tempted to do that as well. But God so often sends angels to "touch" us, to give us the "Bread from Heaven" and continues to urge us "get up and eat" and then get up and get on with the living. Our comfort is more than bread, it is that we have been taken by Christ from underneath the "broom tree" and he keeps us as His real presence in the society in which we live. Elijah moaned, "This is enough, O Lord! Take my life," Jesus says to us, "I am enough! You take my life, eat it all, live it all and you will be already living the eternal life I came and come to share."
Sam Cappleman

Meditation

There are times when people we know and love despair to the point of wanting to die. Perhaps there have been times when we ourselves have thought death a better alternative. Our journey through life takes us through some very dangerous country, our pilgrimage of life can lead us into some very desolate wilderness. Think of the words of the angel to Elijah, the words "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you."

To survive on our journey, to have the strength to go through the barren places of life, those places where we are alone - because of divorce, or illness, or death - we need to eat to drink the food and the drink that God has prepared for us. God does provide food in the words of his scriptures, in the lives of good people around us. We reach out to God when we are in need, when we are in despair, it is then that we must wait upon that still small voice which encourages us to believe, to trust, to rise up and feed upon the living bread. It is only as we do this that we all gain strength to enable us to complete our journey.

A Pastoral Letter to the congregations at St Mark's and Putnoe Heights

On 19 June 2015, plans were presented to the Methodist Circuit meeting for a change to Methodist ministerial deployment across the Circuit, including at St Mark's. These plans had significant implications for all churches in the circuit.

It was only after much careful consideration and prayer that the St Mark's Leadership Team and Church Council arrived at the decision that they did not wish to be included in the new plans.

It was necessary to make this decision and to inform the Circuit that St Mark's did not wish to be included in the plans, and therefore the process for the appointment of a new Methodist Minister in 2016, before the process to find a minister commenced. This process is now underway having started at the end of July 2015. Putnoe Heights are fully involved in the process.

For many years now, serious concerns have been expressed by the Leadership Team at St Mark's regarding the Circuit and decisions taken by it regarding ministerial deployment. It has also been increasingly apparent that there are fundamental differences in approaches to ministry, especially with regard to issues such as continuity of ministry.

The Methodist Circuit plans for the Partnership, which included St Mark's sharing a Methodist Minister with three other churches in the Circuit, were far removed from the original understanding of the Partnership between Putnoe Heights and St Mark's. We do recognise, however, that, on this occasion, circumstances are being dictated by a lack of Methodist ministerial resources that are affecting churches across the Circuit. Both St Mark's and Putnoe Heights are fully supportive of the Circuit Leadership Team as they seek to deploy decreasing ministerial resources across a wide number of churches.

As an outcome of the position at St Mark's, however, the Church Council of St Mark's Church have taken the decision to dissolve the formal Ecumenical Partnership with the Methodist Church, expressed in its Charitable Incorporated Organisation and become an Anglican Church.

St Mark's remains completely committed to unity between Christians of all denominations. However, because of the Methodist ministerial changes, it is not believed that a formal ecumenical partnership with the Methodist Church at St Mark's is the best way serve the mission and ministry there in the future. There continues, nevertheless, to be a significant commitment at St Mark's to go on working ecumenically.

We have been asked whether the Partnership between St Mark's and Putnoe Heights will continue and our answer to this is that not only will it continue, but also that we very much hope that it will flourish, albeit in a changing way. The Partnership News, Telecare, alternating services of Holy Communion at 8.30am, social and many other activities need not be affected.

Putnoe Heights Church will remain a single congregation Local Ecumenical Partnership between the Methodist Church and the Church of England. Pastoral care will continue to be shared by Anglican and Methodist ministers, and Methodist and Anglican leading of worship will continue.

The Ministers have also been asked, going forward, whether there will be inclusion of Methodist ministers or local preachers in the worship at St Mark's. The answer is, of course, yes! There is no need for a formal LEP to exist to allow such participation since the Church of England has specific rules (Canon B43) that allow ministers or lay people of other churches to share in Anglican services, if the person participating is entitled to do so in their own church.

Our ministers have met with the Circuit Superintendent, the Reverend Andrew Hollins, and a very positive working agreement has been drawn up to ensure a Methodist ministry at Putnoe Heights supported by the ministry team from St Mark's.

As we prepare for the new arrangements, there will be no changes for the coming year and the usual shared activities will continue as before and our pattern of worship will be unchanged. This will give everyone plenty of time to make preparations and to share in prayer as we seek God's blessing on the continuing mission and ministry at St Mark's and Putnoe Heights Churches and in the churches of our wider Circuit and Deanery.

Called to Service I am delighted to report that Bishop Alan has asked our very own Rev Dr Sam Cappleman to become Assistant Rural Dean for Bedford Deanery. Since his retirement from business life, Sam has already taken on a national role as Executive Chair of the Lee Abbey Movement. This new additional responsibility is an acknowledgement of the extraordinary gifts which Sam brings to his ministry. Sam will carry out these new duties alongside his ongoing ministry and commitment to our Partnership Churches at St Mark's and Putnoe Heights. The appointment is with immediate effect and so please continue to support Sam in your prayers. This is the first time that a minister from our churches has been invited to take this responsibility in our Deanery. Charlie Extraordinary Church Council Meeting, at Putnoe Heights, open to all, will be held after morning service on Sunday 23 August. The one agenda item is to discuss the recent development of The Ecumenical Partnership and the way forward for Putnoe Heights Church.

Telecare

If you are elderly or living alone then it is important for us to be able to keep in contact with you. Please sign up for Telecare and we will give you a telephone call every week or fortnight to check if all is well. This enable us to keep track if somebody is ill and cannot come to church. We would like more people to join so just give St Mark's office a ring and they will put you on the list. This is a telephone service, nobody will call without your request.

Prayers for the week ahead

O Lord, who has taught us that all our doings without love are worth nothing, send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the very bond of peace and of all virtue.

Heavenly Father, you are the fountain of all truth, the bottomless sea of all understanding. Enlighten our minds with the beams of your heavenly grace.

You command the stormy sea, be within our restless souls and grant unto us the stillness and peace of your blessing. Let us not be carried hither and thither by wandering thoughts, but, forgetting all else, let us see and hear you.

Lord God, draw your church deeper into you and give us grace that we may be seen to be the living expression of your presence. May we in all things seek to imitate the example of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

We pray for courage and endurance when the going is hard to save us from despair of faltering. Help us to set aside our fears and renew us with your heavenly food that our lives might be known by a song of thanksgiving and praise.

Heavenly Father we pray for all of those who are weak and weary. In your tender love sustain them and give us your eye of compassion to draw us to help your children in whatever situations of need they may find themselves.

Heavenly Father you promise to us in our human frailty the gift of your redemption. Hear our prayer for all we know who have died. May we with them pass through death to eternal life with you.

Thou hast given so much to me, give one thing more - a grateful heart.
Not thankful when it pleaseth me, as if thy blessings had spare days, but such a heart whose pulse may be thy praise

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office
